ARE WE IN BETTER CONDITION.

Perhaps the claim that the condition of humanity has been bettered during the past half century will be doubted, as the pessimistic view of the situation seems to prevail.

To be satisfied upon this score, however, it is but necessary to consider the difference of the situation now and then. In 1800 common laborers living in the rudest sheds, as MacMaster, the historian, tells us were paid from $5 to $6 a month working from sunrise to sunset.

Is Albany going to celebrate the Fourth of July this year? If so, arrangements should be commenced early enough to get up a rousing celebration—one in keeping with a growing and progressive city.

The renomination of Binger Hermann for congress, which will probably be done by acclamation, will insure to the people of Oregon a continuance of his efficient services during another term.

of steel and iron, driven to the latent forces of nature do the entire labor for the existence and sustenance of humanity.

JOHN CONSER will be the next sheriff of Linn county. We say this not because he is a republican, or because we are, but because he is a sober, upright, solid business man, of whom it can be said that the office seeks the man and not the man the office.

If St. John can satisfactorily explain why he did not come out to Oregon last fall to labor when the prohibitory amendment was up, instead of during the presidential year, it might overcome some serious doubts as to his sincerity in the cause he espouses.

Let it be remembered that the desire of voters up this way, almost irrespective of party, is for the nomination of H. H. Hewitt, of this city, for prosecuting attorney of the third district, at the republican state convention Wednesday.
