Burkhart & Kenney sold yesterday to Mr. E. D. Underwood, of Iowa, 8 1/2 acres near Shedd owned by F. H. Klinehart; consideration $2500. Mr. Underwood is a practical farmer and has brought several head of well fed Holstein cattle from his stock farm in Iowa.

Dr. Maston's Waverly Fruit Farm. Dr. G. W. Maston exhibited to us last evening a plot of his fruit farm, which displays good taste and judgment in its design.

The tract of land is cut up into from two to eight acre lots, convenient and comfortable. This has been done, first, that purchasers can find a lot of the size to suit, and, second, it is the doctor's primary object to sell to parties who will cultivate these lots and plant them to fruit. The soil is admirably adapted to fruit culture and will no doubt in the near future yield an abundance of all kinds of fruit.

The tract of land is situated within one mile of the city limits. The surface is undulating, with natural slopes and divides, and a most desirable place for a home. The plot above-mentioned will be placed on file to-day at the court house and regularly recorded. Several of the real estate firms in the city are authorized to sell these lots at reasonable figures, or purchasers can apply at once to Dr. Maston, who will be ready at all times to negotiate.

Young Miller Waives Examination. At the preliminary trial of Henry Miller, for the murder of Elmer Wright, Sunday last, near Yaquina, attorney W. R. Blyden, of Albany, appeared for the defendant, who waived examination and was committed to the custody of the sheriff to await the action of the grand jury. Young Miller was taken to Corvallis yesterday morning. The remains of Elmer Wright were taken to Newport for burial.

Rosette Arrived. In Justice Humphrey's court yesterday morning, J. B. Roselle, charged with assaulting Daniel Harlow, his son-in-law, with a knife, was discharged for want of evidence.

ALBANY BOARD OF TRADE

The Organization Effected at the Meeting Last Night—The Constitution.

Pursuant to the action taken at the recent meeting of citizens for the purpose of organizing a Board of Trade in this city a meeting was held at the G. A. R. hall last evening.

The meeting was well attended by business men and citizens generally, and was called to order by the chairman, Judge J. C. Powell.

The first business was the report of the committee appointed to draft the constitution and by-laws, which report was read.

The object of the organization of the Board of Trade is set forth in the preamble of the constitution, in these words: "To more effectually promote and develop the commercial and business interests of the city of Albany and vicinity," which will include judicious advertising of the city abroad, and the encouragement of immigration and manufacturing interests.

The constitution provides that regular meetings of the Board of Trade shall be held on the third Monday of each month. The membership fee were fixed at $3.00 each, and the dues at $1.00 each per month. Any person 21 years of age, who is engaged in a lawful business in the city or vicinity can become a member.

Dr. G. W. Maston moved that the report of the committee, which had drafted and presented the constitution and by-laws, be adopted, and the question was discussed by C. E. Wolverton, W. C. Cassell, J. H. Burkhart, the chairman, Judge Powell, N. H. Allen, L. E. Blain, W. E. Turrell, L. Vierick, G. W. Maston and others.

C. E. Wolverton moved to amend, placing the membership fee at $10 instead of $3, which prevailed. The question of the adoption of the constitution and by-laws was then adopted.

G. W. Maston moved that the motion fixing the initiation fee at $10 be reconsidered. After a spirited debate the vote was reconsidered, and on motion of N. H. Allen the fee was placed at $5. L. Vierick moved that a committee of three be appointed on membership.

W. C. Cassell thought the matter ought to be left to the old committee. The motion was withdrawn and the committee already appointed was constituted a committee to solicit membership, to report at a future meeting, the time of such meeting to be fixed by the committee.

On motion the meeting adjourned.

THE WRECKED BENTLY.

She is Successfully Raised and Taken to Portland for Repairs.

