Released from Jail. By reference to the circuit court proceedings it will be seen that the case of Chas. Ryan, which was reversed by the supreme court on the grounds that the prisoner was indicted for burglary and convicted of assault, has been dismissed in accordance with the mandate of the supreme court. The prisoner was released from jail yesterday.

Train Robbers Beware. It is said that the chief of the railway mail service at Portland has received the latest devised Colts' revolver of heavy caliber, with which to arm the postal clerks on the O. R. & N. and Northern Pacific railroads. Ye festive train robber better look a little out.

Will Return Home. It is learned that Judge O. N. Denny, inspector general of customs at Seoul, Corea, has resigned and will return to Oregon in a few months. It will be remembered that Judge Denny accepted this office at the special request of the king of Corea, whose confidential adviser he also became. Judge Denny, in a letter to a Portland gentleman, states that the strain upon him has been so great that his health is failing, and this with political reasons has induced him to resign, and start for home, which he will do sometime this month. The king of Corea is very loth to let him off, and would not consent until the American consul agreed to act as adviser. The affairs of Corea are in a precarious situation, just at present owing to complications with China, and the king desires good counsel.

Artistic Entertainment. A few days since a very large audience in Corvallis greeted Mr. C. C. Hogue in the role of a cartoonist. For over two hours he kept the house in delight with the creations of his brush. He draws as rapidly as the famous Th. Nast, and owing to the more humorous character of his sketches many enjoyed Mr. Hogue's efforts more than that of Mr. Nast. His local portraits of a few of the leading men of Corvallis, although done with a few strokes of the brush, were recognized before half done and were greeted with cheers. Mr. Hogue has consented to repeat his entertainment at the opera house, in this city on Friday night, March 23d, for the benefit of the ladies aid society. He will try to draw the portraits of some of Albany's notables in addition to the regular programme. Tickets - Reserved seats, 50 cents; gallery, 25 cents. For sale at Blackman's drug store.

Burned Their Way Out. There seems to be a bad lot of criminals in Polk county. Thursday morning when Sheriff Greaves opened the county jail to feed the prisoners he found that the two Jordan boys, who were arrested in Salem during January for stealing two horses belonging to Thomas Jones, of Polk county, had made their escape during the night. They had built a fire on the floor of the cell in which they were confined, burning a hole through it large enough to admit the passage of their bodies, when they dropped through to the furnace room below and struck out for liberty. Bennett, who was confined in an adjoining cell, was asleep at the time of their escape and made no effort to join them. This is the second time the Jordan boys have succeeded in breaking from the Polk county jail.

TEACHERS' INSTITUTE.

The Closing of the Session - A Detailed Report of the Proceedings Yesterday.

FRIDAY - MORNING SESSION. The institute was called to order at 9 o'clock by Superintendent Reid.

Roll call showed but few absent. Miss Cora Morris of Jefferson; Miss Lottie French, of Jefferson, and Mr. J. B. Hughes, of Albany, were enrolled among the teachers.

A discussion on teaching penmanship in primary schools was opened by Miss Lillie Robertson. She would have the pupil learn to write on the slate, have the slate ruled to teach the proper height of letters, and would teach them to write from the elementary principles.

Mr. Whiting wished to know why it was necessary to employ more than three principles in teaching writing.

J. H. Jewitt spoke in favor of a system using but three principles. Mr. Pogue spoke a few words in favor of the other principles, holding that it was of greater convenience to others.

Mr. McGhee, of Spicer, spoke in favor of beginning to teach penmanship by use of the pen.

Prof. Walker would have but one principle.

Mr. McGhee asked the teachers how penmanship should be taught in graded schools.

J. M. Williams would not teach principles at all, but would teach writing in connection with reading, and upon the blackboard and slate.

H. W. Herron would use blackboard and would do away with all unnecessary lines.

Mr. Jewitt congratulated himself that he could not produce such fine writing as appeared on the blackboard, because it left him on a par with Lincoln, Grant and all the other great statesmen.

