Trusts.

Washington, April 21.—When Congressman Littlefield, last year, had printed in the Congressional Record his list of 800 trusts, with nearly $14,000,000,000 of capital, the country was startled at the exhibit. Now comes Mr. John Moody a Wall Street publisher, with a new book entitled, "The Truth About the Trusts," which gives us even higher figures.

Mr. Moody gives a classified list of the leading trusts in the United States. He gives 318 important industrial trusts, controlling 5,288 plants, having a total capitalization outstanding of $7,246,342,533. He enumerates 111 important franchise trusts, (telegraph, telephone, gas, electric light and street railway consolidations), controlling 1,336 plants, and having a total outstanding capitalization of $3,735,456,075. He discusses the six great steam railroad groups with a total capitalization of $9,017,086,907, and the ten allied independent railroad systems having a capitalization of $380,277,000.

The great total of the capitalization of all the trusts considered in this book, industrial, franchise and transportation, is $20,379,162,411.

After mentioning the fact that there is in this country about $80,000,000,000 of wealth outside of the trusts (as used in Mr. Moody's book the Wall Street Journal, of March 17th makes the following very significant statement:

"It should not be overlooked that the trust wealth is the most important, in that it largely controls all the other wealth. The trusts are in control of the transportation facilities of the country. They are practically in control of its banking facilities, and they control its main industrial systems. Through control of the banks, the railroads and the leading industrial companies, the directors of these trusts practically direct the business of the country, and when it is said that of the $20,000,000,000 of trust capital in the United States, upwards of $1,000,000,000 is held by one family, and that the greater amount is represented by a group of perhaps a dozen capitalists, one gets some conception of the immense power which is wielded in this country by a few capitalists."

The fact that the Wall Street Journal, and to some extent also, Mr. Moody, attempts to justify the existence of these trusts is of no consequence. It is of great importance that nearly all of these trusts, with over $20,000,000,000 of capitalization, are illegal combinations and would probably be declared, if they were brought to the bar of justice. Our easy-going Attorney-General, however, got frightened when he won a suit against one of them, really begun by the governor of Minnesota, and hastened to tell them that the government was not going to "run amuck" in its opposition to trusts. Wall Street interpreted this statement, and other assurances that were said to come direct from the White House, to mean that there would be no more suits begun against these illegal and criminal trusts this year, and proceeded to put up the prices of trust stocks. The Supreme Court decision was given on Monday; on the following Saturday the prices of these trust stocks closed higher than they had sold for many weeks before. Even the stocks of the Northern Securities Company, against which the Supreme Court decision was rendered, sold up about 8 points within one week from the rendering of the decision.

An Open Letter.

From the Chapin, S. C. News:—Early in the spring my wife and I were taken with diarrhoea and so severe were the pains that we called a physician who prescribed for us, but his medicines failed to give us any relief. A friend who had a bottle of Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy on hand gave each of us a dose and we at once felt the effects. I procured a bottle and before using the entire contents we were entirely cured. It is a wonderful remedy and should be found in every household. H. C. Bailey, Editor. This remedy is for sale by R. S. Knowlton.

Ashland Boy Named.

Washington, April 28.—Representative Herman today appointed James D. Moore, of Ashland, midshipman at the Annapolis Naval Academy. Samuel Marsden of Marshfield, was appointed alternate.

The allegation that messages were sent from the White House to the court which tried the President's brother-in-law for the collision between two of our warships, is denied by those in authority and an investigation is to find out if any such telegrams were sent.

The American Circus.

W. R. Andrews, of Grand Rapids, Michigan, at a recent toast, got off the following appeal to the Filipinos:

"You Filipinos don't know what you are missing by not wanting to become citizens of this grand country of ours. There isn't anything like it under the sun. You ought to send a delegation over to see us—the land of the free—land of fine churches and 40,000 licensed saloons; bibles, forts and guns, houses of prostitution; millionaires and paupers; theologians and thieves; libertarians and liars; politicians and poverty; Christians and chain gangs; schools and scalwags; trusts and tramps; money and misery; homes and hunger; virtue and vice; a land where you can get a good bible for fifteen cents and a bad drink of whisky for five cents; where we have a man in congress with three wives and a lot in the penitentiary for having two wives; where some men make sausage out of their wives, and some want to eat them raw; where we make bologna out of dogs, canned beef out of horses and sick cows, and corpses out of the people who eat it; where we put a man in jail for not having the means of support and on the rock pile for asking for a job of work; where we license bawdy houses and fine men for preaching Christ on the street corners; where we have a congress of 400 men who make laws, and a supreme court of nine men who set them aside; where good whiskey makes bad men and bad men make good whiskey; where newspapers are paid for suppressing the truth and are made rich for teaching a lie; where professors draw their convictions from the same place they do their salaries; where preachers are paid $25,000 a year to deliver the devil and tickle the ears of the wealthy; where business consists of getting hold of property in any way that won't land you in the penitentiary; where trusts 'hold up' and poverty 'holds down'; where men vote for what they do not want for fear they won't get what they do want by voting for it. Where 'niggers' can vote and women cannot; where a girl who goes wrong is made an outcast and her male partner flourishes as a gentleman; where women wear false hair and men 'dock' their horses' tails; where the political wire-puller has displaced the patriotic statesman; where men vote for a thing one day and cuss it 364 days; where we have prayers on the floor of our National Capitol and whiskey in the cellar; where we spend $500 to bury a statesman who is rich and $10 to put away a working man who is poor; where to be virtuous is to be lonesome and to be honest is to be a crank; where we sit on the safety-valve of energy and pull wide open the throttle of conscience; where gold is substance—the one thing sought for; where we pay $15,000 for a dog and fifteen cents a dozen to a poor woman for making shirts; where we teach the 'untutored' Indian eternal life from the Bible and kill him off with bad whiskey; where we put a man in jail for stealing a loaf of bread and in congress for stealing a railroad; where the checkbook talks, sin walks in broad daylight, justice is asleep, crime runs amuck, corruption permeates our whole social and political fabric, and the devil laughs from every street corner. Come to us, Filippies! We've got the greatest aggregation of good things and bad things, hot things and cold things, all sizes, varieties and colors, ever exhibited under one tent."

