All transient comrades and all old soldiers are invited to join with us in this token of respect to the memory of our dead comrades. By order of S. W. REESE, B. B. TABLER, Adjutant.

Candidates at Syracuse. The speaking of the candidates at Syracuse yesterday was not much different from the speeches of the day before. Mr. Curd's only argument against Mr. Williams for school superintendent was that Mr. Williams has been teaching 17 1/2 months in the same school, and he did not think any teacher could teach that long in one place and do his duty without making enemies. Such talk is too boyish to consider. Jeff Myers, who wanted to stump the county on the Hendrix K. of L. question, was surprisingly calm concerning the same. In a series of arguments the third party men consumed their time in telling stories. O. H. Irvine scored several unanswerable points on the tariff question.

Wedding Bells. At the Revere House parlors last evening Mr. N. L. Wright and Miss V. V. Alford, of Harrisburg, were united in marriage. Geo. Humphrey, J. P., officiating. The young couple will be the recipients of many congratulations.

THE CANDIDATES AT SCHO.

Sato, May 22.

After some discussion as to the division of time the candidates met in the old church and proceeded to discuss the issues of the campaign.

Mr. Blackburn was the first speaker introduced. He spoke about fifteen minutes and said that for the first two years of Mr. Whitney's term of office the tax levy had been far in excess of the needs of the county, that a surplus had been created which laid over in the bank so that for the third year the tax levy might be very light for county purposes.

Mr. Denny was next called for the prohibitionists and he spoke for some time on prohibition. Judge Whitney followed and attacked the Marion county officials, trying to show that they had been most criminally extravagant in their charges and that he was entitled to much credit because he had closely scrutinized the bills of the county officials thereby preventing them from making extravagant charges in their bills.

Mr. Irvine was introduced and stated that before beginning to speak he wished to make an apology to Mr. Myers. He said that yesterday he had stated that it was very evident from Mr. Myers speech that he had never read a law nor seen a law book. He had he said, upon reflection come to the conclusion that Mr. Myers had seen the outside of a law book. He therefore wished to apologize to Mr. Myers for his statement of yesterday.

He read a pledge that had been sent by Dr. Hendricks of Harrisburg to the candidates for the legislature and stated that he had reliable information that Mr. Miller and Mr. Myers had signed it and that those gentlemen could state before he proceeded if that was the fact. Mr. Miller stated that he had assented to part of it but would not say what part. Mr. Myers stated substantially the same. Mr. Irvine then proceeded to score the pledge and those gentlemen for assenting to it.

Mr. Goodman was next introduced and spoke for prohibition. Mr. Richardson was called and spoke a few minutes on the tariff and on his past record in the legislature. Mr. Morelock next took the floor and spoke about five minutes on the tariff.

Jeff Myers was called and spoke for a few minutes in answer to Mr. Irvine. He would not state what part of the pledge he had assented to but challenged Mr. Irvine to stump the county on the principles embodied in it.

Mr. Williams and Mr. Curd, told what they would do if elected School Supt. Mr. Curd criticized Mr. Williams by stating that no school teacher who did his duty could teach a school for any great length of time without making enemies. He, Mr. Curd showed very clearly by his talk that he did not know how to govern a school.

Mr. Conner and Mr. Smallman spoke for a few minutes in closing the discussion.

HELD TO ANSWER.

James Morgan, the Safe Robber. Held in $500 Bonds and Lodged in Jail.

James Morgan, who voluntarily gave himself up to the police in Portland, and confessed to having robbed the safe of Hoffman & Pfeiffer's store in this city, was arraigned in Justice Humphrey's court yesterday morning. He wanted to plead guilty, but when told that he could not do so at a preliminary examination, he said he did not want to make any statement.

He was bound over in $500 bonds in default of which he was lodged in jail. Before leaving Portland he said that he did not regret what he had done, considering that he has relieved his mind of a great load. He was employed about the store and he says that one morning when he came to begin his day's work he found a side door and the door of the safe open. He then took $65 and decamped. Morgan is of the opinion that some one entered the store and cracked the safe before his arrival.

CORPORAL TANNER.

A Chat with Him at the Revere House - He will Speak at the Opera House To-night.