Recreation in arithmetic was quite interestingly presented by Miss Ina Robertson in a class recitation, the class being composed of teachers of the Albany public schools.

Prof. Lee gave a very good theory of teaching division of fractions, substituting the reciprocal of the divisor for the divisor and proceeding as in multiplication.

J. M. Williams offered a motion to appoint a committee to draft a form of organization for a county teachers' association. The following committee was appointed: J. M. Williams, H. W. Herron, B. A. Childers and Misses Lillie Robertson and Mattie F. Paul.

Morals and How They are to be Taught was well presented by W. A. McGhee, of Spicer. He believed that every teacher should teach morals to the pupils, and would like to see the school law amended, requiring every teacher to read a chapter in the bible as an opening exercise.

The study of physiology was well illustrated by Prof. Lee, of Albany. He recommended that fifteen minutes each day be devoted to oral work, in which the whole school should participate. This time could be profitably devoted to the subject of the human body. He dwelt freely upon the importance of each person following laws of hygiene.

AFTERNOON SESSION. The institute was called to order at 1:30 by Superintendent Reid, and opened by a song, "Help it On."

Roll call showed nearly all the teachers present.

J. M. Williams, Misses Hattie Kirkpatrick and Brink were appointed a committee on resolutions. Language Lessons was well presented by Miss Brink.

Mr. Herron, of Tangent, read an interesting paper on school Discipline and Government, showing that he had thoroughly digested all the means by which good order is secured. His outline written on the blackboard was exhaustive.

Mrs. O. S. Pollock read a short paper on Practical Methods of Instruction in Literature, and gave a class recitation. A number of selections from Merchant of Venice and Macbeth were recited by the class. The ones to be recited being selected from a hundred or more furnished for that purpose.

Mrs. Pollock believed that Shakespeare should be studied by boys, on account of the manly thoughts there, and he should be studied by girls because the character of young ladies is best developed by contact with true manliness.

A paper by Miss Lena Gray was read to prove that Lady Macbeth was more guilty than her husband, and a paper by Miss A. Bridgford to prove the contrary.

A reading from the Merchant of Venice was also given by the members of the class.

Recess of five minutes. Superintendent Reid spoke a few minutes upon what young folks should read, saying that the exercise given just before recess showed what kind of reading young folks might become interested in in the public schools.

The committee on association reported and an association was formed of the teachers of Linn county to be known as the Linn county Teachers' Association. For the purpose of meeting the county was divided into two districts, the first embracing Albany, Lebanon, Scio, Brownsville and the country adjoining those places. The second embracing Tangent, Shedd, Halsey, Harrisburg and the country contributing to them. The county superintendent was made ex-officio president of the association, and a vice-president and secretary were elected for each district. In the first district J. S. Hunt was elected vice-president and B. A. Childers, secretary. In the second district J. H. Jewitt was elected vice-president and J. Williams secretary. The first meeting for district No. 1 was appointed for April 15, at Lebanon, and in district No. 2 at Tangent on April 29.

CIRCUIT COURT.

The following cases were disposed of yesterday:

J. E. Knox et al. vs. L. B. Knox et al. partition; report of referee confirmed.

Maria Schaefer vs. D. S. Smith, action to recover possession of personal property; non suit.

Maria Schaefer vs. D. E. Smith, action to recover possession of personal property; verdict for plaintiff.

Chas. E. Shaefer vs. D. S. Smith, action to recover possession of personal property; dismissed.

State vs. J. P. Queener, obtaining money under false pretenses; plead non guilty.

State vs. Frank Mack, entering a house for the purpose of committing adultery; plead non guilty.

State vs. Chas. Ryan, burglary; dismissed.

State vs. Wm. Daugherty; assault with a dangerous weapon; found guilty of simple assault, and will be sentenced Monday at one o'clock.

Indictment Found. An indictment was returned by the grand jury yesterday against Ludwig Hansen charged with obtaining money by falsely impersonating another. This is one of the men who ran a confidence game on J. A. Gross, A. Faber and J. Schlessner a short time ago, obtaining $30 and attempting to skip out. He is now in a fair way to land in the penitentiary.

