STATE NEWS.

A Railway Disaster on the Narrows Gauge Road.

SEVERAL PASSENGERS INJURED.

The Engine Plunges Fifteen Feet Down an Embankment, Killing Live Stock —Page Found Guilty.

The Herald's Special Dispatches.]
PORTLAND, March 22.—The narrow gauge train bound for Portland met with an accident this afternoon on the other side of Oswego. The engine and tender jumped the track on account of some obstruction, the origin of which is unknown, and fell a distance of fifteen feet. The train was a mixed one, carrying freight, live stock, and passengers. Just what the result of the accident is cannot be learned at this hour, but it is known that some of the stock was killed, and at least four or five passengers are hurt. It is reported that the engineer and fireman escaped by jumping from the cab. The conductor was badly injured about the head. No one was killed.

PEARL PAGE FOUND GUILTY.

The Little Woman Breaks Down Completely Over the Verdict.

PORTLAND, March 22.—The jury in the case of Mrs. Rose Bryan, alias Pearl Page, indicted with C. M. Harding for robbing G. Dickenson, came in this afternoon with a verdict of guilty, but recommended the prisoner to the mercy of the court. The woman broke completely down when the verdict was announced, and cried like a child.

Hermann's Royal Pupil.

It is not generally known that the Queen of the Belgians exceeds in the art of producing bowls of fish from handkerchiefs and causing coins, watches and other articles to vanish into thin air. In other words, according to an English paper, she is a practical adept at conjuring. The late Professor Hermann gave her instructions in the mysteries of his craft, and she declined to take any remuneration for his services, his royal pupil sent the Professor's wife a magnificent bracelet and a pair of diamond earrings. On his seventieth birthday Hermann received a kind letter from the Queen, in which she remarked, "Do not be afraid, I have not divulged your secrets to anyone."

Peace on Earth.

Awaits that countless army of martyrs, whose ranks are constantly recruited from the victims of nervousness and nervous diseases. The price of the boon is a systematic course of Hostetter's Stomach Bitters, the finest and most genial of tonic nervines, posessed with reasonable persistence.

FOR SALE.

NORTHWEST NOTE.

A pension has been granted to Jackson Knotts, March 22.—An increase of pension has been granted to Wm. H. Moeller, Baker City.

Senator Dolph's bill, granting the state of Oregon five townships in Oregon, including the famous Crater lake, for a public park, has passed the senate.

Senator Dolph's bill, granting to the King's Valley & Newport railroad company right of way through the Siletz Indian reservation, has passed the senate.

Patents have been granted to William A. Campbell, Portland, for a shingle sawing machine; John J. Meston and Nate S. Dygert, Portland, binding books.

An increase of pension has been granted John W. Harris, Dow's Prairie, Or. Pensions have been granted Orville Phelps, Eugene City, and Wm. H. Taylor, Tacoma.

There was reported from the committee on pensions Hermann's bill increasing the pension of Frederick Beno, East Portland, to $73 a month. The committee recommended that the bill pass.

Senator Dolph's bill creating an additional land office in Oregon has passed the senate, as also his bill to confirm to certain widows and orphans titles to donation claims in Oregon.

A postoffice was established at Grover, Wasco county, Or., and Wm. Mercer was appointed postmaster. Clarence M. Tucker has been appointed postmaster at Argyle, San Juan county, W. T.

YAMHILL NOTES.

Democratic County Convention—Location of the New Court House.

MCMINNVILLE, March 22.—The democratic county convention met at Lafayette to-day and elected H. L. Heath, W. L. Bradshaw, D. H. Hartson, John W. Briedwell, P. H. Messner and C. C. Ferguson delegates to the state convention. Resolutions were passed indorsing Cleveland's and Penoyer's administrations. The delegates were instructed to present the name of Hon. W. D. Fenton to the state convention as delegate to St. Louis.

Is It Sarcastic?

SAN FRANCISCO, March 21.—The Post this evening editorially says: "The president's message on Oregon wagon road frauds may not have been meant for sarcasm on his party, but it seems very much like it. But the president is a little slow in transmitting the bill to congress, to forfeit the grant."

Senator Dolph prepared a bill for that purpose two years ago, and it has been waiting until the democratic party can find time from its internal squabbles to pass so worthy a measure. Perhaps the president was not aware of this and perhaps he merely wished to give the majority a hint of its responsibility in the matter, and it is hardly probable that even the president can get his party to pass the bill. The democratic majority is too busy trying to strike down the Oregon wool grower to have any time to encourage honest settlers.

The Alligator Crop Failing.

