"St. Valentine's Social." On Tuesday evening, February 24th, St. Valentine's day, was celebrated by the Y. W. C. T. U. of Halsey, as a suitable time to set the social wheel whirling, and Good Templars' hall was filled with the cream-de-la-cream of Halsey, on this, the inaugural social event.

The hall was beautifully draped with hennings, and the walls were given a choicest appearance by the various colored mottoes and emblems of our union. At the further end of the hall the Halsey band was stationed, and lent a charm to the evening's enjoyment by discoursing some excellent music. In a booth beautifully draped with the stars and stripes, were two of the Y's dealing out valentines to big and little, old and young and may herets were made glad. At the north end of the hall was the art gallery, and as an example of women's wit and ingenuity, it was the paragon of perfection. It was ably presided over by Mrs. S. P. Wilson, whose graphic and grotesque descriptions were always met by a storm of hearty applause. The most interesting event was the lunch of ice-cream and cake. Gay parties of lads and lassies, at the tasty tables, presided over by the Y's, the delightful music, the happy crowd, and the many visions of the pure white fibbons, made it a scene of unalloyed joy and merriment. After the ice-cream had all disappeared tables were removed, and many merry games were played. The receipts of the evening were something over $40, and will be a valuable acquisition to our treasury. The Y's valentine social of '88 will long be remembered with pleasure.

Notice to strangers. Persons just locating in Albany or vicinity will find at the new store of Kenton & Chase, between the opera house and postoffice, a good place to purchase their supplies of groceries and provisions. They have first-class goods there and the prices are reasonable. If articles sent from their store do not give entire satisfaction they cheerfully refund the money.

Bennewitz Captured.

Bill Groves, of Dallas, and Marshal Bohanon, of Independence, captured Bennewitz, the escaped Dutch jail bird, on Roy Byerley's place, about half way between Salem and Dallas, last Saturday. They inquired at Byerley's house if he had seen Bennewitz, and having received a negative answer, started away, and shortly discovered fresh tracks. Following them up, they captured the little Dutchman in the brush, and took him to Dallas, where they again lodged him in the "jail" he had twice so easily escaped from. If the authorities want to keep him there this time they will have to tie him down to his bed, and have the county commissioners take turn about sitting on him. When captured Bennewitz had gotten rid of the shackles which must at first have hampered his progress. He said he picked the lock and left it on a stump about a mile from Dallas, but this may be doubted. It is thought Bennewitz when captured was on his way to Salem to make application for quarters in a jail that would exercise his ingenuity just a trifle in getting out of—Salem Statesman.

Return of the McKanlass Company.

The public will have reason to be pleased to hear that this favorably known company of musicians will return to this city and give a performance on Saturday evening next. Their performance here last December was a clean and enjoyable one. The professor enjoys the distinction of being the only colored graduate from the Cincinnati college of music, as well as the only colored professor of music ever in the Cincinnati public schools. As a student, he was earnest and painstaking, having a mark of nine in a maximum of ten. For two years Professor McKanlass studied in Leipzig, giving his attention to violin, theory, harmony and composition. The professor's traveling represents sixteen years of his life, and during that time he has visited England, France and Australia. His musical specialties are new and original, his feat of playing two cornets at once, and also that of playing on eight different instruments at one and the same time, being original with him. Taken all in all, the professor is certainly a musical genius, one who combines a natural ear for music with many years of hard study. His banjo playing is of such high order that he is justly called the king banjoist, while his handling of the violin has earned him the title of the "Negro Ole Ball." His colored specialty company has been organized for three years, and gives a first-class entertainment.

Will Meet To-day. Mrs. Pres. Ellis, of the Forest Grove university, will address the ladies of the Congregational church at their meeting at 4 o'clock, on the subject of Missions. A large attendance is desired.
