Heavy rains. If you can't swim get an accident policy of Winn in the Travelers.

Boston brown bread is among the cold weather luxuries at Parker Bros. bakery.

James Dannals is putting up a new house on his corner lot south of the school house.

A new supply of genuine Mocho and Old Gov. Java Coffee, just received by Kenton & Chase.

Minot Austin and wife, of Canyon City, are visiting their cousins, E. & C. Howard, of this city.

The downpour of rain last night, with the thermometer up to balmy spring mark, indicates a rise in the river.

The Pyke Opera Company have changed their dates of performance in this ... one day, and will appear Friday, Jan. 27.

The immense stock of boots and shoes at A. B. McIlwain's is being slaughtered at twenty-five per cent. discount on each and every dollar's worth sold.

The members of the Y. W. C. T. U. will hold their regular meeting at the W. C. T. U. hall at 4:30 o'clock this Thursday afternoon. All members are requested to be present.

L. W. Garretson, formerly of this city now of Spokane Falls, is visiting here, being on his way to Iowa and the East, via Los Aangeles and the Southern Pacific.

A small blank book containing the list of San Francisco Chronicle and labeled as such was lost in city a few days ago. The finder will please leave the same at this office.

The Y. W. C. T. U. are soon to give one of the most peculiar, uncommon and astonishing socials ever given in this city or any other. Their programme will soon be published.

Messrs. Franklin & Co. have opened in connection with their second hand store a first-class tin shop, and will hereafter be in the field for contracts and all other work usually connected with the business.

As has already been stated the W. C. T. U. hall will be formally dedicated with appropriate services on Tuesday evening, Jan. 31. The ladies of the union intend to open the reading room as soon after the dedication as they can make arrangements. They hope to make this room pleasant and attractive, and provide the library with interesting and instructive books. As a reading room has been such a long-felt want in Albany, we feel sure the young men of our city will thoroughly appreciate the efforts of the ladies to give them a place in which to spend their leisure evenings profitably as well as agreeably.

Robbed of Five Dollars.

George Woodthorpe, a member of the stranded De Lano's Uncle Tom's Cabin Co., who arrived in this city Saturday night, was employed by the Abbey's Uncle Tom's Cabin Company, which remained over Sunday after their Saturday evening's engagement here. He roomed with a member of the company named Dunno, and yesterday morning he arose in time to take the ... train for Portland and took with him $5 from the pockets of his room mate. He evidently was not a high-minded fellow and bought small game. He might have ... monkey or ... and start a little show of his own.

SALEM SUICIDE.

The Dead Girl's Remains Sent to Relatives at Echo.

The HERALD's Special Dispatches.]

SALEM, Jan. 23.—The body of Aurilla Straight, the young woman who committed suicide in Mill creek, was shipped to Echo, Umatilla county, to-day where it will be received for burial by relatives.

The coroners inquest over the remains yesterday found that the name of the deceased is Aurilla Straight, a native of Oregon, age about 17 or 18 years, single; that she came to her death on or about January 11, 1888, at the city of Salem, Oregon, by drowning in North Mill Creek, while temporarily insane.

No blame is attached to the faculty of the Sister's school. The sending of the body as stated in the above telegram was by the directon of Mrs. Gentry a sistsr of the deceased. Mr. Hugh Fields, the girl's guardian, telegraphed acquiescence and will pay all expenses.

THE NAUGHTY BLOOD-HOUNDS.

One of Them Gets Loose and Chews Up the Pony of Uncle Tom's Cabin Co.

One of the big blood-hounds with Abbey's Uncle Tom's Cabin Company, which was fastened in a stall at John Schmeer's livery stable Sunday, got loose and in some manner removed his muzzle and attacked little Miss Eva's pony. The great brute fastened his teeth into the pony's throat and lacerated it in a fearful manner. Men standing near interfered or the dog would have killed the pony. A veterinary surgeon sewed up the wounds inflicted by the ugly blood-hound, and yesterday the pony trotted off with the company, only a little stiff and lame after its escapade.

The Salem Suicide.

The inquest over the body of Aurilla Straight, the young woman found drowned in Mill creek Saturday was held held at Rotan's undertaking establishment Sunday morning by Justice O'Donald, acting coroner, and a jury of six. A number of witnesses were examined, but the testimony all threw no new light on the mystery surrounding the young woman's death except that it was evident that she deliberately committed suicide for some unknown reason. The jury returned a verdict that the deceased had taken her own life by throwing herself in the creek while temporarily insane. The guardian and relatives of Miss Straight in Linn county were notified of her death.

