ALBANY'S NEED.

It is the business of a prudent man to thoroughly understand the situation and surroundings of his avocation both present and prospective, and be prepared at all times to meet the requirements of the case.

Our city has entered upon an era of growth and prosperity that is both satisfactory and praiseworthy, and evinces the acumen and foresight of our business men in inaugurating and developing it.

The sound of the hammer and the saw is making pleasant music in the ears of those who delight in prosperity and growth. But the question arises, how long will this condition of affairs last?

There are many different manufacturing ventures that can be entered into that will give a permanence to our present conditions of growth, and create employment for all that are now here as well as many more that may come, and it only needs push and enterprise on the part of our citizens to establish these enterprises.

These are pertinent questions that the men of means in Albany must meet and answer for themselves, and on their answer depends the future. The railroad work will soon move on and establish building bases farther east.

Lately a number of our citizens have been mooted the question of a tannery, and in its connection a boot and shoe factory. Without doubt such manufactures would be paying institutions and could be started without the immense outlay of capital that some other industries require.

EDITORIAL NOTES.

ASTORIA boasts of two hundred feet of completed railway.

The Washington territory supreme court has decided that the local option law, lately adopted in that territory, is unconstitutional.

Coal has become such a scarce article in San Francisco that carts camp on the wharf for eight or ten days before a coal steamer is expected in, for the purpose of being on time to get in first on the cargo.

On the efficacy of vaccination, as a preventive of smallpox, there remains no doubt in the minds of observing people, still there are very many who object to it.

Zurich, Switzerland, where, for a number of years, until 1883, a compulsory vaccination law obtained, and smallpox was wholly prevented—not a single case occurred in 1882.

A POSTAL UNION has been consummated for the whole of North America, so that a letter may be sent from any postoffice in the United States to any postoffice in British North America or Mexico, and at the same rate of postage as that paid between points in the United States.

At last congress is likely to pass the bill giving a pension to Mrs. John A. Logan. It is humiliating to the country that so much time has been used and noise made over the matter that should have been settled at once and without a dissenting vote.
