LAST OF THE BUFFALOES.
What Few Remain Are in Yellowstone Park.
"It was but four years ago," said W. S. Barrows, of Mandan, D. T., "that I bought 10,000 buffalo horns, and to-day it is about impossible to obtain one pair for love or money. According to the stories of hunters and trappers who have been engaged in their occupations for years, one small herd of buffalo exists at this time as the representative of the countless thousands that swarmed on the western prairie for years, and they have sought protection in the Yellowstone park. There are about thirty in the herd, and many of the tourists through the park last summer encountered them during their travels. Even these are likely to become exterminated if the government does not take vigorous measures for their security, as their whereabouts are known to a few daring spirits, who will take desperate chances to kill them if they could be destroyed near the boundary line of the park where detection would be difficult. The experience of Taxidermist W. T. Hornaday of the National Museum in quest of specimens of buffalo for that institution, have already been given at length and he had orders, besides, from European museums for some of these animals. After working industriously for two seasons, and traversing all the country north and west of Minnesota to the Canada line, he succeeded in finding two or three animals, which have been stuffed and mounted for the museum at Washington, and unless the United States government decides to pick out a few of its only herd as a present to some European museum, the foreign orders never will be filled."
Scarlet Fever.
Darby's Prophylactic Fluid is unequalled in the treatment of scarlet fever. Used as a gargle it prevents the throat from becoming diphtheritic, allays the inflammation and subdues the pain. Used to sponge the body it allays the fever, relieves the itching of the skin and destroys infection. Exposed in the sick room it will prevent the spread of contagion, and keep the atmosphere wholesome.

A Young Lady Performer Falls Prey to a Lion—Mrs. Cleveland Will Not Go to Boston—Fidelity Bank.
The Herald's Special Dispatches.]
CHICAGO, Feb. 4.—The war in freight rates, instituted by the Chicago, Milwaukee and St. Paul railroad, is the one topic discussed in railroad circles. It has made a cut of two cents on all classes of freight to Missouri river points to-day, and followed it up later with an additional cut of one-half cent on first-class, and three cents on second. These further cuts were met by the Southwestern association and also by the Chicago & Northwest as far as Omaha and Council Bluffs. The Northwestern has also met St. Paul's cut to Minneapolis and St. Paul. But no steps have been taken to stop the cutting, and the question is where will it end.
A GIRL'S HORRIBLE FATE.
She Placed Her Head in a Lion's Mouth and Got It Crushed.
LONDON, Feb. 4.—At the conclusion of a performance at Lozery's music hall in Dublin last night Miss Senide, one of the performers, placed her head in a lion's mouth for the purpose of having her photograph taken in that position. A sudden flash of light caused the beast to close his jaws, and he retired growling to the corner of his cage, dragging the victim with him. He then shook the girl violently, tearing her breast with his claws. The attendants at once sprang toward the cage and at a kick the lion with iron, and finally rescued her. Miss Senide was removed to her lodgings and medical aid summoned. Her neck, shoulders, breast and one arm are terribly lacerated, but she is still alive.

"When do we reach Kansas City?"
"We're there now."
"There now? Why, there isn't a house in sight!"

WANTS A DOLL.
The Modest Request Received by Governor Penoyer.
Governor Penoyer has received the following letter from a lady in Washington, D. C.:
"To the Governor of Oregon, Salem—Dear Sir: The Grand Army of this department purpose holding a fair as per enclosed circular, and have entrusted to my charge a booth for the sale of dolls exclusively. I shall have to have doated, and have written to every governor of state and territory to send me a dressed doll, and sincerely hope every one will send me a favorable reply. The dolls will be marked and known as the doll of the state or territory sending the same—say, the 'Oregon Doll.' Please send to my address and you will receive the grateful thanks and acknowledgment of yours respectfully,
The fair mentioned is to be held at the armory of the Washington Light Infantry, for the benefit of the Potomac department of the Grand Army of the Republic, from February 22d to March 9th.
The governor, with his usual good nature, has announced his intentions of complying with the request, and is now devoting a large portion of his time in studying up on the architecture of dolls, to find out what kind of one to send.
It was suggested to him that he send a Chinese doll, but somehow the governor did not take kindly to the idea. But that Washington lady will get a genuine doll, with all the dust and ragbaby accompaniments, if the governor has to rig it up himself.

