WANT TO TAP GOOSE LAKE.

A scheme to irrigate Modoc County Can They Take Oregon Waters?

A scheme is on foot to tap Goose Lake, which is partly in Oregon and partly in California, with a ditch thirty feet wide on the bottom and four and one-half feet deep, and to use the water for irrigating lands in Modoc county, California. The entire system of irrigating ditches will cost about $50,000, and it is calculated that the use of this water will, by bringing into use lands now worthless double the population of Modoc county and increase the value of taxable property there a million dollars. Residents around the lake are opposed to the tapping of it, fearing that the water will be materially lowered and that climatic changes will be worked in its vicinity thereby. Those interested in the scheme claim that as the surface area of the lake is about 240 square miles the proposed canal will not lower the water to any great extent. This, however, can only be told after the experiment has been tried.

The lakes in that section are peculiar. The town of Lakeview, Oregon, was once on the shore of this lake at its northern extremity; but is now several miles from it. Either through the drying up of the lake or as some claim by the raising of the land. Whether the residents around the Oregon half of the lake will have any recourse if this ditch drains the lake, as it is likely to do to a large extent, at all events, remains to be seen. The question of riparian rights as to streams is pretty well settled as far as California is concerned, but whether the law will apply to such bodies of water as Goose lake, especially where the lake lies in two states, is difficult to say.

Warner lake, which lies some distance east of Goose lake, appears from the maps to be a considerable body of water, but it is in fact only a swamp of marshes across which arroyos or dry lines last summer and set stakes at every section. In the whole so-called lake is only one small sheet of shallow water. Inside of what was given on early surveys as the shore line of this lake are now whole sections of dry land, on which settlers are located. If this dried up sag of water could be drained it would make many square miles of fertile soil. Should the ditch mentioned above drain a portion of Goose lake, which is believed to be shallow, a large tract of good land might be some fit for settlement, which would compensate for the loss of water, but this would probably not suit those settled along the borders of the lake as it now exists. The outcome of this matter will be watched with much interest, especially by the settlers around the Oregon half of it.

POSTAL TELEGRAPH.

A Telegraph President Speaks.

Dr. Norvin Green, President of the Western Union Telegraph Company, appeared before the House Committee on Postoffices to present some facts upon the subject of the telegraphic system of the country. He addressed himself to the Hopkins bill to establish a postal telegraph. Such an enactment would be, he said, a monstrous wrong. If the Government contemplated a telegraph business was there any proper way to do but to take existing property and pay for it? The remarks he said, were made with a view to selling the Western Union to the Government. The Government did not need a telegraph. The Western Union did not want to sell, but its business was the only proper basis on which the Government could go into the telegraph business. I would take all existing properties and do the business exclusively.

GENERAL NEWS.

Sensational Developments by a Dying Negro Rioter.

MANY INSURGENTS IMPRISONED.

The Queen of the Pacific Was Sunk by Some Malignant Person—Roscoe Conkling's Will—Coast Notes.

The Herald's Special Dispatches.]

MONTGOMERY, Ala., May 9.—Emerson Shepard, the negro who was shot in a riot with a sheriff's posse last Thursday, before dying revealed an alleged plot of the leaders in the Lowndes county riot. He states that Friday last was the time appointed to massacre whites. Meetings were held by lodges to raise money to purchase ammunition to kill the whites if they attempted to arrest the negroes. The principal negro engaged in the plot was Bob Robinson, president of the meeting. Neil Mangum, secretary and treasurer, was also deeply implicated. They claim to have large societies throughout the United States who have resolved to avenge their fallen comrades and protect their color as well as their life. The negro claims that Lowndes, Crenshaw and other counties have the largest clubs and they are fully compelled to do their duty. They say they have endured the mistreatment by the whites long enough, and propose to put an end to it, or there will be bloodshed. All members of lodges were notified by the leaders that if they failed to be present at the meeting Friday night and do their duty in the proposed massacre of the whites they would be put to death. Forty-eight of the negroes engaged in the riot have been arrested and jailed. The sheriff's posse and state troops seem to have put an end to the trouble for the present, but another outbreak is liable to come sooner or later.

The Queen of the Pacific.

SAN FRANCISCO, May 9.—Ex-Governor Perkins, of Goodall, Perkins & Co., made an examination of the Queen of the Pacific this morning, and after closely questioning the officers and crew, decided that the vessel was sunk solely by the water which passed through the ten-inch dead light. Gov. Perkins said that the company was satisfied that the dead light was opened by some maliciously disposed person, not with the intention of sinking the ship, but to cause trouble for Captain Alexander, owing to a difficulty which the captain had with the sailors some time ago.

Not an Exhibition.

WASHINGTON, May 9.—The father of Cora Belle Fellows, who was recently married to Chaska, a Sioux, said that the story sent from St. Paul yesterday that the newly married couple had accepted $50,000 for a ten weeks' engagement in a fine museum is an outrageous lie. Some think the museum manager proposed to exhibit a bogus Mr. and Mrs. Chaska.

New Chieftain Wanted.

WINNEPEG, May 9.—The Call, an organ of the tory party, declares that ex-president Norquay does not voice the sentiments of the Manitoban Tories in supporting that clause of the Quebec resolutions which advises commercial unity with the United States. It therefore calls for a provincial convention to elect a new party chieftain.

