What aill to be?

The symptoms of biliousness are un- happily but too well known. They differ in different individuals to some extent. A bilious man is seldom a breakfast eater. Too frequently, also, he has an excellent appetite for liquids but none for solids of a morning. His tongue will hardly bear inspection at any time; if it is not white and furrowed, it is rough, at all events. The digestive system is wholly out of order, and diarrhea or constipation may be a symptom of the two may alternate. There are often hemorroids or even loss of blood. There may be dizziness, and when headache and acidity of the stomach are present in the pit of the stomach. To correct all this it does not effect a cure. Green's August-Flower is a safe, reliable and thousands attest its efficacy.

An Excellent Medicine.

"My wife and myself were in bad health for some fifteen years. I changed to looking over one of Simmons' Liver Regulator. I then saw A. H. Stevens and Bishop Pierce's names to testimonials. I then obtained some the Regulator, and can heartily recommend the Liver Regulator to my friends as an excellent medicine."

THE DEMOCRATS.

Chicago Likely to Get the National Convention.

THE COMMITTEE IN SESSION.

The Chicago Men Confident That City Will Be Named as the Place—The Efforts of Price.

The Herald's Special Dispatches.]
WASHINGTON, Feb. 22.—The national democratic committee met in William's hotel in this city at noon today, for the purpose of selecting the time and place of holding the national democratic convention. Ex-Senator W. H. Barnum is president, and W. O. Prince acting secretary. There was a full attendance of delegates, the only vacancy being in the membership from New York.

After a brief discussion William Steiner was elected to fill the vacancy. The committee determined upon July 31 as the date of holding the national convention by a vote of 28 to 20. The San Francisco men were jubilant, and declared that the decision was favorable to the selection of their city as the place of holding the convention.

A VOICE FROM CHICAGO.

CHICAGO, Feb. 22.—The Daily News' Washington special says that the convention fight is practically settled in favor of Chicago.
Several committeemen arrived this morning who had been counted for other cities, but who have come out in favor of Chicago. Wyoming, Colorado, Idaho and Kansas men have changed from San Francisco to Chicago. The question will probably be settled on the second ballot, as some of the Chicago men have agreed to cast at least one ballot for other places.

SAN FRANCISCO'S CHANCES.

The Fight for Place of Holding the Democratic Convention.

SAN FRANCISCO, Feb. 21.—A dispatch came to Senator Jones of Bates county, last night from an immediate friend in Washington, which gave him to understand that there is now little doubt but that the decision of the delegates assembled in Washington will be in favor of San Francisco as the meeting place of the National Democratic Convention.
Jones interpreted the dispatch as meaning President Cleveland and his associates favor this city as the best place for the Democratic platform to muster for the campaign.

A Wash. com special says that Chicago's chances for the Democratic Convention continue good, but that San Francisco is making a hard fight.
The Chicago News also says that the San Francisco boom is not so strong as it was, however, for the people are beginning to think of the time and expense necessary to go there, and New York papers have come out emphatically against the plan.

PADDY RYAN ARRESTED

Charged With stealing $160 From G. H. Forrest.

SAN FRANCISCO, Feb. 21.—Paddy Ryan, the celebrated pugilist, was arrested by Detective Coffey, on a warrant issued at the instance of G.
H. Forrest, for grand larceny. The complaint charged that while in the company with Ryan at Saturday night's masquerade, the latter stole $160 from him. As both men were drunk at the time, Forrest will experience some difficulty in proving his charge.

GHASTLY CAVES.

Eight Skeletons Found in a Japanese Cave.

Nichi Nichi Shimbu.

A few days ago while taking a trip throughout the country I visited a couple of ancient caves at Osawa-mura, Tamagori, Musashi province.
These caves were first discovered by a resident of that village named Minawa Yasutaro, a few years ago while he was hunting foxes. Both caves face the southeast. One is about twelve feet square and about nine feet in height, and the other consists of two rooms about equal in size.
The entrance to them was so low I could scarcely get inside. When he first examined them, Mr. Minawa old me, he found two skeletons in one and six in the other, one also containing a sword. These he buried in this vicinity, he and his neighbor constructing a tomb with stones taken from the cave. Mr. Minawa has in his possession a tooth taken from one of the skeletons; it is a little larger than the ordinary teeth of human beings.

SENSATIONAL SUIT.

Miss Francis Dyke Considers Herself Damaged $20,000 Worth.