The steamer N. S. Bently was towed down the river and taken to Paquet's boat yard at East Portland. The hull has been repaired, and the vessel is in fair order. The machinery of the Bently is at the Pacific dock while her boilers are at Paquet's yard. It is expected that the machinery will be replaced in a few days, and then the Oregon Pacific will put the Bently on the upper river again. It will be remembered that last winter the Bently ran on a snag in the Upper Willamette, which tore a hole in her sixty feet long. This resulted in sinking the Bently. It was only after a great deal of trouble that the vessel was raised. The machinery was taken out, and now the vessel follows it. It will not be long now ere the Bently will be plowing the waters of the Willamette.

THE NEW HOTEL.

Opening of the Hotel Built by Alex Cunningham for Mrs. Murray.

Last evening the new hotel just completed by Alex Cunningham on First street, below Lyon, which has been leased to Mrs. Murray was opened with a social party. A large number were present, and the occasion was an enjoyable one. An elegant supper was served by Mrs. Murray, who for many years was proprietor of the Exchange Hotel, and has gained a deserved popularity.

The building is a two story structure and is well arranged, and is a real ornament to that part of the street.

It is needless to add that in the management of the hotel Mrs. Murray will be assisted by her son James Murray, who has the reputation of being one of the most genial hotel men in the country.

Big Strawberries.

This office is in receipt of a fine box of strawberries from Wallace & Thompson, which are undoubtedly the largest, and finest ever shipped to Albany. They received 500 large boxes from Southern Oregon. They are genuine whoppers, measuring nearly a foot around the waist and are so big that a very few of them will fill a gallon bucket.

Contract Let.

The May term of the county court convened yesterday. The contract for constructing the rock road across Beaver creek was let to Jesse South for $495. The bids stood as follows:

H. M. Stone, $545; Johnson White, $495; F. M. Smith, $650; Jesse M. Smith, $495; M. Riland, $490; A. D. Monser, $620; C. L. Kreitzer, $690, which was changed to $540. Mr. Smith's contract embraces some extra work.

Fatal Concentrated Lye.

A 2-year-old child of John Deringer drank a small quantity of concentrated lye yesterday afternoon, with which its mother was engaged in washing the sink. Dr. Maston was called, and all possible assistance was rendered, but late last night little traces were entertained of the child's recovery.

A new invoice of British trionomials at Read's.

STATE DISPATCHES.

The "Favorite" of Astoria Touches a Sand-Bar at Yaquina, But Floats Off Safely.

Special to the Herald. YACHTING CITY, May 9.—A vessel supposed to be the small steamer "Favorite," of Astoria, bound for Siuslaw, is on the bar blowing a whistle of distress. She is supposed to be on the North reef.

LATER.—The steamer "Favorite," from Astoria, ran on a sand bank this morning, and floated off on the tide. She is now lying at Newport all safe.

THE W. C. T. U. CONVENTION.

EGGERS CITY, May 9.—The state association of the W. C. T. U. will close the exercises with an address by Rev. Alfred C. Kummer. The time thus far has been largely taken up with reports from sub-organizations. Mrs. A. R. Riggs last evening delivered an earnest address, which was attentively listened to.

NOT AS IT SHOULD BE.

Some Matters in the City Council Chamber Which Need Attention.

At almost any meeting of the city council is presented a scene which would set an average stranger vigorously thinking. The deliberations of the city fathers are always of sufficient importance to cause the presence of a few citizens, who perhaps have an especial interest in some particular measure before the council, but aside from the seats at the table for the use of the members there are scarcely any accommodations for outsiders, not even a table for the scribblers of the press.

At the last meeting two newspaper reporters were industriously writing down the deliberations of the aldermen, one using the stove for a table, and the other on a pile of papers across his knees. The city surveyor was propped up in a corner without a chair, standing alternately upon one foot then another, in order not to become entirely exhausted before he could make his report in the latter part of the evening and escape, while two or three outsiders were seated on the window sill, where they sat on the ragged edge of despair until they grew too tired to sit any longer and went home.

These scenes have been repeated at successive meetings of the council, until it is now a time that the evil be remedied. The council chamber ought to be enlarged, or a new one procured, and a few more seats and a table or two for the use of the dear public.

SALMON CATCH IMPROVING.

