THE MARKETS.

The prospects for the wheat crop in Oregon is continually growing better. Letters received from California, of recent date, state that the continued dry weather there is making sad havoc of the wheat crop. A shortage there, while it is to be regretted, is already giving an upward tendency to the price in Oregon. The crop in Linn county is growing finely, with prospects of an abundant harvest.

Oregon Peach Bitters.

About eighteen years ago I received a hurt in my back from a pile of lumber falling on me, and ever since had been troubled with weak kidneys more or less, and the last year very much. Through the recommendation of Henry Keene, I bought a bottle of Keene's Oregon Peach Bitters, and before I had taken half the bottle I found great relief from it. I believe it to be a splendid remedy for the kidneys, and heartily recommend it for the same. J. H. PORTER, Aumsville, January 12, 1888.
