THE OREGON PRESBYTERY.

The Work of the Session Concluded in a Meeting Lasting Till Midnight.

The Presbytery of Oregon held its final meeting of its late session Thursday evening, April 12, beginning at 7:30 and continuing till midnight. Rev. G. W. Gibney having signified his acceptance of the call from the church of Lebanon, the following committee was appointed to install him as pastor of that church early in June. Rev. W. S. Gillespie, of Newport, to give the charge to the pastor. Rev. H. A. Newell, of Salem to give the charge to the people. Rev. J. V. Milligan having signified his acceptance of the call from St. John's church, Portland, the following committee was appointed to install him as pastor of that church: Rev. D. O. The following persons were appointed to supply the pulpits of the Presbytery commissioners to the general assembly during their absence: Dr. Thompson's pulpit, Corvallis—Rev. E. R. Prichard. Rev. E. R. Murgatroyd, Rev. G. A. McKinley, Rev. Geo. Gillespie. Rev. D. O. Ghormley's pulpit, East Portland—Rev Thomas Boyd, Rev. H. A. Newell, Rev. Wm. Morrison, Rev. W. S. Holt.

Sandstone Quarry.

Hon. Geo. Waggnor, railroad commissioner, has recently discovered a quarry of superior sandstone on his land a short distance south of Corvallis, which promises to prove one of the most profitable stone quarries in the state. For building purposes it is unequaled, as it posesses great strength, is of the finest texture and is absolutely fireproof, the severest test only making it harder without a particle of shrinkage. As it can be cut into the finest slabs and polished equal to marble, it can be worked up into all kinds of ornaments, newel posts; etc., and for small grindstones and whetstones it is pronounced equal to the very best. A company has been formed to work the quarry, and already several large orders have been received from Portland and elsewhere for stone.

Salvation Army Disturbance.

A disgraceful row occurred on First street last evening on the appearance of the Salvation Army. Wm. Price, who had put on a Salvation Army uniform, came up and stood with the Salvationists. Capt. Stilwell attempted to put him out of the circle. Price insisted on being allowed to stand where he pleased, and when Stillwell took hold of him to put him out Price knocked him down. Price was placed under arrest and gave $10 bonds for his appearance at 2o'clock to-day. Stilwell, however, who did not know this, got up and roundly abused the officer and the bystanders generally for allowing the affair to go by without arresting Price. The Salvationists soon afterwards marched to their hall, where arrangements had been made for some big meeting.
