

Malheur and Harney Lakes.

A party of gentlemen from Crow camp recently had a boat constructed to explore Malheur and Harney lakes. They launched their boat on the 24th of November. The breeze up, however, prevented the party from proceeding in their boat. They went on foot some distance below Pelican island, about twenty-five miles from Burns, where they discovered another island about three miles long. They named it Guano island. This place seems to be a paradise for sportsmen in the spring and summer. There are deer on the island. As soon as the break up in the spring occurs the Crow campers propose to thoroughly explore both Malheur and Harney lakes for fur-bearing animals.

Two Very Old Newspapers.

London Times. Austria-Hungary has some of the oldest newspapers in the world. On the 1st of January next the Pressburger Zeitung will commence the one hundred and twenty-fifth anniversary of its foundation. A copy of the first issue is preserved at the National Museum in Budapest. There is, however, a more ancient newspaper in Vienna, namely the Wiener Zeitung, which is the official gazette, and was founded in the year 1700.

An Excellent Medicine.

"My wife and myself were in bad health for some fifteen years. I chanced to be looking over one of Simmons' Liver Regulator Almanacs and saw A. H. Stevens and Bishop Pierce's names to testimonials. I then obtained some of the Regulator, and can heartily recommend the Liver Regulator to my friends as an excellent medicine."