The take of salmon down the Columbia is reported to be improving a little, especially near the mouth of the river, where the catch is, as a cannerman says, from three to seven or ten per boat. The price paid for fish is $1, and $1 25 to men who own their own outfit, and fishermen are making $3 50 to $4 per day, and as soon as the fish begin to run in earnest they will probably make $7 or $10.

Cannery men complain that large numbers of boats and nets are lying idle for want of men. It is said that owing to circulars sent out by the Fishermen's Union, but few fishermen have come up from California this season, and in consequence there are not fishermen enough to man half the boats on the river.

Another man says that there are boats enough to catch all the fish, and what is the use of bringing a lot of Dagoes here to beat boarding houses and divide the profits of the fishery with people who are citizens of the state. There are diverse opinions on most subjects, but there are subjects about which one can find so many different ideas as about the fisheries on the Columbia.

REPUBLICAN SPEAKING.

It is announced that Hon. J. D. Lee will address the citizens of the following places at the following times, on the political issues of the day:

For Treasurer—Johnson M. Porter, 159; John Linger, 104.

For Recorder—Wayman St. Clair, 231; M. L. Pipes, 41.

For Alderman, 1st ward—J. O. Wilson, 85; no opposition.

For Alderman, 2nd ward—B. R. Job, 77; Andrew Ewrick, 14.

For Alderman, 3rd ward—J. R. Bryson, 83; no opposition.

New Agricultural Implement House.

C. H. Dood & Co., of Portland, have opened an agricultural implement house in the old St. Charles hotel, placing Mr. E. Thurl in charge of the same, and will in a few days have things arranged with a full line of goods and be prepared to compete for the season's trade. Samples are already in position.

The Water Supply.

"You will never miss the water 'Till the well runs dry."

If you want a well dug call on E. B. Davidson. He does prompt work at a reasonable price. Orders can be left at this office.

Political Speaking.

Hon. Lish Applegate, the well known war horse of the republican party, will address the voters of Albany and vicinity on Tuesday May 14. He will also speak at Harrisburg on Monday, May 12.

For your fine imported and Rev. West cigars, go to M. Baumgart's cigar store, one door east of black man's drug store.

TO DRUM FOR CHAMPIONSHIP.

Major Hendershott Accepts a Challenge from an Idaho Man—the Contest.

It is very likely that there will be a great drumming contest in Portland at an early date—not a contest over how much goods can be sold by men on the road, but drumming on drum heads. If the match comes off it will be between Major R. H. Hendershott, "the drummer boy of the Kappahanock" and George Elston, of Bellevue, Idaho. The drummer boy of the Kappahanock is now a large and rather old boy, but his hand has not lost its cunning, and he is able to-day, as he was twenty-five years ago, to arouse among soldiers their lightning spirit with the roll of the drum.

In 1867, at Crosby's opera house, in Chicago, he won the championship of the United States as a drummer in a contest with Wm. Norton and thirteen others, and has held it ever since. In late years he has received and accepted several challenges to take from him that distinction, but the would-be-champions failed to come to time. Elston, however, seems to be in earnest, and his friends at Bellevue are very anxious to have him meet Hendershott. He has sent a challenge and Hendershott has accepted. The latter will insist that the contest be held in Portland, and thinks the next Fourth of July would be a good time, as the regimental armory a good place for holding it.

Major Hendershott after traveling all over the United States, has come to the conclusion that Oregon suits him better than any other state. He has bought a fruit farm near Ashland and will become a Webfoot. As he remarked to an Oregonian reporter: "There will be one solid republican vote added to Oregon's population."—Oregonian.

Who is Your Best Friend?

Your stomach of course. Why? Because if it is out of order you are one of the most miserable creatures living. Give it a fair, honorable chance and see if it is not the best friend you have in the end. Don't smoke in the morning. Don't drink in the morning. If you must smoke and drink wait until your stomach is through with breakfast. You can drink more and smoke more in the evening and it will harm you less. If your food ferments and does not digest right—if you are troubled with heartburn, dizziness of the head, coming up of the food after eating, Billiousness, indigestion, or any other trouble of the stomach, you had best use Green's August Flower, as no person can use it without immediate relief.
