In another column we give the contents of a notice being posted by Water Bailiff F. W. Smith, of Coos river. Since it is a well-established fact that the little "shiners" mentioned therein are young salmon, our people should not be so unlaw-abiding as to make it necessary to make arrests. The waste of catch these little things is so apparent that all should refrain from their destruction without further warning. The state is applying a considerable sum of money each year to their propagation in the way of putting in hatcheries, and it is too had to efforts by the ruthless district of their output.

All who will kindly loan curios will please notify Mrs. J. C. Snook, president of the club.

Articles will be so exhibited as to be perfectly secure from injury. Prices popular.

Program of C. E. Rally at the Christian Church Sunday April 17, 1904.

The C. E. Rally was a success in every feature. Delegates from Riverton, Willowdale and Myrtle Point were present as well as those from other young people's societies of the city. The sunrise prayer meeting was uplifting; the "Endeavor Idea" as outlined in the morning sermon is organized effort and individual development; the committee conferences brought out many helpful ideas; $16.80 was pledged for the missionary work of the society.

The evening session closed a busy and helpful day, with a strong plea for a Junior C. E., a clear setting forth of Christ's claims for life service, an urgent appeal for all to take and discharge their responsibilities, and a carefully presented study of a good prayer meeting.

Following is the program which was carried out:

6:30 a. m. Sunrise prayer meeting. Leader, Mrs. Jennie Thompson.
