ATTEMPTED MURDER.

A Lad Wanting His Father Arrested for Threatening to Kill His Son-in-Law.

A young man aged about 17, son of J. J. Roselle, residing above Sweet Home, arrived in this city last evening, and swore out a warrant in Justice Dorris' court for the arrest of his father on a charge of attempting to kill his son-in-law.

A warrant was issued for his arrest, and a constable will leave this morning for this purpose. Only meagre particulars were obtained, but it seems that in a quarrel Roselle drove his son-in-law from the house and drew a revolver, threatening to shoot him.

Workmen have completed the erection of a tower upon the center of the Oregon Pacific draw-bridge, from which hog chains will be stretched to support the bridge when it is open.

A FEARFUL LEAP.

A Locomotive Jumps from a Train Going at Forty Miles Per Hour.

Last evening when through train on the O. & C. railroad was approaching Salem at the rate of forty miles per hour, a locomotive in charge of a deputy sheriff, taking advantage of the occasion while the sheriff's attention was drawn in another direction, he having asked the newsboy to watch the man a moment, propped his feet against the arm of the seat—trusting his head against the window breaking the glass and springing clear through dropped to the ground. The train was stopped immediately and the locomotive, whose hands were securely handcuffed to a belt at his waist, was picked up, apparently unhurt, except a slight scratch on the side of his face, and continued on his way to the asylum. If a sane man had undertaken the leap he would probably have broken every bone in his body, including his neck.

The woman was paced under arrest last night, and will be taken to Eugene to-day to be tried at that place before U. S. commissioner J. J. Walton.

Late last night a dispatch was received by Constable C. G. Burkhardt that the girl had been found. Special to the Herald. PORTLAND, May 7.—News has been received here that one night early last week the depot at Stampede, W. T., caught fire. Leslie Mattoon, telegraph operator, a former resident of Albany, was sleeping in the building, and was not awakened until the fire had gained great headway and his own bed was on fire. Hastily arising he jumped out of the window into a quantity of burning oil. At last accounts he was still alive, but no hope of recovery.

MURDER NEAR YAQUINA.

Two Boys Engage in a Quarrel and One Kills the Other with a Case Knife.

Particulars of a shocking tragedy at Mill Four, near Yaquina City, were received in this city yesterday. On Sunday evening Bud Miller, aged 14, son of A. J. Miller, and Elmer Wright, aged 17, became engaged in a quarrel, which resulted in the death of the latter.

The boys had a quarrel the previous Sunday, over some trouble which arose during Sunday school, and came to blows over it. Last Sunday they met after Sunday school, when Miller, who had procured a case knife, and had it sharpened for the purpose, accosted Wright and asked him if he wanted to continue the quarrel of the week before. Few words were spoken and Miller, drawing the knife he had prepared for the occasion, plunged it into Wright's breast. The blow severed an artery of the heart, and he died almost instantly, exclaiming only, "My God! what have you done?"

Miller was arrested and taken to Yaquina City for preliminary examination, and W. R. Bilyeu, of this city, went over as attorney for the defense. The prisoner will no doubt be taken to Corvallis to-day to await trial before the next term of circuit court.

EUGENE CITY ITEMS.

EUGENE, May 7. Mr. W. J. Ribelin, of Halsey, was in Eugene last week on his way to the Blue River mines. Mr. R. is confident that he has discovered some very rich ledges about seven miles above the mouth of the Blue.

The young men's republican club held its first regular meeting Saturday evening. It now has a membership of about 115. Addresses were made by Judge Geo. S. Washburne, S. W. Condon, A. C. Woodcock and W. L. Waxter.

A very hard fight is being made by Mr. L. Bilyeu, democratic candidate for county clerk, and the democratic party against Joel Ware, republican nominee, who has held the office for 18 years. It is claimed by Mr. Ware's opponents that he has, without any authority, been filing the assessor blanks, thereby putting the county to an expense of about $400 per annum, and that he has also failed to publish the semi-annual reports of the treasurer, thereby making himself amenable to the law. The contest will not be settled except by the ballots of Lane county's voters.

The laurean society of the state university held its last open session for this school year at their hall Saturday evening. The senior class alone debated. Many visitors were present and all seemed to spend an enjoyable evening.

A recent decision practically settles the question that the court house block in Pendleton may be sold and the new court house built on another block. The case will probably be appealed.

Klamath County Star: Uncle Billy Roberts, who was arrested upon a charge of an assault with intent to kill was examined in Linkville last week and acquitted, the evidence showing that he was the assaulted party.

H. Hosford's store at Canby burned down last week at an estimated loss of $4500, building inclusive. It is rumored to have been the work of an incendiary, by boring holes through the wall and pouring coal oil through to start the fire.

Ochoco Review: S. J. Newsome has erected the first water works in Prineville. He has built a cistern on the hill north of town capable of holding 100,000 gallons of water which he supplies by means of a wind pump from a well on the Ochoco. The cistern is about 800 feet from the well and the water is raised nearly 100 feet. From this cistern Mr. Newsome intends to irrigate a garden and orchard on the hillside, which is free from frost and where he can grow all classes of tender vegetables. This spring he put out 2500 strawberry plants, which are thriving well and promises to yield considerable fruit this season.

Who is Your Best Friend?

Your stomach of course. Why? Because if it is out of order you are one of the most miserable creatures living. Give it a fair, honorable chance and see if it is not the best friend you have in the end. Don't smoke in the morning. Don't drink in the morning. If you must smoke and drink, wait until your stomach is through with breakfast. You can drink more and smoke more in the evening and it will harm you less. If your food ferments and does not digest right—if you are troubled with heartburn, zizziness of the head, coming up of the food after eating, Billiousness, Indigestion, or any other trouble of the stomach, you had best use Green's August Flower, as no person can use it without immediate relief.