Swallowed Carbolic Acid. Considerable excitement was caused at Independence Thursday by the announcement that Mrs. Charles Cooper had attempted suicide by taking a teaspoonful of carbolic acid. After swallowing the deadly drug Mrs. Cooper rushed to the front door and shouted to her husband, who was plowing a short distance from the house, and told him to take care of the children as she was going to die. The alarm was given and neighbors rushed to the rescue. Dr. Lee was summoned and administered antidotes. At present she is still living, with prospects of recovery. The cause of the rash act is unknown, but Mrs. Cooper has been very despondent of late on account of the serious illness of her mother and it is supposed that this prompted the commission of the deed.

Jumped the Country. Richard E. Janeway, the young telegraph operator who recently robbed the postoffice at Spicer, has left the state and will probably forfeit his bond, under which he is constrained to await the action of the grand jury. The amount of money stolen is unknown, except to postoffice employees. Young Janeway was charged with the crime, arrested on a warrant from the United States court and taken to Portland, where, after a preliminary examination, his bond was fixed at $500. His father induced a friend named Holston to go on the young man's bond, and Holston will have to pay the $500, though Janeway, Sr., originally promised to indemnify him, which he probably won't do. Janeway is supposed to be in California.

The sunken Bentley. The work of raising the steamer Bentley is progressing rapidly, another barge having arrived from Portland to assist in her elevation from the bottom of the river. In a short time she will be lifted from her "watery grave," and carried bodily between the two barges to Oregon City, where the needed repairs will be made. One or two papers, entirely unacquainted with the circumstances of the accident, have stated that the "machinery would be extracted from the hull of the unfortunate steamer, and her ribs would be left to bleach and blacken upon the sands of Lincoln chute," or words to that effect. There has never at any time been any serious apprehension that the task of raising the Bentley would be a hopeless one. Her machinery will be left just where it is, and, after she is in the dry dock, repairs will not be over-difficult to make. - Salem Statesman.

Notice to Strangers. Persons just locating in Albany or vicinity will find at the new store of Kenton & Chase, between the opera house and postoffice, a good place to purchase their supplies of groceries and provisions. They have first-class goods there and the prices are reasonable. If articles sent from their store do not give entire satisfaction they cheerfully refund the money.

Great Revolution in Albany Market. Another invoice of Kenton's Baking Powder has arrived at Julius Gradwohl's. Only 25 cents in one pound cans. It sells on its own merits. Julius Gradwohl warrants every can. If not satisfactory the money will be refunded. The reason he was out of this popular baking powder for a few days was due to the unprecedented sale created by the constantly increasing demand for it.

Fast Going. Ladies who desire to secure bargains in dress goods, millinery, trimmed hats, and all goods of that description, will do well to call at the old stand of Shane & Lonsway. The stock is full and complete at present, and by calling early satisfactory selections can be made, and rare bargains obtained. These desirable goods were bought at a great bargain and must be sold. They are going at the almost unheard of prices, and those desiring choice bargains should call early.

Come and see us and we will guarantee to treat you with courtesy and at all times aim to deserve your patronage. Brownell & Stanard. Opposite Barber House.

THE CLACKAMAS HATCHERY.

Will Propagate Salmon Oily for the Columbia River.

The News says that Fish Commissioner Thompson states that the United States Fish Commissioner, Professor Stone, will return from the vicinity of Spokane Falls within a few days and take charge of the hatchery on the Clackamas river. Professor Stone has been examining the river in the vicinity of Spokane with a view to ascertaining its fitness for propagating salmon. In regard to the statement in Commissioner McDonald's letter, that salmon eggs would be furnished California, Mr. Thompson said that this would not be the case so far as the Clackamas hatchery was concerned. The eggs and fish would only be used for the Columbia river. The agreement under which the Clackamas hatchery was turned over to the United States was that its product should be used solely for the benefit of the Columbia river. There is nothing, however, to prevent the commissioner McDonald from furnishing eggs or fish to California from the hatchery on the McClelland river.