LOS ANGELES, Feb. 21.—A sensational suit has been filed here as a sequel to a scandal in Kansas City three years ago. At that time Miss Francis Dyke, a young woman well known in upper social circles, instituted suit against George S. Van Every, a prominent middle-aged business man, for seduction under a promise of marriage, and to compel him to maintain her child, a result of their relations.

While the case was pending in court the defendant suddenly disappeared and came out to this coast, followed soon by his brothers, who are well known real estate men.
Miss Dyke determined to follow Van Every and located him at Santa Monica, living in style. The result was a renewal of legal proceedings here taking shape in a suit for $20,000 for a breach of promise.

MATRIMONY IN SAXONY.

Queer Customs Practiced in the Kingdom.

St. James' Gazette.

In the kingdom of Saxony, says the Berlin Echo, there are several parishes in which the public celebration of marriage is still accompanied with some remarkable accessories. In the parish of Merk-witz near Oschatz, a printed "Lok-alstatut" is presented to the intending bride and bridegroom when they ask for the publication of their banns. The "statute" regulates the examination of the espoused pair by the Pfarrer. The candidates for holy matrimony are solemnly asked by the pastor "whether they can, in pure conscience, claim for themselves the honorable predicates of maiden and bachelor." Those who have been accused of a breach of the seventh commandment, and have confessed it, or against whom it has been proved, are prohibited from wearing the myrtle crown or carrying myrtle ornaments. The church is left undecorated, and flowers are not strewn in the churchyard. Bridal copies who "unjustifiably make use of the symbols of virginal purity" are to be "solemnly repremended by the pastor in his wedding oration, although in such a manner as not to be injurious to them or to the wedding party." The pastors of Merkwitz must be men of amazing genius in casuistry if they always succeed in carrying out this delicate obligation with success. If any married couple has been discovered to have "un-justifiably used these Ehrenpredi-kate the case is to be mentioned in the New Year's report of the congregation, but without publishing the names of the parties."

PENMANSHIP.

Poor Writing Predominates Among Successful Men.

Chicago Tribune.

I have just been looking over a circular from one of these schools of penmanship. The circular says it is a great thing for anybody to be able to make birds that look as if they were full of fish bones and have a pain left in for a tail. It hints that no person ever succeeded in his business by count make a picture of a woman with a matress with a pen. It says that the man who can't stand his capital letters on spiral springs is going to get lost in the sun.

It must have a very depressing effect on one of these bird-flourishing gentlemen to look over a collection of the autographs of distinguished and successful men.
How it must pain one of these penmanship fireworks artists to find that he can't read half of such a collection.

Shakespeare, for instance, wrote a hand which is calculated to worry one of these men who think the great aim in life is to lean on a pen. Shakespeare's autograph looks as if it is a common domestic hen had started to walk across the page, stopped to scratch up an angle worm when part way, found several, left them and went on walking a little lame. Shakepeare never went to the Stratford Business College and School of Typewriting and learned to erect a capital H with feathers on its legs.
St. Shakespeare was something of a success mentally.

Then there is Jay Gould. Jay doesn't write a signature which you can pull out and it will spring back into shape, like these commercial college professors. He can't construct an autograph all mixed up in a bird with a wing growing out of the back of its neck.
In fact, his autograph hath no wing at all, but, to quote from the poet, it gets there just the same on a bank check. Colonel Gould is all right financially. Then there's John L. Sullivan. When he puts on a four-ounce glove and places his signature in an autograph album, there is nothing pretty about it, but, notwithstanding, he has made remarkable progress in his chosen field of study. Dr. Sullivan is all right physically.

It wouldn't be very hard to name three or four thousand others who have succeeded without being able to make a pen act as if it had a hard attack of insanity. In fact no man, unless he was running a business college, ever got so he could earn his own living with reasonable certainty who could make a penmanship dove to save his life. No man ever yet made a success who padded out his capital W's in just the right place and put fringe on his M's. No man who can make a dot with a scroll in it will can become President.

GENERAL NEWS.

A Frightful Explosion of Dynamite in Duluth.

MARION COUNTY PROHIBITIONISTS

The President and Party Meet a Warm Reception at Savannah—Eastern News.

DULUTH, Feb. 22.—This morning an explosion occurred in the rock cut on Fourth street.
Eighteen men were injured, eight are now in the hospital, one died on reaching the hospital, and another can not live through the day. The men and rocks were hurled many feet by the shock of the explosion which was caused by some cartridges, fired last Saturday, but which did not explode until the men resumed work about them, when a few taps of the drill set off the unexploded dynamite.