Corporal James Tanner passed through the city yesterday en route to Corvallis, where he spoke last evening. He was seen at the Revere House by a HERALD reporter, and talked freely about the campaign in Oregon. He said he would remain in Oregon until after the election, and would go to San Francisco on the train with Col. Irish, and he hoped to be able to cheer him up some on the way down after the election. He expresses the firm belief that the farmers of Oregon will not vote for free trade at the ensuing election.

Corporal Tanner will speak at the band picnic in Powell's Grove, near Halsey, on Friday morning. The county candidates will be there that day, as well as Col. Irish, the latter speaking at night. He will speak at the opera house in this city to-night, and will doubtless be greeted by an immense audience, as he is said to be a most fluent and eloquent speaker.

Will Be Royally Entertained.

The following from the Salem Statesman shows that the firemen of this city will be well treated on the excursion Saturday: A meeting of the Salem Fire Department was held at Capital engine house last night, to consider the best method of reception of the visiting Albany firemen next Saturday. A committee of four, consisting of E. C. Cross, Wm. Armstrong, Walter Lowe, and Gus. Kaiser was appointed and empowered to make all arrangements. Fifty dollars was donated to the ladies of the W. C. T. U. to furnish dinner for the occasion.

The programme for to-day will be as follows: Morning Session "The Servants, Work Preparation, Plans and Performance," will occupy the thought of the convention, Reverend Houlton and Boyd of Portland and Hill of Eugene City, leading in the presentation.

A DOCTOR IN TROUBLE.

Dr. Gunderson on Trial for Administering Opium Without a Permit.

The case of the state of Oregon vs. Dr. O. Gunderson, formerly of Albany, now of Portland, for administering opium without a permit is on trial before Justice Bushwiler. The complaint was made by one Dr. Win. Eisen. A large number of physicians are in attendance on the trial as witnesses. The defendant claims to have administered the morphine in a serious case of gastric fever and by the advice of a consulting physician.

This is the first case tried under the new law requiring physicians to obtain a permit for the administering of opium. There seems to be considerable animus in the case. Dr. Gunderson may be a regular physician, but he is quite irregular in the payment of his bills, as several persons in this city have found out to their sorrow.

A Real Live Lord.

Lord Williams, son of Bishop of Dexter, all the way from "Merry England," who has been in this city for three weeks, the guest of W. R. Graham, John Briggs and W. C. Tweedale, left yesterday for Australia. He is many times a millionaire, and his castle in England has been in his family since the year 808. In spite of the fact that he was here nearly a month, not a single Albany girl fell in love with his title, in fact very few people know he was here, but he was a right good fellow and made no display.

Firemen's Parade.

A parade by the firemen, and outdoor concert by the Juvenile band will be given on Friday evening. It will take place on First street at 7:30 o'clock, and an invitation is extended to every one who wishes to witness it. The excursion boat will start the next morning at 7 o'clock.

Regimental Flags Received.

The three regimental flags ordered for the three regiments of Oregon national guards have been received by Adjutant-General Shofner. The flags of the First and Third regiments are at the armory, that of the Second having been forwarded to the commanding officer. The flags are uniform in every respect and very beautiful. They are of regulation size, are made of blue silk with the arms of the state embroidered in the center, with the regiment to which each belongs beneath. There will be no formal presentation of the flag of the First regiment. The ceremony prescribed in the tactics, that of escorting the colors to the head of the column, will be carried out on Decoration Day.

Joint Discussion.

Our correspondent at Roseburg sends us information that politics is livelier there than at any other point in Oregon. Douglas county is the headquarters of the third party movement, and so upon the arrival of Hon. J. W. Watts there last Tuesday, he was challenged through the republican central committee to a joint discussion. This the committee accepted, and next Friday evening it will take place. If there is a point in politics that the doctor is fully conversant with it is the third party question, and if his opponents are not completely "snowed under," it will be for the reason that they beat a retreat.

Your stomach, of course. Why? Because if it is out of order you are one of the most miserable creatures living. Give it a fair, honorable chance and see if it is not the best friend you have in the end. Don't smoke in the morning. Don't drink in the morning. If you must smoke and drink wait until your stomach is through with breakfast. You can drink more and smoke more in the evening and it will harm you less. If your food ferments and does not digest right, - if you are troubled with heartburn, dizziness of the head, coming up of the food after eating, biliousness, indigestion, or any other trouble of the stomach, you had best use Green's August Flower, as no person can use it without immediate relief.