"The crop of alligators is decidedly slim in the South this year," said a man who had just returned from Florida. "In fact the supply is giving out, and the alligator seems to be on the road toward extinction as rapidly as the Buffalo. The slaughter for their hides has been waged so fiercely that it is no wonder the stock has been depleted. It is only a matter of a few years until the last survivor of a mighty-mouthed race will be dodging the bullets of the hunter in some lonely lagoon and wearily waiting for the end to come."

Will Never Forget You.

Don't laugh at the little boy when he makes an awkward blunder before a room full of people. He may see you going down the street next day, and a pudge you behind the ear with a muddy snowball just to remind you that, although he may be awkward in the parlor he is lithe and active out of doors.

We carry a mammoth stock of boots and shoes and can fit your foot.
BROWNELL & STANARD.

Mr. Brink has received the finest assortment of wicker rocking chairs to be found in the city. If you don't believe it, call in and see for yourself.

This is the season when a man who wants to remember the poor can sit down and think of himself all day long.

Do you want a nice flour safe? If you do see Thos. Brink. He has some fine ones cheap.

Call at Parker Bros. and try their choice fresh crackers, including choice table crackers, lemon bars, cocoanut taffy, etc.

Use Dwight's cow brand of soda and saleratus.

GENERAL NEWS.

Death of a Celebrated Engineer and Railroad President.

GREAT FLOOD IN UPPER MISSOURI

West Shore Railway Suffering From Floods in New York—In Favor of a Direct Vote for U. S. Senators.

The Herald's Special Dispatches.]
NEW YORK, March 22.—Geo. W. Cass died yesterday after an illness lasting nearly a year, aged 78. He was one of the engineers of the Great National road, built the first iron bridge in the United States, and established the first fast transportation company across the Alleghany mountains. He was at one time president of the Adams Express Co. He was also president of the Pennsylvania railroad, and for 26 years held the same office on the Pittsburg, Fort Wayne & Chicago railroad. He was president of the Northern Pacific at one time, and subsequently receiver of the same.

THE FLOODS CONTINUE.

Bridges Washed Out and Cattle Owners Lose Heavily.

POPLAR, Mo., March 22.—The great flood on the upper Missouri continues and the river is still rising. There is six feet of water on the railway at Wolf Point and the bridges are all washed out. The Milk river is commencing to break up and the country is flooded for forty miles around. Cattle men and Indians will lose large quantities of hay and wood. There will be some loss in stock, and if the river gorges at this point the loss will be immense.

NEW YORK FLOODS.

NEW YORK, March 22.—Several bridges on the West Shore railway have been carried away by the floods, and the traffic of the road is being sent by the way of the New York Central. New York and New England have suffered severely from washouts.

Death of J. M. Halstead.

NEW YORK, March 22.—James M. Halstead, president of the American Fire Insurance Co., died this morning.

A Sensible Resolution.

WASHINGTON, March 22.—The house committee on the revision of laws decided almost unanimously on a report of a joint resolution proposing an amendment to the constitution for the election of United States senators by the direct vote of the people.

Memorial Services.

BERLIN, March 22.—To-day was the anniversary of the late Emperor William's birth and memorial services were held in the castle chapel at Charlottenburg.

Gould's Land Patents.

One of the officials in the general land office, while performing his routine duties a few days ago in signing land patent warrants, picked up one made out in the name of Jay Gould. The official stopped and examined the document, and then lifted it up and looked at the next, until he found there were fifty-nine patents embracing a tract of twenty-six thousand acres of choice land in the state of Louisiana. Mr. Gould discovered that the land belonged to the government, and at once proceeded to put a claim on it. It cost Mr. Gould $1.25 per acre.

Value of a Reputation.

"George, dear," said Martha—you have heard of the family—"what makes you so late to-night?"

"Well, to tell the (hic) honest truth, dear, I've been at the office balancing my books."

"I fancied as much, and I knew you would be tired, so I have a large goblet of cherry bounce for you. I'll fetch it."

"So much for a reputation for veracity," he whispered to himself.—New York Sun.

A Rude Awakening.

She had been rhapsodizing about Browning for nearly an hour to young Mr. Waldo, and as she sat there in the flickering firelight, shading her eyes with one shapely hand, he thought he had never seen a fairer picture.

She was about to go on, when her little brother opened the door. "Penelope," he said, "can't I have some of those cold beans you put away to eat after Mr. Waldo goes home?"—New York Sun.

Afternoon Meeting.

We hope to see all the members of our union, and as many more as are interested in the cause we represent, present at our afternoon prayer meetings this week. The meetings begin at 3 o'clock and hold but an hour or little more. Mrs. Riggs will be with us to-morrow, and we feel sure that all who attend will feel benefited.

Mrs. J. H. TOWNSEND, President.

Political Parson.

Ah, yes, but you know hell is paved with good intentions.

Ward Politician—No! I never heard of that job! Who got the contract?
