GENERAL NEWS.

The Flood Along the Mississippi Abating Slowly.

FIFTY MILLION DOLLAR FERGUSY

Death of Mrs. Sawyer—The Grain Supply—Six Men Indicted for Murder at Louisville, Ky.

The Herald's Special Dispatches. QUINCY, Ill., May 21.—The flood in Mississippi is slowly abating and it is thought that the worst is over. A trip through the submerged district shows that the reports of loss and suffering have not been exaggerated. Over 550,000 acres of the richest farming lands in the state are covered with water from six to ten feet deep. Damage to farms, mills and railroad property has been enormous. The aggregate will reach $3,000,000 on crops alone. Damage to levees, houses and railroads will approximate $600,000. Much sickness prevails among the people, who have been driven from their homes by the floods, owing to want and exposure. Measures have, however, been taken to alleviate their sufferings.

THE KENTUCKY MURDER.

SIX Men Indicted for the Killing of J. C. Everson.

LOUISVILLE (Ky.), May 21.—At Hazard, Perry county, B. F. French and six others have been indicted for the killing of J. C. Everson six weeks ago. Everson was shot from ambush. His murder was the result of a feud between himself and French of four years standing, during which at one time factions occupied opposite ends of town a hundred strong and heavily armed. It was settled at the time but soon broke out again.

Presbyterian Assembly.

PHILADELPHIA, May 21.—In the Presbyterian general assembly this morning the report of the committee on the question of organic union with the Southern church was made the second order of the day for Friday, May 25th. The report of the standing committee on mission for the freedmen showed the receipts from the churches amounted to $182,000. The report showed a very satisfactory condition of the work among freedmen.

Committee Meeting.

WASHINGTON, May 21.—At a meeting of the ways and means committee this morning it was agreed between the majority and minority that the house should not enter upon the consideration of the tariff bill for amendment before Wednesday, if then, action after that day depending upon the result of the republican convention to-morrow night.

Supposed to be Forgery.

WASHINGTON, May 22.—A $50,000 bonds offer was accepted Friday and due notice has been delivered to the treasury department. The offer was made in the name of a well known Philadelphia firm, and accepted in good faith. The investigation now in progress will, it is thought, show that the offer was bogus and the signatures a forgery.

Visible Grain Supply.

New York, May 21.—Following is the visible supply of grain May 19th: Wheat, 20,022,000 bushels; corn, 6,900,000 bushels; oats, 4,518,000 bushels; rye, 361,000; barley, 483,000 bushels.

Death of Mrs. Sawyer.

WASHINGTON, May 21.—Mrs. Sawyer, wife of Senator Sawyer, of Wisconsin, died this morning. Mrs. Sawyer has been an invalid many years.

Skipped to Canada.

PETERSBURG, May 21.—Peter J. Quinn, bookkeeper for Chris Dixon & Co., contractor, who has been missing several days, is short in his accounts about $1500. It is believed he has gone to Canada.

The Boston of the West.

Tid-Bits. "You'd be surprised if you'd come out to Tucson and spend a month," said an Arizona real estate man who had been invited to dinner by a Boston capitalist. "Why, sir, Tucson comes higher than Boston than any other town I ever struck, and I've been on the go ever since I was knee-high to a duck. Yes, sir, Tucson is running over full of cash and refinement. We're death on our heels there. It's a langed hardmaster for any of your common trash to get a foothold up an A 1 community. I know so n a y as forty saloon-keepers that kin talk in three langwidges, and when it comes to style, we don't fiddle for nobody to dance. You bring your wife and some out to Tucson and spend a month, and you'll be in a fine fix. If ever John comes out our way, our folks'll carry him round on their shoulders. Yes, they will! They're just Bostonians enough to do that very identical thing. That's what they are."

A Memphis Scheme for a New State.

