HAVE YOU A COLD in the head which do not get better? Have you an excessive secretion of mucus or matter in the nasal passages which either must be blown from the nose or drop back behind the palate, or hawked or snuffed backward to the throat? Are you troubled by hawking, spitting, weak and inflamed eyes, frequent soreness of the throat, ringing or roaring in the ears, more or less impairment of the hearing, loss of smell, memory impaired, dullness or dizziness of the head, dryness or heat of nose? Have you lost all sense of smell? Have you a hacking cough? Have you dyspepsia? Is your breath foul? If so YOU HAVE THE CATARRH. Some have all these symptoms, others only a part. The leading symptom of ordinary catarrh is increased secretion of mucus of yellow or greenish colored matter.

Foul breath is caused by the decomposing secretions exuded from festering ulcers far back in the head; sometimes the membrane covering the bones is eaten away and the bones themselves gradually decay. Such cases are indeed objects of pity, as stench from corroding sores reveal the corruption within.

As every breath drawn into the lungs must pass over and become polluted by the secretions in the nasal passages, it must necessarily follow that poisoning of the whole system gradually takes place, while the morbific matter that is swallowed during the sleep passes into the stomach, enfeebles digestion, and often produces dyspepsia, and finally great debility, nervousness and consumption.

DO NOT PROCRASTINATE.

If you have experienced any of the above symptoms do not delay, but TRY CALIFORNIA CAT-R-CURE at once. We positively guarantee a few applications to relieve, and a thorough treatment to cure. Six months treatment for $1.00; sent by mail $1.10.

GENERAL NEWS.

Preparations for the Funeral of Roscoe Conkling.

A SHOCKING STORY OF CRIME.

Indians Poisoned En Masse—Fine Horses Burned—Dr. Agnew Dead—An Actor Breaks His Leg.

The HERALD'S Special Dispatches.

NEW YORK, April 18.—Mrs. Conkling and Mrs. Oakman were kneeling at the bedside of Roscoe Conkling when he died. Mrs. Conkling had her hand clasped in his. She left the room when the face of the dead senator was covered and went to her room and fell exhausted on the lounge. The funeral ceremony will be held over the remains of the dead senator Friday morning in Trinity Chapel, West Twenty-fifth street. Rev. Morgan I. Dix will officiate, assisted by other clergymen. Friday afternoon the remains will be taken on a special train to Utica, where funeral services will also be held in Conkling's late residence. The interment will take place the same afternoon.

Later it was decided that the funeral services in Utica would be held in Calvary Chapel Saturday afternoon, instead of at the family residence in this city. The pall-bearers are: Judge Shipman, Abram Hewitt, S. L. M. Barlow, Clarence A. Seward, Manton Marble, Senator John C. Jones, Senator Don Cameron, William J. Wallace, Walter S. Church and Isaac H. Bailey. This morning the body was embalmed and placed in the casket.

FIENDISH WORK.

Shocking Stories of Wholesale Poisoning of Indians.

NEW YORK, April 18.—A Rio Janeiro letter says: An account has been received from the southern frontier of San Paulo, of the butchering of Indians en masse. According to statements forwarded to San Paulo it is ascertained that Joaquin Bueno, who has seventy armed men under his command, recently assaulted a large Indian village, and while the frightened Indians were absent poisoned with strichnine not only the food and drink abandoned by the fugitives, but also the wells and springs. According to Bueno's own declarations he found when he returned a few days later 3,000 corpses of Indians in the village. He also boasted that in another village he had poisoned 800 Indians, and he was about to treat similarly another village, in which 2,000 Indians reside.

FIRE AT PALO ALTO.

Further Particulars of the Fire at Senator Stanford's Stable.

SAN FRANCISCO, April 18.—The latest reports from the fire at Senator Stanford's stables at Palo Alto place, give the number of horses that perished at the scene as follows: Clifton Belle, record 5:23¾; Nexford, record 2:24; Kris Kringle, by Electioneer dam, Lady Thornton Jr.; colts Howard and Lowell, the latter by Electioneer dam, Lady Lowel, and two bay geldings foaled in 1882. Palo Alto and Maoyantoe are reported as severely injured. The yearling Nortaine, record 2:30½, who was reported dead is still alive, but so badly injured that there is no hope of his recovery. Cerdric, foaled in 1885, dam Ceil, by Electioneer, was also severely burned and cannot live.

Grain Speculation.

ST. LOUIS, April 18.—Mose Farley, leading speculator in the St. Louis grain market, announced his inability to meet further margins, and is now on the floor settling his deals. Last night he stated to his friends that he had put up $560,000 in cash, and would be unable to put any more up. His checks were given him yesterday but they failed to pass the clearing house, but to-day Fairldy said that the funds are forthcoming to clear all up. He has been the leading bear of the market in the past year, and is short in large quantities of all grains. The failure is for more than half a million. Fairley sayes he will pay dollar for dollar.

Accident at a Theater.

VICTORIA (B. C.), April 18.—In the performance of "The Paymaster" to-night at the theater Duncan B. Harrison made a leap of several feet to the stage. In doing this he broke his leg and sprained his ankle, which will lay him up for several weeks.

Dr. Agnew Dead.

NEW YORK, April 18.—Dr. Agnew died this afternoon at 2:45.

Vienna sausage, Barataria shrimps, boneless spiced pig's feet, Libby & McNeil lunch tongue, Richard Sons & Rubbins boned chicken, deviled and potted ham, fried and corned beef, boneless herring, Boston baked beans and brown bread and new cream cheese are among the things suitable for lunch at WALLACE & THOMPSON'S.

A MORMON TRICK.

A False Dispatch That Gulled Several Newspapers.

SALT LAKE CITY, April 18.—One of the most barefaced frauds perpetrated under color of the auspices of the Associated Press, is a dispatch sent from this city bearing the date of April 13, being a comment on and an apology for the rabid utterances on Polygamy at the recent conference, made especially by Elders Rudger Clawson and Seymore B. Young, who emphatically urged the saints to live up to the highest principals of their religion, celestial marriage, and to remain firm under persecution. The dispatch states that Clawson's utterances are condemned and repudiated, and that interviews with leading Mormons prove that they are as deeply chegrined by the young men's reckless and unauthorized utterances as others.

The dispatch was only noted by its appearance in outside newspapers which reached here to-day, and a breeze of inquiry was at once started to locate its origin. It now transpires that this alleged Associated Press dispatch was not sent from here by a regular Associated Press agent. Another fact is that no leading Mormons have been interviewed and further, that neither Mormon pulpit nor press has condemned a single remark made by either speaker at this last conference. The facts in the case, as elicited by a reporter to-day, and of which he has undeniable proof, is that the dispatch was written at Mormon headquarters in this city, and designed for consumption abroad, being a willful perversion of the truth from beginning to end. The dispatch was held in abeyance by the Eastern Associated Press officials for some time, and it is believed here that only the influence of Caine and the Mormon lobby at Washington ever caused it to be made public.

WELL KNOWN IN OREGON.

GOLD HILL, April 17.

Residents of this vicinity were pained to learn of the tragic shooting of C. D. Failing in San Francisco last Sunday, by his wife, as given in the dispatches. The Mrs. Cawley mentioned in connection with the affair was formely Miss Affie Colvig, daughter of Dr. Colvig of Rock Point, three miles west of this place. She was formerly telegraph operator at that place and highly respected. Information came here that she was the woman wounded, but later news contradicted that report. Failing was welll known here, having made many acquaintances while train dispatcher on the C. O. &
