

Morning Daily Herald

JOTTINGS ABOUT TOWN.

Republican primaries March 31. Democratic convention to-morrow.

Apples are worth $1.50 per bushel in this city. The Herald's subscription list is rapidly increasing.

Do not miss Mr. Hogue's artistic entertainment to-night. W. C. Cassell has returned from a trip to Eugene City.

Baled hay for sale in any quantity. Enquire of H. F. Merrill. Mrs. Jos. Tyler returned Wednesday from a visit with relatives at Halsey.

Full cream, Young America, and pine apple cheese, at Kenton & Chase's.

Don't miss the artistic entertainment at the opera house next Friday evening.

Mrs. J. E. Fenton, of Eugene, is visiting at the residence of Mrs. L. V. Lonsway, in this city.

The attention of those desiring to purchase lumber, shingles, lath, etc., is directed to the adv. of W. W. Crowder.

The immense stock of boots and shoes at A. B. McIlwain's is being slaughtered at twenty-five per cent. discount on each and every dollar's worth sold.

The first all rail through freight received over the Oregon & California railroad was a shipment of drugs received yesterday by Geo. L. Blackman.

It is announced that the Lebanon Express has been sold to Kirkpatrick & Bugler, two young men of that city. Its poll ticks it is understood will be democratic.

The price of soda at Francis Pfeiffer's this season will be 25 cents per glass. He will run an ice wagon and endeavor to help his customers to keep cool this summer.

It is a mistake that C. G. Burkhardt has disposed of his dry business, although the freight agents at the depot yesterday refused to recognize the claims of the new "boss" until he properly identified himself.

Edward C. Phelps, formerly of the Yaquina Mail, will soon begin the publication of weekly paper, to be called the Advertiser, at Medford, Jackson county. C. B. Carlisle, formerly immigration commissioner, is now running the Transcript at Medford.

A very pleasant reception was given last night at the residence of Mrs. L. E. Blain by Mrs. A. R. Higgins, state president of the W. C. T. U. The members of the W. C. T. U. of this city and their families were present and an enjoyable evening spent. An elegant lunch was served by the ladies of the W. C. T. U.

IMPORTANT BUSINESS TRANSFER.

The Linn County Bank and Property, Valuing $80,000, Changes Ownership.

J. W. Cusick sold yesterday to J. L. Cowan and J. M. Ralston, his interest in the Linn County Bank of this city, and the branch bank at Lebanon, together with the property owned by the firm of Cowan & Cusick. The transfer involves a value of about $80,000.

Mr. Cusick in the sale purchases the corner on First and Broad streets, recently purchased of Dr. O'Toole for $15,500. The Albany ferry property valued at $80,000, together with the bank building valued at $60,000, the banking business and all other property of the firm, both in Albany and Lebanon, is purchased by the new firm of Cowan, Ralston & Co. Mr. E. D. Cusick will remain in the bank as book-keeper, and Mr. Cowan will remain at the head of the Linn County Bank here, Mr. Ralston at present remaining at Lebanon. Mr. Cusick will take a rest from business and expects to take a trip East, but he will continue his residence in Albany.

Dissolution Announcement.

The partnership heretofore existing between myself and J. L. Cowan, under the firm name of Cowan & Cusick, has been dissolved by disposing of my interest to Cowan, Ralston & Co. I shall never fail to feel thankful to the people of Albany for their liberal patronage and kind feelings to myself, and in the future of testifying my sense of obligation for their generous confidence and ask for the same liberal patronage for the firm of Cowan, Ralston & Co. J. W. Cusick.

Albany, March 22, 1888.

An Old Landmark Gone.

The old residence of A. Hackleman, at present owned by Peter Riley, and which has for many years occupied a position in the middle of where Fourth street will be when opened between Jackson and Railroad streets, has been removed, preparatory to opening the street. One by one the landmarks of pioneer times disappear before the encroachments of the city's growth.

The First Loss.

The first loss sustained by the Albany Farmers' and Merchants' Insurance Co. was in Wednesday's fire in Arlington. It was a partial loss on an insurance of $750 on the household goods of A. F. Tucker, publisher of the Arlington Times. The loss will not exceed $500.

Arrested at Corvallis.

The notorious Jordan boys, the escaped Dallas horse thieves, have been arrested at Corvallis and placed in jail. They claim they stayed in Albany ever since, until they arrived in Corvallis.

