EMPEROR DEAD.

Emperor William Passes Over to the Great Majority.

CROWN PRINCE LEAVES REMO.

Accident on the Burlington & Missouri River Road—Vice-President Potter Dead—Other Newsy Notes.

The HERALD'S Special Dispatches.] BERLIN, March 9.—The emperor died at 8:30 o'clock this morning.
Shortly after 8 o'clock all the members of the family who were staying at the palace, court dignitaries, generals and ministers of state remained in the Chamber in which the emperor was dying. The emperor was in a half sitting position on a camp bedstead. All the members of the royal family took their places at the bedside. The room was crowded. Prince William stood nearest the emperor, half bending over his couch. He earnestly watched the face of the dying monarch until he expired.
The emperor died holding the empress' hand. He was delirious for a brief period at 5 o'clock, during which time exclaimed: "I am a man of peace, but if Russia forces me to fight I shall faithfully side with my ally, Austria."

The emperor's remains lie covered with a white cloth on the bedstead which he died in, in the imperial chamber. The body is surrounded with candles, and divine services will be held in the mortuary chamber to-night. The emperor will be buried in the mausoleum at Charlottenberg.

PRINCE AND PRINCESS START.
SAN REMO, March 9.—The crown prince and princess of Germany will leave San Remo immediately for Berlin.

RAILROAD ACCIDENT.

Passenger Train Dashes into a Standing Coach.

ATCHISON (Kas.), March 9.—A collision yesterday afternoon on the Burlington & Missouri River railroad, through Denver passenger train that left this city this morning left a coach standing on the track at Humboldt, Neb., when the south bound local passenger train from Lincoln, in charge of a Reading engineer, dashed into the station at the rate of ten miles per hour. The fireman, conductor and one brakeman are more or less injured. Mr. Edwards, of Lincoln, was badly bruised and injured internally. A traveling man, whose name is yet unknown, was also seriously injured.

WRECK ON THE UNION PACIFIC.

Full Particulars of the Wreck Cannot be Obtained.

DENVER, March 9.—It is reported that the west bound express train on the Union Pacific, which was due here at 7 this morning, was wrecked near Lasalle, 75 miles east of here, at 4 o'clock this morning by a broken rail, several passengers were killed and wounded.
A special train left here at 10 o'clock carrying physicians, and stretchers. As the telegraph line is controlled by the railroad company it is impossible to get particulars.

Russia Closes Her Theaters.

ST. PETERSBURG, March 9.—The imperial theaters have been closed on account of the death of Emperor William. The newspapers express great respect for the late emperor. Some uneasiness is felt regarding the possible political consequences of his death.

Union Pacific Vice-President Dead.

WASHINGTON, March 9.—Thos.
J. Potter, vice president and general manager of the Union Pacific railroad company died at the Wickers hotel at 11:35 this morning.

Australian Ship Wrecked.

LONDON, March 9.—The Lanoma from Launceston, Australia, for London, with a cargo of wool, has been wrecked near Weymouth.
The captain and eleven of the crew were drowned.

Flags at Half-Mast.

LONDON, March 9.—The flags are at half mast throughout England to-day on account of the death of Emperor William. The queen has sent a telegram of condolence to Berlin.

Bismarck Reports Kaiser's Death.

WASHINGTON, March 9.—The official announcement of the Emperor William's death was received at the German legation early this morning. The telegram was signed by Prince Bismarck.

France Condoles with Germany.

PARIS, March 9.—Florens minister of foreign affairs went to the German embassy and telegraphed his condolence to Bismarck.

Melchior's Adjourns.

VIENNA, March 9.—The Reichstag has adjourned on account of the death of the German emperor.

Just Received.

A new invoice of Red Schoo House shoes, the best shoe made for children, for sale only at W. F.
Read's.

HUMEROUS DRIFT.

A GREAT PROBLEM
There are problems in arithmetic That pale a fellow's gills.
And algebra, conkers
And geometric pills.
But the toughest of all problems,
That with dread a husband fills,
Is to buy the earth "at special sale"
For two small bills.

The Kentucky Legislature will prohibit marriages where persons have a "violent temper." It can't be done. Violent tempers are discovered only after marriage.

Misprints on occasions are of a very painful nature. The editor of a temperance paper who wrote, "Getting drunk is folly," was horrified to read in his sheet next day that "Getting drunk is jolly."

Laura: "So you are really engaged to him, dear? He is forty, you say, and you are twenty—just twice as old as you, love. Dear me, when you are forty he will be eighty?" Clara: "Good gracious!
I hadn't thought of that."

Such marriages as those of Martin Kujawski and Anna Takowska in South Bend, Ind., and of Edmund Szezepankiewicz and Fannie Kuzinska in Philadelphia, which have just been recorded, are commendable. They reduce the unutterable horror of four such names one half by making them only two henceforth.

"We could not get out of the Boomer and Suorter this week," says an esteemed Arizona contemporary, "because our wife had a baby on Sunday, and we had to stay home on Monday to keep the nurse from lighting out when she found it was triplets. If any subscriber can show a better band than three of a kind this year he gets the Boomer free for six months.

THOMAS NAST SUEB.

