THE WEATHER TO-DAY.

SAN FRANCISCO, March 7.—Weather indications for the next twenty-four hours beginning at 7 p. m. are: Local rains followed by fair weather.

GOTTINGS ABOUT TOWN.

German ball at the opera house to-night. Baled hay for sale in any quantity. Enquire of H. F. Merrill.

W. F. Crosby, the well known wheat buyer, has gone to San Francisco.

Curran & Montie sold yesterday to R. A. Cooper 44 acres of land two miles east of Albany, owned by Jacob Smith. Consideration $1100.

The German ball, to be given at the opera house on March 9th, will be opened with a grand march at 9 o'clock sharp. Admission for spectators 25 cents.

The Y. P. S. C. E. of the Presbyterian church, promise something rare on Thursday evening of next week in the way of a supper. Further announcement will be made.

The services of the convocation will continue over Sunday at the Episcopal church. The Rt. Rev. E. Wistar Morris, Bishop of Oregon, will preach on Sunday morning, and administer the rite of confirmation.

G. P. Jester, brother of W. L. Jester, O. & C. agent at this city has accepted the position of telegraph operator, O. & C. and Wells Fargo & Co.'s agent at Oakland, Oregon. He succeeds P. H. Bart.

Thos. Jones has removed his shaving parlors into his elegant quarters opposite the Linn County Bank, where he is prepared to meet his customers. He has added fine bath rooms and has one of the neatest shaving saloons in the valley.

Mrs. Baugh, wife of Rev. John Baugh, of Oskaloosa, Iowa, and her three daughters are visiting Mrs. Thos. Montie, of this city. Mrs. Baugh is a sister of Mrs. Montie. They left Los Angeles Monday afternoon and arrived here yesterday morning.

D. P. Porter and wife, of Shedd, will leave next week on a visit to the eastern states. They will leave via the Southern Pacific, and will go to Texas and from there to Marietta, Ohio, in time to celebrate the centennial celebration of the settlement of Ohio on April 6th.

A sub-committee of the senate committee on commerce has decided to recommend the establishment of life-saving stations at the following places: Umpqua, at Yaquina, and at Shoalwater bay, near Loomis, and at Gray's harbor, Senator Dolph, who is on this sub-committee, urged the establishment of these life-saving stations.

The supper and entertainment by the juvenile band at the W. C. T. U. hall last evening was a very pleasant affair. An excellent supper was served by the ladies who assisted the band, and some excellent music was furnished. The boys appeared in their uniforms on the street in the afternoon and discoursed some fine selections.

Representative Hermann has received a letter from the secretary of war in answer to a note of inquiry asking the reasons for the delay in the survey and sounding of the harbor and bar of Siuslaw bay, Lane county. The secretary replies that an order has been issued to the coast and geodetic survey to perform the work.

Ed. R. M. Carter of this city has been engaged as agent for the Albany Farmers and Merchants Insurance Co., and he will do a general rustling business for that company both in this city and in neighboring towns and the country. He represents a solid company and the public interest of insurance cannot do better than to secure a policy from him.

Senator Manderson has reported favorably from the military affairs committee a bill authorizing the secretary of war to credit Oregon with $12,398 for ordinance and ordnance stores issued in Washington territory on account of the state, in payment for ordinance and ordnance stores borrowed from the state during the Nez Percés war.

A German ball will be given at the opera house by the German citizens of Albany and vicinity on Friday evening, March 9. A fine supper will be served at the City Restaurant, and an enjoyable time is promised. An adv. containing names of committees, etc. appears elsewhere in these columns.

STATE DISPATCHES.

A Serious Fire at Corvallis—The Steamer Bentley in a Bad Condition.

Special to the Herald) CORVALLIS, March 8.—Fire broke out at 2 o'clock this afternoon in the large warehouse known as the Blair warehouse, in which was stored 125 tons of baled hay, owned by G. W. Hunt, of Albany, and Zephaniah Job of this city. The building was so completely consumed as to be a total loss. The hay was insured for $1875. A portion of the hay was removed but it was badly damaged by water.

A SERIOUS ACCIDENT. During the progress of the fire William Horton, who was standing upon a platform under a window was struck by a falling bale of burning hay, inflicting serious injuries.