A new schedule of prices at Brownell & Stanard's.

SNAGS IN THE RIVER.

Three or Four Dozen Logs Sticking up in the Willamette which Should be Removed.

Several ugly looking snags have for a long time been a menace to steamboats in the Willamette at various points along the river. Except at night boats are in no particular danger from them, for their jagged ends show from one to three feet above the surface of the water, and can easily be steered clear of. But this will not be the case should there be a few days of heavy rain, when the river would rise several feet.

The snags are what are technically known to steamboat men as "sawyers," that is, they are held to the bottom of the river by dirt laden roots, and the broken saw up and down with each wave of a passing boat. It was just such a snag as these that the Oregon Pacific steamer N. S. Bently struck in the upper river, and went to the bottom before she reached the shore. Should the river rise the ends of all these "sawyers" along the river would be under water, and the danger to boats would be extreme.

No attempt has been made to remove them. Some severe criticisms have been made through the papers because the government snagboat had not been brought out and these obstructions to safe navigation removed, but, as is often the case, these criticisms are made by persons who have no knowledge of the real facts. The government snagboat is laid up, and there is no money at hand to put it in order. If President Cleveland, who is so worried over the treasury surplus, had reserved his little pocket veto of the river and harbor bill, this work might now be done.

COAST NOTES.

Newly Items as Reported Through Exchanges Throughout the Northwest.

Arlington, in Eastern Oregon, was visited by a $50,000 fire on the 21st inst.

Most of the farm land on Ochoco has been plowed, and a good portion of the ground is sown.

A good many cattle are reported to have been fatally poisoned in Klamath county by eating wild parsnips.

Medford Transcript: There seems to have been a sort of blizzard up in the Siskiyou, judging by the chill breath that comes down into the valley in the early mornings.

It is the opinion that the present trial of the Hamlin case will cost Jackson county $15,000, says an exchange. The case from the beginning will probably cost the people $35,000. It should not have cost $1000.

Eugene City is afflicted with burglars. A couple of fellows got to prowling around Mrs. Parson's house Monday night and making a great disturbance. Hattie Parson got up and fired at them through the window and then went outside and fired at them twice as they ran up the street.

A few days ago, says the McMinnville Reporter, while Chas. Groening was hauling a load of wood from Riley Smith's, he was attacked by two men, who jumped into his wagon, knocked him down and beat him on the head very severely. This is the outcome of a lawsuit.

Ochoco Review: For some time past parties in town have been missing small articles, such as saddle blankets, chickens, etc., and suspicion rested on St. Reese, a worthless fellow who lived in a dugout near the engine house. The first of the week his premises were searched and most of the missing articles found. Reese was given an invitation to leave in a hurry, and he skipped out for other climates without much ceremony.

On the 31st of this month we are to have in Medford a meeting of the association of Southern Oregon fruit-growers, says the Transcript. As this is the first meeting under the new administration, the policy that is to govern the organization will be developed. This meeting ought to be made a notable one, characterized for large attendance and the promptness and ability with which it takes hold of the many questions that present.

It appears that Nevins, the Champeong school teacher, is not the victim who jumped off the bridge Saturday afternoon, as that worthy went up to Albany that evening, says a Salem paper. The most probable theory now known is that the suicide was a German who some time back left the home of his brother-in-law, Mr. Shindler, in Polk county, declaring he would commit suicide. He was in Salem Saturday afternoon, and called at the Capital national bank about 4 o'clock, since which time he has not been seen. The river has not been dragged yet.

The Star of Bethlehem.

Great interest has been aroused lately by the report that a periodic star called the Star of Bethlehem has been visible in the heavens, and the star is said to have a period of 315 years. This report rests upon the most shadowy foundation. It is true that some 300 years back such a star was asserted to have appeared in Cassiopeia with the period named, but the observation has not yet been endorsed by any modern astronomer. But at this time the name "Star of Bethlehem" has been curiously assigned to Venus, which planet, during the past December, has been placed so favorably for observation that in the early morning sky it has formed a very beautiful object. The mistake has been widespread, and it is impossible to trace its origin.

Come and see us and we will guarantee to treat you with courtesy and at all times aim to deserve your patronage. Brownell & Stanard.

NOTES FROM JUNCTION.

JUNCTION, March 21.

We are having most beautiful weather. Mattie Lee will teach the Oak Grove school.

Earnest U. Lee is having his house painted. Prof. Ruppel is teaching a private school in the public school house.

