

HARMONY GRANGE.

Jan. 25, 1888. Last Saturday, being the regular meeting, for our installation and centering the third and fourth degrees on a class. On account of the snow, we did not expect a very large attendance. But when they began to arrive in sleighs, we found out that the bad weather in Oregon, could not keep the Patrons from attending, and before twelve o'clock, we had quite a large crowd. In the morning the degrees were conferred on the class. We had some good music, the choir composed of members from No. 10, Knox Butte and Shedd, and I must say it was better music than I have heard for a long while, after dinner Bro. Thomas Froman, assisted by Bro. Wilds and Sister Kate Price installed the following officers for the present year: Master J. G. Powell; Overseer A. M. Arrant; Lecturer J. D. Parsons; Steward E. E. Parrish; Assistant Steward G. E. Davis; Chaplain A. B. Morris; Treasurer M. F. Dawson; Secretary S. A. Dawson; Gatekeeper A. G. Marshall; Pomona Emma Powell; Flora Rosa Marshall; Ceres Mamie Powell; L. A. S. Dorena Marshall. As it was growing late the brothers excused themselves from speaking and the Grange adjourned. The snow was all gone in the evening and the Patrons had to go home in the mud.