WAR ON POLYGAMY.
A Plan For Governing Polygamous Utah Territory.
THE SAINTS MUST REFORM.
Synopsis of an Elaborate Scheme Submitted to Congress by Senator Stewart of Nevada.
Special Correspondence.
WASHINGTON, Jan. 27.—It seems that several things will be done at this session to correct the plague of polygamy in Utah. Senator Stewart has introduced a bill to amend the organic law of Utah Territory. It provides that the legislative power of the Territory of Utah shall be vested in a Governor and Legislative Assembly. The Legislative Assembly shall consist of twelve citizens of the United States, resident of said Territory and having the qualification of voters, to be appointed by the President, by and with the advice and consent of the Senate, not more than six of whom shall be members of one political party, and the majority of whom shall constitute a quorum. Before entering upon the discharge of the duties of their office said members of the Legislative Assembly shall take and subscribe to the oath herein provided for the registration of voters.
The members of the Legislative Assembly shall hold their offices for a term of four years, unless sooner removed by the President. It is provided that six members of the Legislative Assembly of twelve first appointed shall hold office but two years. The session of the Legislative Assembly shall be annual and held in Salt Lake City. No sessions except the first one held after the passage of this Act shall exceed ninety days. The first session shall be held at such time as the Governor of said Territory shall by proclamation appoint and direct, and the Legislative Assembly shall fix by law the day on which the subsequent sessions shall commence.
The members of the Legislative Assembly shall receive as compensation $8 per day during the sessions herein provided for, and they shall receive such mileage as is now provided by law. The person chosen by the Legislative Assembly as President shall receive $12 per day during the said sessions.
All township, district, county and territorial officers shall be elected or appointed, as the Legislative Assembly may provide.
The laws passed by the Legislative Assembly shall be submitted to Congress, and if disapproved shall be thereafter null and of no effect.
No person shall vote in said Territory at any election who is not a male and above the age of 21 years, and who is not a citizen of the United States and has not been a resident of said Territory for a period of six months next preceding the election.
The Legislative Assembly shall have power to make all needful rules and regulations for elections and shall provide by law for the registration of voters; but each person applying to be registered shall before he shall be entitled to have his name registered, take and subscribe to the following oath or affirmation before the Registry Agent or such other person as the Legislative Assembly may designate:
"I do solemnly swear (or affirm) that I am a citizen of the United States; that I am of age, 21 years, and have actually, not constructively resided in this Territory six months and in the country thirty days next preceding the day of the next ensuing election; that I am not registered elsewhere in this Territory; that I am not a bigamist or a polygamist; that I neither teach or practice bigamy or polygamy; that I am not a member of, nor belong to, nor have I contributed directly or indirectly, any money or other valuable things for two years last past to any order, organization or association which sanctions or tolerates among its members bigamy or polygamy or plural or celestial marriage, or which exercises or claims the right to exercise civil power independent of or opposed to the Constitution or laws of the United States and the laws of the Territory of Utah as interpreted by the courts as the supreme law of the land, the doctrines or teachings or of any order, organization or association to the contrary notwithstanding; so help me God."
A violation of the oath places the guilty person under the pains and penalties of perjury.
The delegates to the house of representatives of the United States from the territory of Utah shall be elected by the legally qualified voters of said territory.
All provisions of law in conflict with this act are hereby repealed.

Humorous Drift.
It is wrong that the fate of convicted murderers should be delayed so long. When once justly convicted they should be put through at breakneck speed.
Minister—And do you like to go to church with your papa and mamma, Bobby? Bobby (inclined to be noncommittal)—Well, I guess I like it as well as pa does.—
Write (one day after marriage)—No, dear, don't give me any money; I might lose it. Same wife (one year after marriage)—I took $20 from your pocket last night, John.
"Ma," said Bobby, "if you'll give me another piece of pie do you know what I will do?" "What will you do, Bobby?" "I'll give my little sister half of it," said the generous boy.
A young lady in New York who was inattentive at whist, has broken off her engagement with her lover because he recommended her to "scoop up her mind in a peanut shell and fix it on the game."
Mother (to daughter)—Clara doesn't that young Mr. Smith, who was so attentive to you last evening, toe in a trifle? Daughter—I didn't notice it, mamma. I understand he is worth $200,000.
Lady (to fond mamma)—O, the little boy will improve as he grows older. Fond mamma—His papa gets so out of patience with him! He intends to educate him, as he will be good for nothing else.
Southern man (to Northern country editor)—You don't have desperadoes in the North who rob railroad-train passengers, do you? Editor (who has had his pass taken up)—Yes, but they don't go by that name.
A Wisconsin court has decided that a husband may open his wife's letters. That is all very well so far as it goes, but what if this country wants a law to protect a husband who forgets to mail his wife's letters.
Stout man (whose appetite had been the envy of his fellow boarders)—I declare! I have lost three buttons off my vest! Mistress of the house (who had been aching to give him a hint)—You will probably find them in the dining-room, sir.
Mrs. William Wright of New Castle, Ind., recently gave birth to four children, making in all a family of fourteen children, including five pairs of twins. Let's see. Who was it said he'd rather be Wright than be President? We wouldn't.
A druggist the other day committed a fatal error. In putting up a prescription he poisoned the patient. When the terrible news was announced to him he tore out quite a handful of his hair remarking: "Well! that was unlucky! It was my best customer."
"Mr. Snyderly, I hear that you referred to me as a liar." "Yes, sir, I did. What are you going to do about it?" "I was going to ask you to put it down on paper for me. I want to get a job in an Omaha real-estate office, and I don't need a better recommendation."