Memphis (Tenn.) Avalanche. Tennarkalannis, the finest State in the Union, could be made up from West Tennessee, North Alabama, North Mississippi and East Arkansas. With the big bridge the river would not be in the way of incorporating the State. In the territory we have named there are more and stronger ties of relationship and of communion of interest than between the parts of any other Southern State. The climate and the soil are much the same. The social and commercial ideas of the people are alike. In nothing do they differ. For a Memphis to be intruded to the Mississippi, to Arkansas, or to Alabama, is a greater crime than to be intruded to Tennessee. Of all this broad section, which has produced more than its share, territory considered, of the great men of the South, Memphis is the natural center, the social and commercial metropolis.

AT WASHINGTON.

The Firm Opposition to the Mills Bill From All Quarters.

TO REGULATE CONVICT LABOR.

Preparations for Memorial Services at the Tomb of Gen. John A. Logan on Decoration Day.

Special Correspondence. WASHINGTON, May 15.—Dictator Cleveland will be his title, if by a chain of accidents similar to those which elected him in 1884, he should be re-elected this year. He is already the autocrat of the democratic party. The democrat who refuses to obey his slightest nod is sent to the rear at once, no matter how high he may have stood with his party.

Samuel J. Randall, who has more than once saved the democratic party from going to pieces, incurred the ill will of the democratic boss, because he would not support the Mill's tariff bill. Cleveland sent out orders that Randall was to be disposed from the leadership of the democratic party in Pennsylvania. With the assistance of the federal offices in that state the orders were carried out to the letter.

But Cleveland is not yet satisfied. He wants to have Randall defeated for the nomination to the House. Cleveland's nearest friends openly boast of this sort of work, and say that he intends to send every man who refuses to vote for the Mill's tariff bill and that he also proposes to use the entire power of the administration to defeat their nomination for Congress.

Last week the President vetoed a public building bill for Allentown Pennsylvania, because, (it is stated) Mr. Snodgrass, who represents that district in the House, had refused to vote for the Mill's bill, and now his friends say that he has Mr. Snowden's defeat for re-nomination to Congress assured. These are not merely republican charges against Mr. Cleveland, they are the openly made boasts of his nearest friend and adviser. The country never before had but one President who descended to such politics, and that was Andrew Johnson. Let Cleveland beware of his fate.

Senators and Congress are to be given a public reception this week by the republican national league of this city.

The democrats of the House are in a terrible mood over this same Mill's tariff bill. They have caused several bills without being able to determine just what they will do. The last caucus decided that all who desired to offer amendments to the bill should first submit them to the democratic members of the ways and means committee for consideration, and report to another caucus. The result has been a deluge of amendments. The average member is willing to take away the last vestige of protection from some other member's district, but he wants all he can get for his own.

How they will settle the thing is hard to say, but one thing is quite sure, it would be absolutely impossible to pass the bill as reported from the committee, and it is doubtful if it can be tinkered up sufficiently to get the democratic vote of the House. The general debate on the bill has, by mutual consent, been extended to next Saturday.

The House committee on military affairs have made a favorable report on the bill authorizing the President to nominate for retirement with the full rank and regular pay of Major-General such ex-army officers now in civil life as were promoted from the grade of Major-General and commanded departments or divisions. The list of those affected by the bill is very small, and includes Generals Rosecrans, Schenck, McCauley, Palmer and Buell.

A bill has been introduced in the House to prevent convict labor from competing with organized labor. It provides that all convicts employed within the jurisdiction of the United States shall be employed at such labor as they may be best suited to perform, and semi-monthly shall be paid the same rate of compensation as is paid to organized labor in the locality where the convict is confined.

No convict is to be required to work more than eight hours a day. The bill carries with it an appropriation of $1,000,000, to be expended by the Secretary of the department of labor in giving it effect.

The Senate passed a bill forfeiting all unearned railroad land grants; also the international copyright bill; and quite a number of bills for public buildings. It has also ratified the Chinese treaty.

The $20,000,000 river and harbor bill passed the House by more than two-thirds majority.

Senator Voorhes finally concluded that he was indebted to the dignity of the Senate to the extent of an unqualified apology for his recent bad language, and paid the debt.

The nomination of Mr. Fuller to be Chief Justice of the United States is now in the hands of a sub-committee of the Senate committee on the judiciary, for investigation. Their report will probably be made inside of two weeks.