Georgia Prohibitionists.

ATLANTA (Ga.), May 9.—The state temperance convention before adjourning passed resolutions to make a general prohibition contest in the elections for the legislature this fall. Prohibition candidates will be nominated in every county and pledged to vote for a statutory prohibition law, instead of leaving the question to a vote of the people.

Delegates to the National Convention.

ATLANTA (Ga.), May 9.—The state democratic convention met here at noon to-day to select delegates to the St. Louis convention. Cleveland's tariff policy will be strongly endorsed.

Condition Unchanged.

BERLIN, May 9.—The emperor passed a fairly satisfactory night. His strength has increased and the discharge of pus lessened.

Bou langer Elected.

PARIS, May 9.—In the municipal election in Hazore-en-Gen. Boulanger was chosen by a spontaneous vote. He also received heavy votes in several other communes.

Will of Roscoe Conkling.

UTICA, May 9.—The will of the late Roscoe Conkling was probated to-day. He bequeathed all of his property to his wife and her heirs, and appoints her sole executrix.

Sentenced to San Quentin.

SAN FRANCISCO, May 9.—Chas. R. Battman, convicted yesterday on a charge of arson in setting fire to the British bark Brussels, was sentenced to-day to thirty-five years' imprisonment at San Quentin.

CUTTING'S DEBTS.

Men Who Are Out of Pocket on His Account.

El Paso (Tex.) Corr. Globe-Democrat.
The virtual closing of the noted Cutting imbroglio with Mexico by the recent reply of Senator Mariscal to Secretary Bayard has created no astonishment here, but was the cause of some disappointment to various persons to whom Cutting was heavily indebted, and who expected to be reimbursed whenever he should get his indemnity from Mexico, which he assured them was certain to come. As the matter now stands they will hardly ever be reimbursed. Among the number was Consul Brigham, stationed in Paso Del Norte during the Cutting excitement, but now United States Consul at Kingston, Jamaica. He indorsed one of Cutting's notes, which afterward went to protest. Another person losing heavily is Judge W. G. Lane, formerly of New Orleans and now agent of the Louisiana State Lottery in El Paso. He actively befriended Cutting after the latter got out of his Mexican dungeon, and readily advanced money for various schemes started by the erratic El Paso editor. He also signed jointly with Consul Brigham one of Cutting's notes, which went to protest, and the amount of which was collected from Judge Lane by the Sheriff.

Cutting made his advent into Paso Del Norte first as manager of a chicken ranch, the money to start which had been furnished by a clerk in the Mexican Central Railroad office named Turner. This enterprise ended in complete failure, and then Cutting told Turner if he would start him once more in the newspaper business he would make money and fame enough for both. Turner bought for him a printing outfit, on which for a few months the El Paso Daily Bulletin was printed, and when it stopped for want of patronage Cutting removed the material across the river and sold half of it to the son-in-law of a prominent banker and politician, with whom he commenced the publication of the Centinela, half Spanish and half English. An article on the English side violently abusing a rival editor in Paso Del Norte and Cutting's subsequent arrest brought on the imbroglio. The Centinela still appears as an ultra-Administration organ. Clerk Turner removed to San Diego, Cal., considerably out of pocket.

A Busy Court.

The Mormons Furnishing Work for the Judiciary.

OGDEN (U. T.), May 9.—The May term of the First District Court opened Monday forenoon, Judge H. P. Henderson presiding. Interesting proceedings are looked for bearing upon the future solution of the Mormon question. The calendar for this term is unprecedentedly long, already containing over 200 cases. The Grand Jury will possibly duplicate this number.

On the criminal calendar are forty-six cases for the various phases of the Mormon crime. Some of these implicate one individual on several indictments on different counts. Judge Henderson's hands will be full. It is rumored that the Judge will soon retire from the bench to return to Lansing, Mich., to resume his law practice. He has made an excellent record by his conservative though vigorous enforcement of the laws, especially in polygamy cases.

FASHION FANCIES.

Green of every shade is the fancy of the hour. You can't have too much of it.

London sanctions for street wear long veils of gray gauze tied in a big bow under the chin.

Coat sleeves are still worn, but the skin-tight sausage roll variety so long rampant has given away to an easier shape.

Bridal tea gowns are of India silk with fronts of cream lace, which also shows in an opening at the back of the skirt.

Vests of gray surah, with Watteau embroidery, are worn in Paris on the street under coats of fine black or suede wool.

The favorite wide-brimmed hat introduced by the milliners this season is a copy in shape of the hat worn by the Portuguese peasant women.

Full sleeves come more and more in fashion, and among shapes the leg of mutton is the one oftener chosen, especially for lace or other thin stuffs.

Pleasant Journalistic Amities.

Our friend, the McMinnville Reporter, compliments our literary style by copying word for word our standing campaign offer, substituting of course its own name. It is able even to parallel our statement that ours is the only steam press in the county. The Reporter is a good paper, and shows good taste in its literary selections.—Benton Leader.

Thanks, brother, same to you. The article referred to met our idea exactly. Wherever you find anything in the Reporter that will save paper and pencil, snatch 'em, my boy, she's yours.—McMinnville Reporter.