Most of the fall grain in this vicinity was badly damaged by the freeze and has been resown. About 300 acres will be planted to corn this spring in this neighborhood.

A petition has been circulated and largely signed by many of the best of our citizens for the pardon of W. R. McDaniel.

M. M. Eccleston, his son-in-law, Oliver Adkins, left on last Monday for The Dalles, to work on the O. R. & N.

Prohibitionists of this place think it very queer that the Herald-Disseminator should speak in such high terms of the prohibition convention that recently met in Albany.

The people of this part of the country are very much dissatisfied with both the democratic and republican parties, and it now seems that quite a number will rally under third party and endeavor to cast their votes for temperance men.

Great Revolution in Albany Market.

Another invoice of Kenton's Baking Powder has arrived at Julius Gradwohl's. Only 25 cents in one pound cans. It sells on its own merits. Julius Gradwohl warrants every can. If not satisfactory the money will be refunded. The reason he was out of this popular baking powder for a few days was due to the unprecedented sale created by the constantly increasing demand for it.

Notice to Strangers.

Persons just locating in Albany or vicinity will find at the new store of Kenton & Chase, between the opera house and postoffice, a good place to purchase their supplies of groceries and provisions. They have first-class goods there and the prices are reasonable. If articles sent from their store do not give entire satisfaction they cheerfully refund the money.

To the Masonic fraternity and others who so kindly aided us in the time of our sad affliction, occasioned by the death of Stephen E. Belknap, we desire to extend our heartfelt thanks.

Mrs. STEPHEN E. BELKNAP. EDWARD BELKNAP.

Business Change.

Mr. L. D. Miller, of Iowa, has purchased a one-half interest in the real estate business of F. A. Burkhardt & Co. and hereafter the firm name will be known as Burkhardt & Miller.

"That there should and will be a general revision of the tariff, with increased duties on some few articles of importation, a reduction of many others, and still others placed on a 'free list,' for the purpose of reducing the surplus, is generally admitted by the business men of the country. And while the farmers will not object to this, they will object to such a revision as will render the guise of raw materials a plea to place the products of the farm, such as hemp, sugar, flax, hides, wool, etc., on the free list, while, at the same time, no reduction is made in the duties on the manufactured products of these articles. We desire a proper equity and fairness—protection for the weak, restraint burdens and justly distributed power."—J. H. Hale, Master Connecticut State Grange.

The best way to save money is by patronizing the new firm of Brownell & Stanard. We welcome all our old friends as well as new, and always strive by fair dealing to give the lowest prices and best goods, and are ever on the alert to please customers.

Artistic Entertainment.

A few days since a very large audience in Corvallis greeted Mr. C. C. Hogue in the role of a cartoonist. For over two hours he kept the house in delight with the creations of his brush. He draws as rapidly as the famous Th. Nast, and owing to the more humorous character of his sketches many enjoyed Mr. Hogue's efforts more than that of Mr. Nast. His local portraits of a few of the leading men of Corvallis, although done with a few strokes of the brush, were recognized before half done and were greeted with cheers. Mr. Hogue has consented to repeat his entertainment at the opera house in this city on Friday night, March 23d, for the benefit of the ladies aid society. He will try to draw the portraits of some of Albany's notables in addition to the regular programme. Tickets—Reserved seats, 50 cents; gallery, 25 cents. For sale at Blackman's drug store.

Gold Watch Given Away.

Francis Pfeiffer has placed in his show case at the Albany soda and candy works a $50 gold watch, which will be given away to the customer who purchases of him the most cigars. Every person who buys a cigar will receive a ticket. At the end of ninety days the one holding the largest number of tickets will receive the watch. It is warranted to be a genuine gold watch worth $50. His cigars are the best in the market. This is a rare chance to get a gold watch free.

Who is Your Best Friend?

Your stomach of course. Why? Because it is out of order you are one of the most miserable creatures living. Give it a fair, honorable chance and see if it is not the best friend you have in the world. Don't smoke in the morning. Don't drink in the morning. If you must smoke and drink wait until your stomach is through with breakfast. You can drink more and smoke more in the evening and it will tell on you less. If your food ferments and indigests right—if you are troubled with heartburn, dizziness of the head, coming up of the food after eating, biliousness, indigestion, or any other trouble of the stomach, you had best use Green's August Flower, as no person can use it without immediate relief.