Attention !

GENERAL ORDER No. 4:

"F" Company, 2nd Regiment, Oregon National Guard will assemble at the Albany opera house in Albany, Oregon, on Tuesday the 24th day of January 1888 at 7:30 P. M. for regular drill, and thereafter at all times provided by the constitution and orders of the company. The finance committee having completed arrangements for the use of the opera house, the same will be used as the armory of the company until further orders. All members govern themselves accordingly. Done by order of Capt. O. H. Irvine, commanding the company this 23rd day of January, 1888.

T. J. OVERMAN, 2nd Sergent,
Acting 1st Sergant "F" Co.

Snow Two Feet Deep on the Oregon Pacific—A Barn Crushed—Other Items.

MIDDLE RIDGE, Jan. 18.

The old Coffelt barn on H. Bryant's place fell on the 2d inst., crushing a horse belonging to Mr Powers, who is improving a new farm near Sodaville. Luckily no other stock were at the barn at the time.

Mrs. Zoosman's nephew, Mr Sanders, of California, is making his relatives here a visit.

Charles Pyburn and wife have commenced housekeeping in Mr. Bryant's house.

Charles Thompson and family and Ed. Coker arrived at M. W. Miller's Saturday evening from the camp of the Oregon Pacific. They report the snow two feet deep.

We have been having some pretty sharp weather lately. It was five degrees below zero on the mornings of the 14th and 15th.

A number of our young folks were out sleigh riding Sunday.

The River.

The recent rains have caused a rise in the river of about two feet. This washed away much of the ice along the banks and the upper river is again nearly open for the traffic of steamboats. The ferry-boat, which has been frozen up in the ice on the opposite side for a week or more, was gotten out yesterday and placed in position to again begin doing regular service.

The Great Barnum Coming.

It is said that Barnum will spread the tents of his great circus in Oregon during the year 1888; that his advertising car will arrive in Portland within three months, and Barnum himself, accompanying his big show, will soon follow.

Friday, Elias Hevel, who lives in Umatilla county, a few miles north of Echo, in attempting to oil a horse power, used to run a chopping mill, had one of his hands caught in the cogs, and terribly lacerated. Surgeons found it necessary to amputate several fingers and a portion of the hand.

New line of gents' furnishing goods now arriving at C. B. Roland's.

Fresh Eastern oysters served in every style at Frances Pfeiffer's.

Heavy Robbery in Indian Territory.

SUMMARY VENGEANCE METED.

Murderer Hanged—Great Loss to Wool Men—Death of McCullough's Widow—Big Fire in Montreal.

LIMESTOME, Jan. 23.—Four masked men, all heavily armed, entered the Citizen's bank Saturday and presented pistols at the head of Cashier Reynolds and demanded him to hand over the cash. While pretending to comply, Beynolds slammed back the door of the safe. He was at once laid out by a bullet from a pistol which killed him instantly. They then ransacked the bank, and all the money in the cash drawers, some $2500 was taken. An attempt was made to open the safe but in this the robbers failed, as the pistol shots were heard and several people came rushing toward the bank. In a few moments the town was aroused, and twenty or thirty armed men hurried to the bank. The robbers were just mounting their horses and a hot fire began, in which Thomas Evan, a ranchman living near town, was killed in the fight and four citizens were wounded but not fatally. The robbers then rode away with the booty followed by the posse, which after 4 hours' chase caught the desperadoes and took them back to Limestone. The leader was found guilty of murder and strung up. The other three were placed in charge of a strong guard and started for Fort Wasnitt, where they were turned over to the authorities. The stolen money was recovered.

Murderer Hanged.

NEW YORK, Jan. 23.—Daniel Drescoll was hanged this morning. He left his cell at 7:26 and reached the gallows at 7:28 and after saying prayer the black cap was put over his head and the drop fell at 7:29. He died instantly. Drescoll's last words were: "Jesus have mercy on me." His neck was broken. The crime for which Driscoll was executed was killing Mrs. Elizabeth Garretty or Bessie Garretty.

GREAT LOSS OF SHEEP.

All the Flocks Along the Rio Grande Suffer.

