COLLEGE NOTES.

This has been a year of work, and all have accomplished a long line on the road to education.

The societies are in a flourishing condition—debating and the study of Shakespeare being the work of most importance.

It takes but a casual observer to note the fact that the Erodophians are excelling the A. C. L. S. in their respective work.

I—Why do the young ladies not invite the young gentlemen into their exercises?

A—Because the young gentlemen have never returned the compliment they once received.

The Erodophians had an interesting debate on the character of Macbeth Friday. The result was not learned.

The infants in the latin class No. 1 are preparing to invade the fables. Class No. 1 are struggling with the declension of nouns.

One has got to get up early in the morning to get ahead of Newberry in debating—Blodgett likewise on jumping.

C., you need not try to run that measles game any longer; you are preparing for that reception to be given you.

A Useful Invention.

Not long since we were shown, at Johnson & Dannels' blacksmith shop, a new implement to be employed in the setting of wagon tires. It consists of a moveable platform so arranged that by using a lever handle the entire wheel, as soon as the heated tire was dropped in place could be immersed in water and cooled before any warping or burning of the fellos could take place. The device is a very useful one and is a great credit to its inventors.

Now Nearly Well.

Judge R. P. Boise, who is now able to pursue his usual avocations, has had a pretty long siege of illness. He was taken down with inflammatory rheumatism just after the November term of court, and has been confined in his room at most all of the time since. He will be able to sit at his desk at the session of circuit court, which meets at Albany next Monday.

Pickles and Relishes.

We are now offering an assortment of fine pickles and relishes, including the best French mustard and mustard dressing, Chili sauce, celery relish and celery salt, chow chow, Pearl onions, mixed pickles, sweet Gherkins, olives, horse radish, pepper sauce and curry powder. These goods never fail to give satisfaction. KENTON & CHASE.

Probably Fatal Accident.

Last Saturday an old man named Jesse Morris, working on the farm of Samuel Darby, near West Stayton, met with an accident that will probably cost him his life. He was engaged in slaebing brush, and young fir trees, and one of them fell against a large oak tree. Morris cut another partially down, and intended for it to fall against tree No. 1 for the purpose of forcing it to the ground. Whilst he was clearing away the under brush preparatory to the fall, a gust of wind tipped over No. 2 against No. 1, and the latter came down upon him with crushing force, mashing his skull and nearly breaking his neck. He was removed to his home in West Stayton, where he is now being attended to by Dr. J. M. Kitchen, of Stayton. The condition of the wounded man is very precarious, and it was considered doubtful if he could live through last night. Morris is about 65 years old and has several children. His wife is in the asylum.

COAST NOTES.

Judge Deady has allowed an injunction against the O. R. & N. to restrain it from signing the joint lease.

Farmers in Marion county report fully one half of the fall wheat frozen out and will have to be re-sown. Some difficulty is found in getting spring wheat for sowing as for the last few years spring grain has not been deemed profitable.

So far the state commissioners have heard of no violations of the law regulating the taking of salmon from the Columbia river and its tributaries. They stationed men at the different fishing centers, who will promptly inform of any violation that may come to their notice, and the transgressor will find that their way is a hard one, the commissioners are determined to protect the royal chinook.

Preparations are being made to put a rack in the Clackamas river at the fishery hatchery, in order to catch salmon bound up the river and strip them of their spawn. The rack will consist of pickets driven into the bed of the river at an angle of forty-five degrees, in front of a row of piling. Last year wire was used, but has been discarded, as pickets, driven two inches apart, have been found to answer the purpose better.

There was 525 feet of boring accomplished during the month of February on the Cascade tunnel. This makes a total of 8750 feet of boring which has been finished up to the end of last month and leaves 1100 feet yet to be bored. Nelson Bennett, the contractor says the tunnel will be finished by the 1st of May, and if the rate of work in February is kept up during March and April this will be accomplished. The average day's boring during February was twenty-one feet and this rate of speed will leave just eight feet to be finished on the morning of the first of May.

At a meeting of the Southern Oregon Fruit Growers associations held at Jacksonville on Feb. 25, the following officers were elected for the term of one year: President R. A. Miller; vice presidents, B. F. Miller, Thos. Curry, I. W. Thomas, H. B. Miller, S. B. Galey and S. H. Stewart; secretary, C. B. Miller; treasurer, J. D. Whitman. The next meeting will be held at Medford, March 31.

SCIENTIFIC NOTES.

A native of Japan has invented a process by which seaweed can be converted into an almost unalterable paper, which is transparent enough to admit of its being used for window glass. In color it resembles old window glass.

At a French agricultural school wheat is soaked in acetate of lead solution six hours before sowing. The seed is said to germinate more quickly and grow more vigorously than wheat subjected to any other fertilizing treatment.

A non speaking telephone is exhibited in Pittsburg. A sensitive plate presses against the larynx and glands of the neck, and as the larynx is more in conversation the wire distinctly as the telephone now in use.

Among the "fowls of the air" are three—the eagle, swan and raven—which live to the age of 100 years or more. The parrot and heron attain the goodly age of 60 years. The sparrow hawk, duck and pelican may live to be 40, while the peacock and linnet reach the quarter century, and the canary 21 years.

Great Revolution in Albany Market.

Another invoice of Kenton's Baking Powder has arrived at Julius Gradwohl's. Only 25 cents in one pound cans. It sells on its own merits. Julius Gradwohl warrants every can. If not satisfactory the money will be refunded. The reason he was out of this popular baking powder for a few days was due to the unprecedented sale created by the constantly increasing demand for it.

FROM THE STATE CAPITAL.

The Famous Chrisman Will Case From Lane County Decided in the Supreme Court.

SALEM, March 9.—The famous Chrisman will case, on appeal from Lane county, was decided in the supreme court, the decision of the lower court being sustained, the will therefore stands.

The New York Sun says: "The great combinations of laboring people, such as the trade unions, the Knights of Labor and the Federation of Labor have been viewed with favor by legislators and by politicians; and this is natural considering that such combinations influence or control large bodies of voters, so that they may be able to make or mar the fortunes of candidates and parties. This may also be true of the Trusts, perhaps, but it is not so directly apparent. They are combinations of capital and business rather than of labor, and while in the end they may be able to bring a great many votes to one side or another, the process is much more hidden than that which is applied by the labor societies. It is a striking fact in the social development of civilization that these two systems of wholesale combinations are so nearly simultaneous in their appearance, so that while the laborers are combining in organizations which include every trade and every branch of manufacture for the purpose of removing or at least tempering and alleviating the state of extreme competition which has always been the rule of this world, the heavy business men and capitalists also improve the suggestion by forming enormous partnerships or joint stock companies for similar purpose; and they even extend them, as it would seem, so as to cover the whole face of the earth in their operations."
