A Woodburn scandal. The Salem Vidette says that it is reported that a scandalous affair has just come to light at Woodburn, which involves the family of one of the wealthiest pioneer farmers in the lower end. It is said that a young daughter scarcely fifteen is in a physical condition unable to longer conceal. Her going and coming were watched, and it was discovered that she had been holding illicit relations with her two brothers for a long time. The affair will probably be pushed up, as the details would be too revolting for recital.

The court held that the provisions of the ordinance under which the arrests were made conflicted with the constitution of the state, which grants every citizen the right to worship according to the dictates of his own conscience; also that it was not shown in the evidence that an obstruction was created at the time the arrests were made. The court further held that if such an obstruction was made and it was shown in the evidence that the parties arrested created it and refused to move on, they would be liable to a fine.

INDIAN WAR VETERANS.

To Prepare a History of the Oregon Indian Wars—Thanks to Senator Dolph.

Multnomah Camp, No. 2, Indian War Veterans, North Pacific coast, held a special meeting on Saturday.

After roll call, reading of minutes of the last meeting and some other ordinary routine business, the following resolutions were adopted:

WHEREAS, In the settlement of the Pacific Northwest by white people, besides great hardships and privations endured by them, they were involved in difficulties and wars with the native tribes of Indians; and

WHEREAS, A correct statement of these difficulties and wars is much needed in a correct history of the Pacific Northwest; therefore

Resolved, That the captain of this camp is hereby directed to designate two persons who shall, with the captain of this camp, constitute a committee whose duty it shall be to arrange and prepare for publication by this camp, a correct history of the relations, contests and wars between the white settlers of the Pacific Northwest and the native tribes of Indians; that such committee may receive such aid as may be tendered them, and may secure the services of such persons as they may deem advisable, and it shall be the duty of such committee to report to this camp all their doings in the premises, at least once in every three months, and to turn over to this camp, as fast as prepared, all manuscripts for such history.

Resolved, That Multnomah Camp, No. 2, Indian War Veterans of the North Pacific coast, hereby tenders its thanks to Hon. J. N. Dolph for his able and exhaustive presentation in the United States senate of the claims for the payment of the Indian war debt of 1855-56, as the same was audited and allowed by the commission composed of Generals Rufus Ingalls and A. J. Smith and Hon. L. F. Grover; and that the secretary of this camp transmit a copy of this resolution to Senator Dolph, under the seal of the camp.

New Teacher.

Prof. C. A. Woody's petition to the interior department to be appointed principal teacher at the Chemawa Indian Training school would appear not to have availed him at all, for the administration has concluded to import to Chemawa to fill that position, one L. D. Rogers, of Sidney Centre, N. Y. Mr. Rogers has been expected daily and it is probable that he is already on the grounds. Prof. Woody, who has been acting temporarily as principal teacher, will now step down and out, much to the regret of many who hoped to see him selected permanently for the position.

The symptoms of biliousness are an unhappy lot to some. They often differ in different individuals to some extent. A bilious man is seldom a breakfast eater. Too frequently, alas, he has an excellent appetite for liquids but none for solids of a morning. His tongue will hardly be free from a coating of green. At all events, the digestive system is wholly out of order and diarrhea or constipation may be a symptom of the two may alternate. There are often headaches and acidity or flatulence and tenderness in the pit of the stomach. To correct all this find effect a cure try Green's August Flower. It costs but a trifle and thousands attest its efficacy.

An Excellent Medicine.

"My wife and myself were in bad health for some time. I feel that I changed to be looking over one of Simmons' Liver Regulator Almanacs and saw A. H. Stevens' and Bishop Pierce's names to testimonials. I then obtained some of the Regulator, and can heartily recommend the Liver Regulator to my friends as an excellent medicine."