LAMPLASSAS (Texas), Jan. 23.—It is estimated that fully 20,000 head of sheep died during the recent blizzard in counties of Lamplasses, Brown, Hamilton, Cornell and San Saba, all large wool producing counties and nearly every flock along the RioGrande suffered depletion. The loss being generally composed of lambs and old sheep. It is thought the loss of sheep will result in short wool crops.

Death of McCullough's Widow.

PHILADELPHIA (P. A.), Jan. 23.—Lettie McCullogh, widow of the tragedian John McCullogh, died yesterday at her residence, after an illness of three weeks.

FIGHTING FIRE.

Engines Frozen Up and Volunteers Doing Duty.

MONTREAL, Jan. 23.—The fire brigade is in a pitiable plight, there being several engines frozen and broken down, only six men fit for duty and the horses are nearly all exhausted. Volunteer firemen have organized and are working day and night on St. James street fire, which is still burning. The loss is now estimated at $400,000.

Greatly Disapointed.

Our citizens who have been anticipating a rich treat in attending the Pyke Opera Company's performance, will be disappointed to learn that they will be here but one night only, on Friday the 27th. Some unavoidaple circumstance has rendered this necessary, but they would have been greeted with a full house for both evenings.

Delegates to State Encampment.

The Salem Sentry says: The G. A. R. State Encampment meets at Albany February 22d. The following is a list of the delegates from the Salem post, also the commanders and post commanders who are entitled to act as delegates. Commander, Z. M. Parvin; Post commanders: F. J. Babcock, T. C. Smith, W. C. Crawford, Ira Erb, William Simpson, W. H. Byars. Delegates: Jas. Batchelor, D. W. Mathews, W. N. Ladue. Alternate delegates: F. B. Southwick, D. C. Sherman, Henry Rodgers.

The Ounce of Prevention.

The satisfaction of feeling safe from catching any disease from drinking water, from impure air, from a sick person, from contact with foul clothing, infection or contagion from any source, is complete and all anxiety allayed by the use of Darbys Prophylactic Fluid. A bottle will give more safety, comfort and confidence than all the doctoring in the world.

At the Point of Death.

From County Clerk J. P. Galbraith, who returned yesterday morning from Brownsville, it is learned that Hon. Hugh L. Brown, a pioneer of Linn county of 1846 and a well known citizen, is lying at the point of death.

THE PYKE OPERA COMPANY.

This popular company will appear in this city next Thursday evening in "Black Mantles" and "Nanon". Refering to the former opera the Minneopolis Tribune says: "The beautiful 'Black Mantles' was presented at Pennepin Avenue last night to a very good house. Those who did not witness the performance were the losers. With each night it becomes more apparent that the company is one of unusual strength. The Boston Ideals presented the same opera at the Grand two years ago, and it would not compare in excellence with that of the Pyke company. The opera itself is very beautiful. The music is of a higher order than that in most light operas. There are exquisite numbers all through it. Miss Winston was irresistable as Don Luis, and she sang much better than at any other time this week. Her costumes were magnificent. Miss Manfred was a captivating Girola, and showed herself to be an unusually clever actress. The duet between Miss Winston and Miss Manfred, 'Love is Blind,' is one of the loveliest melodies that has ever been sung in Minneapolis. Louis de Lang was the funniest of funny people as Gomez, the miller. It is a character radically different from those he has been playing, yet it was thoroughly artistic. He has made a great hit. Harry Norman is a paradox. He is a clever comedian and posseses a rich baritone voice. The performance' was splendidly costumed. To-night the beautiful 'Beggar Student.'

Will appear at the opera house at Albany Friday, Jan. 27th, usual price of admission.

Read the Death Roll

Which the bills of mortality of any large city may be fitly designated, and you will find that renal and vesical maladies, that is to say, those that effect the kidneys or bladder, have a remarkable prominence—we had al most said—preponderance. Bright's disease and diabetes in the chronic stage are rarely cured, and gravel, catarrh of the bladder and enuresis, slay many. Yet at the ounset, when the trouble merely amounts to inactivity of the organs involved, the danger may be nullified by that pleasant renal tonic and diuretic, Hostetter's Stomach Bitters, which imparts the requisite amount of tone to the organs, without over-exciting them, and the use of which is convenient, and no elaborate preparation. Dyspepsia, a ususl concomitant of renal complaints, and debility, which they invariably produce, are remedied by it. So also are constipation, malarial rheumatic and nervous aiments.