The Primary Law Vindicates Itslef

The primary law has again more than vindicated itself and proved its popularity. It is not without defects, but the defects are rather in the nature of omissions than of unfortunate arrangements. Its popularity is shown in the heavy percentage of votes polled and its value is shown in the judiciousness, with which the voters exercised their choice. There are probably few who would not like to make some substitutions in the tickets but on neither ticket, except in one or two cases where there was no contest, have the voters selected any distinctly vicious candidates. The assembly tickets are particularly satisfactory, and in the various aldermanic contests the fittest men, all things considered, seem to have won.—St. Paul (Minn.) Pioneer Press

Who cannot stand the shocking strain of laxative syrups and cathartic pills are especially fond of Little Early Risers. All persons who find it necessary to take a liver medicine should try these easy pills, and compare the agreeably pleasant and strengthening effect with the nauseating and weakening conditions following the use of other remedies. Little Early Risers cure biliousness, constipation, sick headache, jaundice, malaria and liver troubles. Sold by R. S. Knowlton.

Note and Comment.

President Roosevelt is greatly puzzled to know whether he is more admired by King Edward or Emperor William, both.

Senator Burton of Kansas having been sentenced to six months in the Penitentiary, is now looking down into his old seat from the Senate gallery.

General Botha has cabled from South Africa in behalf of the Transvaal farmers protesting against the proposed "Boer war buffoonery" during the Exhibition at St. Louis as "an outrage upon every patriotic man."

The barbarity of lynching would doubtless diminish if the woman in the case were given a confidential private hearing and if the legal punishment of the guilty were more prompt.

The Japanese advance has slowed down. General Ma must be sitting on the brake. He forgets that every day now is a distinct gain for the Russians and a distinct loss to the Japanese.

The field maneuvers of the army on the Bull Run battle field will begin September 6th. Fifteen days will be spent in evolutions and 35,000 soldiers will participate. The tax-payer pays the piper.

Washington D. C. is greatly afflicted by a scandal of first class proportions in the public schools. It is as omnipresent as the head of King Charles I was in the conversation of Mr. Dick, or the head of Banquo at the banquet.

Twenty members of the Ohio legislature were recently caught by the police in a gambling den in Columbus. A most impolitic haul! Adverses fail to state whether the representatives were Foraker or Dick men.

There seems to be a growling in elation in all parts of the country to restore whipping in the public schools, at least to an extent sufficient to maintain rigid order. The threat of expulsion (it is scarcely ever more than that) has proved wholly ineffective.

The government has decided that books, even if serials, can no longer go through the United States mails as periodicals. This decree will make a difference of so many millions in the receipts of the post office that our mail-carrying will probably be self-supporting after this year.

It looks as if Judge Parker and Mr. Hearst might each have more than a third of the Democratic national convention and therefore be able to prevent each other's nomination. In that case there would be a chance for a dark horse, like Towne, Miles, or Williams, or whoever may be your favorite.

A man who was arrested in Washington City for swearing in Hebrew was not punished by the police justice who held that profanity in a foreign language is not a violation of law. Congressmen who wish to express their opinion of Bristow are committing to memory the requisite number of words in alien tongues.

President McKinley, never a stickler for civil service reform, suspended the rules arbitrarily three times in his more than four years as president; and President Roosevelt, the foremost champion of the reform of the country, and for years a member of the civil service commission, has in two years and a half suspended the rules promotorily sixty times and appointed forty persons to competitive positions who have not passed the examination.

Two for the Price of One.

We have made arrangements with the publishers of the AMERICAN FARMER by which we are able to offer this great farm paper and the HERALD for the price of the HERALD alone—$1.50, for the next 30 days. Who will be the first to take advantage of this opportunity? This is a great offer for our farmers and dairymen.

Weak lungs should be careful. Coughs and colds are dangerous then. One Minute Cough Cure cures coughs and colds and gives strength to the lungs. Mrs. G. E. Fenner, of Marion, Ind., says: "I suffered with a cough until I run down in weight from 148 to 92 lbs. I tried a number of remedies to no avail until I used One Minute Cough Cure. Four bottles of this wonderful remedy cured me entirely of the cough, strengthened my lungs and restored me to my normal weight, health and strength." Sold by R. S. Knowlton.
