

THE MARKETS.

Considerable is being done in the local wheat market, but prices are unchanged.

PORTLAND MARKETS. WHEAT—Only a light movement. The valley section is sending little life forward, while receipts so far from the eastern section furnish no clue as to what they will be in the near future.

EGGS—Sales up to 46c. It is thought the high prices will soon be a fact.

WOOL—Market somewhat excited and the high expectations of a year ago likely to rule again, on about as slim a foundation as they had then.

THE WEST SHORE (ESTABLISHED 1875) PORTLAND-OREGON

The West Shore is the only illustrated magazine published on the Pacific coast, and besides from its literary features, its object is to convey information, by both pen and pencil, of the great resources of this region, and the progress of their development.

Special illustrated articles appear in each issue, also, several pages of notes of the progress being made in every section.

Oregon, Washington, Idaho, Montana, Alaska, Utah, California, British Columbia, and the Pacific Northwest in general, are being illustrated.

The subscription price is only $2.50. It is not only the cheapest illustrated magazine in the United States, but contains articles and engravings of great interest to every resident of this region, which can not be found in any other publication.

Subscribers for 1888 receive a large supplement every month. The first one is a beautiful obituary of the "Entrance to the Columbia River," printed in nine colors, and each of the others represents some feature of our sublime scenery.

The supplements are alone worth more than the price of the magazine. Try it for 1888, and after reading, send it to your friends elsewhere. You will find it both entertaining and instructive.
