

man of Kansas shipped steers to Kansas City, but the railroad failed to get them through on time and he lost $766 by a drop in the market. He brought suit and recovered his money, but an appeal was taken and now the higher court confirms the judgment by refusing to grant a motion for a new trial. Hereafter steers will be moved with dispatch in Kansas and Missouri. Individuals are promptly made to live up to their contracts, and corporations should be treated in the same manner.

ACCORDING to telegraphic reports Florida pines are hard on meteorites. One fell during a recent thunder storm and search for it revealed the fact that it had been split in two pieces by falling upon a pine tree.

ILLINOIS leads all of the states in the amount of railroad mileage, and Iowa next, while the immensely wealthy, aristocratic, president-naming New York only comes in as the sixth in the line.

MILLIKEN, of Maine, has introduced a bill in congress to repeal the internal revenue laws and admit sugar free.

JAMES B. BECK has been re-elected United States senator from Kentucky.

MARRIED.

GAFF ACHESON.—At the residence of the bride's parents, Shedd on Friday, Jan. 10, by Rev. A. M. Acheson, Mr. J. V. Gaff and Miss Jennie Acheson.

The contracting parties are well and favorably known, the groom being a rising young physician of Shedd, and the bride a daughter of Matthew Acheson, a well known citizen of Linn county.

DIED.

JONES.—At her residence in the city of Oakland, Douglas county, Oregon, Elizabeth Jones, wife of S. J. Jones, at the age of 25 years, 1 month and 25 days, on Jan. 5, 1888. Funeral was held at the Baptist church in Oakland on January 6, conducted by Elder Richardson and Rev. P. C. Parker.

NEW DEPARTURE!

FROM AND AFTER THIS DATE

SHANE AND LONSWAY

Will offer their entire stock of boots and shoes to the general public at FIRST COST until disposed of. Their object in so doing is to close out promptly that branch of their business so as to devote the entire available space of their store to dry and fancy goods, ladies and gents' furnishing goods and millinery. As the entire shoe stock was purchased last fall, the opportunity to purchase new and desirable goods at actual cost is a rare one. During this sale we will also offer below cost our entire stock of winter cloaks and millinery. We will also make a sweeping reduction in all woolen hosiery, warm underwear, and especially in heavy winter dress goods, as our policy is to carry nothing of that kind over the present season. We mean just what we say. SHANE & LONSWAY.

AN OPEN LETTER.

To THE LADY OF THE HOUSE—Dear Madam: Appreciating your desire to supply your family with a good variety of wholesome food, we take great pleasure in calling your attention to our grocery store that we have just opened, between the opera house and postoffice, in this city, where we keep a large assortment of fresh groceries and provisions. Every thing in our stock is new and clean, and the very best quality to be found in the markets within our reach. In addition to our stock of staple groceries, we keep a nice line of confectionery and fruit, which we can furnish in any quantity you desire. When receiving articles from our store if they do not give entire satisfaction we would be glad to have you notify us, and we will cheerfully refund the money. Now as to terms and prices: We sell for cash in hand, and do not wish in any case to deviate from this rule, desiring to treat all alike. We believe this to be the better way for both you and us, and you will understand that no discourtesy is intended by our refusal to sell goods on credit. Our prices are made uniformly low, and we offer no special inducements or "baits," but will sell everything in our line at as low prices as articles of as good quality can be furnished. Soliciting a share of your patronage, we remain, Yours Respectfully, KENTON & CHASE.
