Alex. Cunningham is removing his blacksmith shop from First street, and will erect a hotel in its place.

Street railways, electric lights and such improvements are indications of a growing city, and are what Albany wants.

Tickets for the G. A. R. play "The Veteran of 1812" will be placed on sale this morning at Blackman's drug store.

H. H. Hays has sold his interest in the delivery business to Archie Blackburn and will leave today for Portland.

Read Wm. Simpson's new ad, this morning. His 5, 10, 15, 20 and 25 cent counters are attracting great attention.

Winn, the Travelers' accident insurance agent, will have time to write fifty policies during this week. Call early and avoid the rush.

Rare bargains in all kinds of silverware, clocks and jewelry at Will & Stark's successors to F. W. Carter. They have a large stock to select from.

The immense stock of boots and shoes at A. B. McIlwain's is being slaughtered at twenty-five per cent. discount on each and every dollar's worth sold.

Will & Stark, who recently purchased the jewelry store of F. W. Carter, are selling fine jewelry and silverware at very low prices. Satisfaction guaranteed.

The Star Baking Powder in one pound cans at 25 cents per pound at J. Joseph's is a delight to housekeepers, satisfaction guaranteed or money refunded. Try a can.

Attention is directed to W. F. Read's new ad, this morning. He is a live merchant and up with the times with an immense stock of general merchandise for the coming season's trade.

Messrs. Franklin & Co. have opened in connection with their second hand store a first-class tin shop, and will hereafter be in the field for contracts and all other work usually connected with the business.

Pensions have been granted to Calvin P. Winsol, Oregon City; Orange S. Richardson, Baker City; John P. Walton, Gentle valley Idaho. J. R. Finitt has been appointed postmaster at Harrington Lincoln county, W. T. in place of C. W. Law, resigned.

Now that the political campaign is approaching it is a reasonable time to subscribe for the Daily Herald. It will contain a full report of political conventions and elections, and a candid discussion of questions at issue, and will be delivered anywhere in the city at 15 cents per week, or sent by mail for $5.00 per year.

TO BUILD A STREET RAILWAY.

A Company Organized with a Capital Stock of $25,000 for this Purpose.

Articles of incorporation were sent to Salem yesterday to be filed with the secretary of state, incorporating the Albany Street Railway Company.

An ordinance granting the right of way for the road will be presented at the regular meeting of the city council to-night.

The city council will certainly not hesitate to grant the right of way for a public improvement of this kind.

ROLL OF HONOR.

George Belts, Charlie Clark, Annie Drinkard, Jessie Greenhalgh, Perry Overton, Lincoln Overton, Schuyler Overton, Freddie Overton, Artie Schick, Minnie Schick, Jennie Schick, Edward Wigle, Katie Wigle.

Miss E. A. COLLINS, Teacher.

Assignment at Scio.

Information has been received in this city that the firm of Johnson & Shelton at Scio have made an assignment in favor of John Morris, of that place.

Their liabilities are $36,000. As near as can be ascertained their assets exceed this amount, the failure being occasioned by a temporary embarrassment. The firm has been buying Oregon Pacific time checks and sub-contractor's papers, of which it is said they have $16,000.

Upon this they cannot at present get any money.

Thirty Days in Jail.

In Justice Dorris' court yesterday A. D. Mazinge, who was arrested at Gervais, Saturday by Constable D. B. Montfith, was tried on a charge of the larceny of a cross-cut saw valued at $7. It was proved that Mazinge borrowed the saw of J. C. Harris and forgot to return it, subsequently selling it at the second hand store for fifty cents. He was fined $25 and cost, in default of which he was given thirty-one days in the county jail.

Supper and sociable.

The ladies of the M. E. church and congregation will give a supper and social at the W. C. T. U. hall on Tuesday evening, February 14th. Supper from five o'clock till eight. Music, games and other entertainments. A good time is anticipated and a cordial invitation is extended to all. Supper, twenty-five cents. By order of committee.

Why They Came to Oregon.

G. W. Wiswell received a letter yesterday from relatives in Hastings, Nebraska, which stated that the number of people frozen to death during the recent blizzard in that state as far as heard from was 569. Such little things as this is what causes such a movement of home-seekers toward Oregon.

Albany Musical Convention.

The following list of officers was elected: President, Dr. G. W. Gray; vice-president, Rev. E. R. Pritchard; secretary, Miss Clara Read; treasurer, Mrs. W. S. Thompson; organist Miss Ada Simpson.

A sham battle between "F" Co., O. N. G., of this city and the G. A. R. veterans or some other military organization would be one of the biggest and most taking attractions that could be gotten up for the celebration of the Fourth of July next. We suggest this early in order that the subject may not be too new when the time comes for arranging for celebrations.

At the regular meeting of the city council to-night a proposition will be submitted by N. H. Allen to furnish the city with electric lights, machinery for the work of construction commenced. The city ought not to be backward in replacing the kerosene street lamps with the new electric lights.

An Excellent Medicine.

"My wife and myself were in bad health for some fifteen years. I chanced to be looking over one of Simmons' Liver Regulator Almanacs and saw A. H. Stevens' and Bishop Pierce's names to testimonials. I then obtained some of the Regulator, and can heartily recommend the Liver Regulator to my friends as an excellent medicine."

Z. E. HARRISON, M. D., Gordonville Va.

Jacksonville paper: A vast number of fruit trees are now being planted in this county. It will not be many years before Southern Oregon will be one of the greatest fruit-growing sections on the Pacific coast.

EUGENE CITY NOTES.

EUGENE CITY, Feb. 12. The Eugene Dramatic Company played "Hidden Hand" last Friday evening for the benefit of the Firemen's Silver Cornet Band.

Th. Nast gave one of his artistic entertainments at the Rhinehart theater Thursday evening. It was well attended and thoroughly enjoyed.

An attempt was made to burglarize Horn & Pain's gun store Thursday evening. The robber or robbers were thwarted by the arrival of Mr. J. O. Watters, who occupies a corner of the store as a jewelry shop, and had gone there after the theater to get an umbrella.

Mr. No. ris Humphrey, of Eugene City, and Miss Grace Hanna, of Corv. H. were married at the residence of the bride's parents on the 9th.

Origin of St. Valentine's Day.

The origin of the peculiar observances of St. Valentine's Day is a subject of some obscurity. The saint himself, who was a priest of Rome, and was martyred in the third century, seems to have had nothing to do with the matter beyond the accident of his day being used for the purpose.

Gold Watch Given Away.

Francis Pfeiffer has placed in his show case at the Albany soda and candy works a $50 gold watch, which will be given away to the customer who purchases of him the most cigars.

No Humbug About This.

It is a straight business proposition, easily comprehended and worth giving attention to, that the entire stock of boots and shoes at A. B. McIlwain's is now offered at twenty-five per cent. discount.

Teachers Examination.

Notice is hereby given that the regular public quarterly examination of teachers will be held at the court house in Albany, Linn Co., Or., commencing at noon on Wednesday, Feb. 29, 1888.