THE STEAMER BENTLEY. SALEM, March 8.—The steamer Bentley is in bad straits. Her stern has sunk into the bed of the river until the water has almost reached her hurricane deck, and it is feared great difficulty will be had in getting her off. Mr. Bowen is now in Portland trying to engage a barge to come up and assist in raising her.

Postponed.

The meeting of the State Agricultural Association, which was to be held in Salem on March 13, has been postponed until the 29th day of May, 1888. The session will be held in the opera house. John Osborne, of Salem, who is vice-president of the National Farmers' Congress, was authorized by that body to get up a farmers' organization in Oregon, and it is in compliance with this direction that the call is made.

Death of Mrs. Munkers.

Mrs. Mary Munkers died on Wednesday at her home near Scio, at the advanced age of 85 years and 6 months. The deceased was born in Missouri, and came to Oregon in 1848. He is a wide circle of friends she leaves the following children to mourn her loss: T. M. Munkers, Preston Munkers, B. F. Munkers and Mrs. G. W. McDonald, of Scio, and Riley Munkers, James Munkers and Lizzie Estes, of Salem. The funeral occurred from the family residence near Scio and was attended by a large concourse of sorrowing relatives and friends.

The Forum for March.

The March number of the Forum, which begins the fifth volume—under exceptionally prosperous conditions, the publishers assure us, its circulation having doubled within a year—may be called a tariff reform number so far as political discussions go. Mr. Morrison and Mr. Springer, both democratic revenue reformers, contribute articles on their side of the controversy and President Seelye, of Amherst College, in discussing the political situation in general, shows a strong leaning to free trade. The Rev. D. P. Livermore also may be said to write on a political subject, for he talks in favor of woman suffrage, quoting authorities for his assertions. The Rev. C. H. Parkhurst contributes an article on the public school discussion, holding that the schools should teach children, "to think, to work, to behave and to love their country." Bishop Spalding, of Peoria, discusses the dangers to our social institutions, and finds reason to fear nothing but the rise of great industrial centres presided by paupers, but he thinks that there may be a serious danger. Henry Holt, the New York publisher, gives an inside view of the American publishing trade with many interesting side-lights on our literature, in an argument for international copyright; and Thomas Hardy, who is perhaps the foremost of living English novelists, writes a helpful essay on novels and how to read them. The Forum is published at 87 Fifth Avenue, New York.

The Little Giant School Shoe is decidedly the most durable shoe in the market for children's wear.

CLEVELAND WANTS OREGON.

And He Will Send John P. Irish and Some Money-Bags Here.

And now comes the cheerful news that the democratic effort to carry Oregon is assuming very different shape. The election in Oregon will be held on June 5, the day the democratic convention will assemble at St. Louis. The dispatches tell us that the president is exceedingly anxious that when the sun goes down on June 5 word will be wired to the democratic convention at St. Louis that Oregon has gone democratic, which will be considered as an endorsement of the president's free trade message. The president has requested John P. Irish, of San Francisco to go to Oregon and use his influence to carry the state. Mr. Irish will spend a month traveling from one place to another in Oregon, haranguing the citizens of the state upon the president's free trade message. The president has also requested John P. Irish, of San Francisco to go to Oregon and use his influence to carry the state. Mr. Irish will spend a month traveling from one place to another in Oregon, haranguing the citizens of the state upon the president's free trade message. The president has also requested John P. FIGHT AT COTTAGE GROVE.

Two Indians Have a Desperate Fight with Knives—Three Squaws Arrested.

A short time ago Cottage Grove was thrown into great excitement by an Indian and squaw appearing in that city with hands and arms covered with blood. They reported that two Indians living one mile from Cottage Grove had attacked each other with knives. The Indians names are Jim and Take. Jim stabbed Take in the bowels, letting part of them out. Take returned the compliment by cutting Dr. William Osborne attended Jim and sewed Take up. Dr. J. W. Harris has attended Take ever since. He is slowly recovering. Jim is in prison awaiting the result of the stab he gave Take.

U. L. Dunn, of the Dunn hotel, it is supposed was robbed by some of the said Indians. Three squaws were arrested. They claimed that they found a watch and chain and a revolver lost by Dunn. They gave a straightforward account of where they found the articles. They were acquitted after fair and impartial hearing. H. L. Dunn recovered his property and paid costs, while the squaws wended their way to camp. — Portland News.