"A Winter Tale of His Lecture Tour in the Northwest.

SAN FRANCISCO Chronicle.
Thomas Nast, the caricaturist, has been sued in the Justices' Court of this city by A. H. Ricketts, who acts as attorney for John Maguire, a Montana theatrical manager. Maguire says that Nast contracted with him to lecture in the Northwest from November to January last, and that the contract was kept. The complaint goes on to say that while the lecturer's name was substantially appreciated in the larger number of towns visited, there are yet other towns where the audience was "not large." Such a place was Butte City, where the party arrived on December 22d.

It was nearing Christmas and the home festivities of Christmas-tide proved such a strong attraction for the paying public that it stayed at home, and for once "Tommy" was neglected. He has relied upon this place's pecuniary returns, so affirms the complainant, to obtain the wherewith to be reembered by his eastern friends.
In this difficulty Maguire declares that Nast borrowed $250 from him "the which sum for any part thereof" has never been repaid to Maguire.

Learning through an interview published in the Chronicle that Nast intended to remain in this city for some little while, Maguire appointed Ricketts as his attorney to collect this $250. Ricketts says he wrote a courteous note to Nast, asking him to pay the money at once. Nast sent his son to reply to the note in person, which the son did. He denied that his father ever owed a cent to Maguire and Ricketts declares that his denial was made in language more forcible than polite.

Who Is Your Best Friend?

Your stomach of course. Why? Because it is out of order you are one of the most miserable creatures living. Give it a fair, honorable chance and see if it is not the best friend you have in the end. Don't smoke in the morning.
Don't drink in the morning. If you must smoke and drink wait until your stomach is through with breakfast.
You can drink more and smoke more in the evening and it will tell on you less. If your food ferments and does digest right—if you are troubled with Heartburn, Dizziness of the head, coming up of the food after eating, Biliousness, Indigestion, or any other trouble of the stomach, you had best use Green's August Flower, as no person can use it without immediate relief.

Sore Throat.

is particularly favorable to the contraction of Diphtheria. Heed the warning, and use Darby's Prophylactic Fluid. It at once allays the inflammation of the throat, subdues the pain and gives permanent relief. It promptly and effectually destroys all contagion and diphtheritic germs. It is a safeguard against Diphtheria, and should be used on the first symptoms of sore throat as a gargle.

No Humbug About This.

It is a straight business proposition, easily comprehended and worth giving attention to, that the entire stock of boots and shoes at A. B. McIlwain's is now offered at twenty-five per cent. discount.
This sale is positive, as the entire assortment is offered without reserve at this slaughter in prices.

Mr. Brink has received the finest as- sортment of wicker rocking chairs to be found in the city. If you don't be- lieve it, call in and see for yourself.

A FIASCO.

Sullivan and Mitchell Fail to Connect.

MITCHELLS BACKBONE LACKING.

Sullivan on the Ground—The Watchful Police Fail to Intercept Him—Sea-Sickness as an Excuse.

Special to the HERALD.] AMIEES (France), March 9.—Sullivan and Mitchell arrived here at 8 o'clock this morning. Both immediately went to their lodgings.
Mitchell's trip across the channel has fearfully upset him, and he is in no condition for the battle today. Still their seconds are making all preparations, notwithstanding the fact that every movement is watched by the police.

THE FIGHT POSTPONED.

AMIEES (France), March 9.—Both Sullivan and Mitchell are here, but Gen. Darnes and his English detectives are watching their movements closely. Plenty of wrangling has marked the proceedings so far, and the announcement that the fight had been postponed was no surprise. There seems to be a general feeling that a "quibble" will come up and there will be no fight after all. Sullivan's friends say Mitchell is in a wretched condition and would stand no show.

ANOTHER REPORT.

LONDON, March 9.—The Sullivvan-Mitchell fight has been postponed and will probably take place Monday. It is stated that Sullivvan was on the ground and ready to go ahead with the fight, but Mitchell was not on time. The same information says that Mitchell's non-appearance is due to the fact that he is not in a condition to fight.

LATER.

LONDON, March 9.—The Sullivvan-Mitchell fight has been postponed on account of a squabble, and will probably take place Monday.

SAN FRANCISCO NOTES.

The Half Interest Swindlers—The Stanford Quarantine Bill.

SAN FRANCISCO, March 8.—In the trial this morning of Pitcher, Hamberg and Neustadt on a charge of conspiracy for defrauding F. M.
Parker, the Oregon farmer, out of $7000 on a decoy deed. Joseph S.
Dunn testified that he was present at a conversation between Hamberg and one McElhinny in reference to the title. Witness said that in conversation with McElhinny and himself Hamberg said, "Why don't you stand in on this and throw the granger overboard." Witness knew that the abstract in possession of Hamberg was a decoy and was to be used in catching grangers.

The steamer City of Peking will be released from quarantine tomorrow.

The quarantine officers this morning permitted the British bark Valparaiso to be towed from the quarantine grounds, and she was docked. The Valparaiso came from Iquique, a cholera infected port, and while no contagion was on board, it was deemed best to detain her awhile.

Mayor Pond to-day received the following dispatch from Congressman Mowbray at Washington asking
