

Pleasure Derived from Doing Good. Mr. George W. Childs practically indorses what Mr. W. W. Corcoran said in reply to a question as to whether he had been repaid for being the donor of immense sums of money philanthropically.

"I do think so. The pleasure I have had from doing good with my money is greater than that which could have arisen from the possession of any sum, however large. My feeling in this regard reminds me of the epitaph on the tomb of Edward Courtenay, the Earl of Devonshire:

"What we gave we have, What we spent we had, What we left we left."

Mr. Childs and Mr. Corcoran have had pleasure that no miserly, close-fisted, selfish or peevish man can ever know.

Judge and Jury in the Same Boat.

Judge Gary was hearing a case that called for a jury trial, and after the usual wrangling that always tries his patience the jury was secured and sworn. The Judge settled back in his chair, thinking that the case was fairly started, when up jumped a little German who was sitting in one end of the jury-box. "Shudge," he exclaimed. "Well, what is it?" asked the Judge, shortly. "Shudge, I think I like to go home." "You can't go. Sit down!" "Shudge, I don't think I make a good shuror." You're the best on the panel. Sit down."

Amending the Marriage Service.

The Judge of a New York District Court, at a marriage ceremony which he recently performed, introduced a new form, which will, it is prophesied, please the ladies. He asked the bride if she promised to obey her husband in all things "right and reasonable," to which she responded promptly, "I do." "May your last days on this earth be your happiest, and may you love and cherish each other always," was the parting benediction of the Judge, after pronouncing the couple husband and wife.

CALL FOR REPUBLICAN CONVENTION.

A republican convention for the state of Oregon is called to meet at the city of Portland, Oregon, on Wednesday, the 15th day of April, A. D. 1888, at 11 o'clock A. M., for the purpose of nominating candidates for the following officers: Representative in congress, three presidential electors, supreme judge and district officers, and to select six delegates to attend the national republican convention, and to transact such other business as may properly come before the convention. The convention will consist of 200 delegates, apportioned among the several counties as follows:

Table with 2 columns: County Name and Delegates. Baker 5, Benton 7, Clackamas 7, Clatsop 7, Columbia 4, Coos 7, Crook 3, Curry 3, Douglas 9, Gilliam 5, Grant 6, Jackson 7, Josephine 9, Klamath 3, Lake 2, Lane 10, Lincoln 10, Malheur 2, Marion 14, Morrow 5, Multnomah 20, Polk 6, Tillamook 3, Umatilla 10, Union 8, Wallowa 4, Wasco 9, Washington 9, Yamhill 9.

The same being one delegate at large from each county and one delegate for every 150 votes and one for every fraction over one-half thereof, cast for Hon. Bingier Herman, congressman, at the last general election. The committee recommend that the primaries be held March 31, 1888, and the county conventions April 4, 1888, unless otherwise ordered by the county central committee.

Republican electors and voters of the state, without regard to past political affiliations, who believe in the American principle of protective tariff and dignifying American labor, giving free, popular education to the masses of the people, effectually protecting all human rights in every section of our common country, and who desire to promote friendly feeling and permanent harmony throughout the state by maintaining a government pledged to these objects and principles, are cordially invited to unite in selecting delegates to the republican state convention. Respectfully submitted, L. T. BROWN, W. R. ELLIS, H. B. MILLER, H. HURLEY, W. M. SIMPSON.

Sore Throat.

is particularly favorable to the contraction of Diphtheria. Heed the warning, and use Darby's Prophylactic Fluid. It at once allays the inflammation of the throat, subdues the pain and gives permanent relief. It promptly and effectually destroys all contagion and diphtheritic germs. It is a safeguard against Diphtheria, and should be used on the first symptoms of sore throat as a gargle.

No Humbug About This.

It is a straight business proposition, easily comprehended and worth giving attention to, that the entire stock of boots and shoes at A. B.
