Judge Flinn is having a $2000 brick warehouse erected in the rear of his new building. Admission 25 and 50 cents for the Bonlon musical comedy company. Don't fail to see them. Ladies, call at F. M. French's and see those new "Chateleine" watches in gold, silver and nickel. From all parts of Linn county comes the report that John Conser is the choice of the people for sheriff. The delegates who attended the republican state convention from Linn county returned home yesterday. That elegant line of plushes in our show window is reduced to $1.25 a yard. Monteith & Seitenbach. Jim Westfall has decided not to sue the O. & C. railroad company for being ejected from the depot at Salem. The sale of groceries at cost at Julius Joseph's will only continue a few days longer. Those desiring to purchase should call early. Six tramps were told to quit the city yesterday by City Marshal Hays. They obeyed the order with alacrity, not wishing to form a chain gang at work on the streets. The Salvation army of this city has been reinforced by another crowd of toughs. It is hoped they can play the horn with less ear-splitting discords than is at present done. Col. T. E. Hogg recently purchased an undivided half interest in the Miller Bros. tract of land, situated between Newport and Yaquina City, containing 154 acres, paying for the same $9000. Col. Hogg already owned the other half. Curran & Montieth sold yesterday to C. J. Whelan, two lots in Hackleman's third addition to Albany; consideration $375. The buyer is traveling agent for the Canadian Pacific, and noting the situation of our growing city, concluded to invest in some of its real estate. Miss Frances O. Gilbert will commence giving music lessons in Albany next Monday April 16th. Miss Gilbert is a graduate from the conservatory of music of the Willamette university, and will be pleased to give instructions to pupils on the piano, organ, or in the study of harmony. The public will be pleased to learn that Wm. Simpson has received another large invoice of goods for his 10, 15, 20 and 25 cent counters. Rare bargains in these goods will continue at his store at Stone & Lonsway's old stand adjoining the Crawford block. Before buying boots and shoes step in at the Albany shoe store and look through our stock. We will make you prices that are sure to please you, and sell nothing but good honest goods and warrant every pair to give entire satisfaction. Repairing neatly done. Krauss & Klein, Flinn Block. St. John is already in Oregon, and his political side-show will soon be followed by the main tent under the direction of John P. Irish. They both work for the same employer; but they use different methods. They will learn that the people of Oregon are quite capable of attending to their own affairs, without any outside dictation. They can see the wolf through the wool of the sheep's clothing.—Sales Statesman.

THE DEATH ROLL.

A Prominent Citizen Enrolled in Its Long List.

Elsewhere will be found the announcement of the death of Hon. Hiram Smith, of Harrisburg. Mr. Smith was born and lived thirty-two years of his life in Missouri, his birth dating back to 1821. He crossed the plains to Oregon in the early fifties, and settled in Linn county, where he has principally resided. In 1863 he moved to Harrisburg and shortly after entered the mercantile business. He was a candidate for congress in 1873, and was several times delegate to the national republican convention. He was well known all over the state and has been much in public affairs. He was married in 1848 to Mary E. Fleming, who survives him. They had no children. Mrs. Smith resides on the old home estate.

St. John's Speech.

Ex-Gov. St. John, the notorious apostle of the third party prohibitionists, delivered his harrange against the republican party at the opera house last evening. There was present a very small sprinkling of republicans, a little larger number of democrats, a few men who went out of curiosity to see the man who defeated Blaine, a good number of empty benches. St. John delivered a nice little temperance speech, then switched off on a political tangent, and whooped up first-class free trade doctrine, while eatar fees of the Democrat sat on the front row and cheered vociferously. He hates republican newspapers as he does poison, and spilled his billingsgate profusely in "using up," as he is agined, the republican editors of Oregon. He referred with pride to his achievements of four years ago. He is witty, in fact his speech was almost a burlesque from beginning to end.

A Centennial.

David Carnes, a citizen of the southern part of Linn county is 104 years old, says the Lebanon Express. He is hale and hearty; his neighbors say that he split 3000 rails this winter and repaired his fence with them. A friend found him in Brownsville the other day and learned from the old gentleman the following facts: "I was born in Washington county, Pennsylvania, and lived there until I was 40 years; then moved to Indiana and lived there nearly forty years, and crossed the plains the last year of the war." "Well, old gentleman, how do you like Oregon?" "Sir, if I had a hundred years more to live, I would never leave the Willamette valley; this is the best country this side of heaven." "If any of our contemporaries or anybody else can beat this we would like to hear from them."

Pensions and Postoffices.

A pension has been granted to Harry M. Pittman, Chehalis, W. T., and to Wyatt A. Wherry, Mishawaka, Oregon. Martha J. Whellhouse has been appointed postmistress at Crane, Washington county, Idaho, to succeed Mrs. Mary J. Horlan, who has resigned. The vacancy occasioned by the resignation of Aaron Royce, county postmaster at Lone Morrow county, Oregon, has been filled by Charles B. Sperry being appointed. Alexander Coney, postmaster at Monroe, Benton county, Or., has resigned and Adam Weillhelm appointed in his place. Joseph Freeman has been appointed postmaster at Vinson, Umatilla county, Or., vice E. H. Adair, resigned.

TROUBLE AT SILETZ RESERVATION.

The Indians Drive the Agent and a Lady Teacher Off the Reservation.

From the express messenger who came over yesterday on the Oregon Pacific train from Yaquina, particulars were obtained of a serious trouble which has arisen on the Siletz reservation near that place. A short time ago a surveyor named Lackland was sent there by the government to do some surveying. He did his work and at the same time wooed and won the affections of a half-breed Indian maiden, with whom he ran away, going to Portland. In leaving the couple, after crossing the straits, if the two horses they were riding on, the ferry-boat, and set it adrift. It floated down the river about six miles, and in getting it back one Indian named Catfish was drowned. This, together with the manner in which Lackland had carried away the half-breed girl, made the Indians very angry. Lackland had boarded with the Indian agent, J. B. Lane, and they blamed him for the whole affair. Finally their wrath was nursed to such a degree that they gave Agent Lane peremptory notice to leave the reservation. To avoid trouble Mr. Lane left for Portland with the intention of returning to investigate the matter. The Indians also notified Miss Hatfield Hansell, a highly respected young lady, who was engaged in teaching on the reservation, to leave, and yesterday she quit the reservation and started for her home in Portland.
