Landmark Gone

Word was received here this morning to the effect that the old Laird house, more familiarly known as the "halfway" house on the Roseburg and Coos Bay wagon Road, was burned last night. This house was built in the pioneer days of Oregon and has, at different times, sheltered almost every old timer on the coast. Part of the contents of the house were saved.—Mail.

Notice.

As several of the public school pupils were unable to pass with their grades on account of sickness, and in order that they may be able to do so, upon the solicitation of several, I have determined to open a summer afternoon school at the Academy. The tuition will be reasonable, according to the number of pupils. Those wishing to attend, please call at the house this week, or come to the Academy, Monday, June 13, at two o'clock p. m. Mrs. JENNIE THOMPSON

Grandma Collier, residing on the corner opposite the Pharmacy building, had the misfortune to break her left arm at the wrist on Thursday afternoon while doing a little cleaning up in her yard. She is resting as well as could be expected.

New Laundry in Operation.

The new steam laundry of Nosler & Lyons, mentioned in the last issue of this paper, is now in operation and fully shows that the proprietors made good selections in choosing their machinery and that Mr. La Baux is an expert in conducting an institution of this kind. A wagon is now looking after the gathering of the goods and their proper delivery after being laundered, for our city customers, while agencies have been established at Myrtle Point, Norway Bandon and other points where laundry will be received and delivered by the boats. They are prepared to do all kinds of work in the most modern style.

For a Hundred Years.

For a hundred years or more Witch Hazel has been recognized as a superior remedy, but it remained for E. C. Dewitt & Co. of Chicago, to combine the virtues of Witch Hazel with other antiseptics, in the form of a salve. Dewitt's Witch Hazel Salve is the best salve in the world for sores, cuts, burns, bruises and piles. The high standing of this salve has given rise to counterfeits, and the public is advised to look for the name "DeWitt" on the package, and accept no other. Sold by R. S. Knowlton.

A. M. Simpson passed through town Friday on his way from North Bend to San Francisco, by way of the Middle Fork road. He was accompanied as far as the Point by his son, L. J.
