THE LEBANON BRANCH.

It is Reasonably Certain that the Proposed Extension Will Be Built.

We understand that information has been received from railroad officials that an engineer will soon be sent out to report on the proposed extension of the Lebanon branch to Sodaville. The numerous signed petition sent by business men of Albany reciting the benefits to our city and profits to the company by extending the road, had the desired effect, and now our citizens may with a degree of certainty look to Sodaville as a suburban pleasure and health resort to Albany. One hour by rail will place the pleasure seeker in Sodaville, where two cool, refreshing soda springs are deeded to the public, and one person has the same right to the water that another has. Another spring within the limits of the village will be opened during the summer for public use, and it required others will be prospected. We are authorized to say that ground will be donated to any person or denomination that will build a college thereon. The site offered overlooks the valley, and on a clear day Albany can be plainly seen from there. Two educators have already signified their intention of laying this project before their religious denominations. A college in as healthy a place as Sodaville and as prominent a place as is offered would advertise Linn county far and near. Some organization will accept the generous offer, and that soon.

Aquina bay with its beautiful ocean scenery, delicious fish of all kinds and magnificent harbor on one side and Sodaville with its health-giving mineral springs, bracing breeze and unequalled landscape extending from the heights of the village twenty miles over the valley to the north, with Albany between the two and railroad communication direct, please tell us why Albany will not be a city in spite of herself. The road to San Francisco in one direction and Portland in the opposite represents both the substantial and the luxuries, as the tariff men would say. The business men of Albany may some day expect to have suburban residences in Sodaville, and come to Albany each morning and after business hours in the evening return their families in Sodaville. Albany is the town of the Willamette valley, and Sodaville will be a feeder soon. An excursion from Albany to the Soda Springs on a hot day would not be bad.

AN IMPORTANT EVENT.

The semi-centennial of the First Presbyterian church of Oregon territory (when it embraced what is now both Washington territory and the state of Oregon) will be observed in the city of Walla Walla, W. T., and at Whitman's grave with imposing ceremonies, on the fiftieth anniversary, August 17 to 19, 1888. Out of the original church, organized at Wallilatpu (Whitman Station), have grown the large Indian Presbyterian churches of Washington and Idaho territories, numbering over 700 members.

The following speakers have signified their intention of being present to participate in the exercises: Rev. A. L. Lindsley, D. D., San Francisco; Rev. F. E. Ellinwood, D. D., secretary board of foreign missions, N. Y.; Rev. Wm. Irwin, D. D., secretary board of home missions, N. Y.; W. S. Holt, retired foreign mission; Portland, Or.; Rev. W. H. Landon, D. D., pastor, Calvary church, Portland, Or.; Rev. David Burrell, D. D., pastor Western church, Minneapolis, Minn.; Rev. J. Thompson, D. D., Corvallis, Or.; Rev. Myron Wells; Rev. John K. Thompson, Vancouver, W. T.; Dr. W. C. McKay, Pendleton, Or.; Rev. Thomas M. Boyd, Pendleton, Or. A full and detailed programme will be issued in due time. The occasion promises to be one of widespread interest among the old residents of the Pacific Northwest.

Improving the Canal.

John A. Crawford returned yesterday from the head of the Santiam canal, where a force of 16 men have been at work for more than two weeks extending the wing-dam in the Santiam river so as to increase the volume of water in the canal during the summer season. The water supply had been short, but the work done has had the effect of causing the canal to run full, supplying an abundance of water. A large quantity of timbers and 1000 tons of dirt and gravel was put on the wing-dam.

The New Salem Depot.

Engineers of the Oregon & California were yesterday morning engaged in laying off the grounds for the new depot. The location will be just south of the old one, and the thoroughfare through the depot grounds, which has been used for a number of years, will be closed up. Teams coming and going on the Turner road will possibly have to reach State street by means of the street running just west of the old Luther Myers place. However, arrangements may be made by which a new road may be opened up around the proposed new depot. Work on the new building will be begun immediately. —Salem Statesman.

A New Rule.

The Southern Pacific railroad company has given notice that on assuming control of O. & C. line on June 5th, no freight will be received from the Oregon Pacific and O. R. & N. line unless the charges are prepaid. This, unless the order is modified will virtually prevent any freight from either lines being transferred to the O. & C., as the freight charges can usually only be collected at the point of destination. It will work a hardship on shippers as well as these transportation lines.

THE FIREMEN'S TOURNAMENT.

And Fire Matters in General—The Board of Delegates—The Albany Team.

It seems that changing the firemen's tournament from Portland to Seattle, has stirred up a hornet's nest in the banner city. The fact of the case, as near as we can learn from Mr. Hoffman, one of the directors, and from private correspondence, is about as follows: At a meeting of the Northwestern Firemen's Association, held in Vancouver last year, the place for holding the next tournament was left blank to be filled by the directors later. At the call of the directors the board met in Portland in September last and selected that city for the tournament for 1888, upon the representation of Portland parties that by doing so $3000 could be raised for prizes. However, when the board again met in that city on the 17th of last month, it was found that but $168.75 had been raised. The directors then gave them ten days additional time to raise $2000, that being $1000 less than was at first agreed upon. When the ten days had expired the subscription committee had not succeeded in raising but $498. At the first meeting of the board it was agreed that if Portland failed to raise the necessary amount—which she did—then it was to be held at Seattle. When the time had expired, and but one fourth of the required amount was raised, Mr. Kellogg telegraphed to the other directors that the necessary amount had been raised in Seattle, and accordingly, as before agreed upon, the directors announced that the next meeting of the association and tournament would be held there. The association will meet the 2nd and 3rd, and the tournament on the 4th, 5th and 6th of next month.

THE ALBANY REPRESENTATIVES.

The Albany hose team has decided to go, and the hook and ladder company will meet to-night to decide whether or not they will attend. The finance committee, consisting of W. R. Blain, W. E. Gillett and A. Ketchum, appointed by the board to canvass among our citizens for assistance, is meeting with excellent success, and no business man who has the good will of our volunteer department a heart should refuse to give them some assistance. The expenses of the trip will be heavy, and it is hardly right to ask the boys, who are taking so much interest in preparing themselves to successfully represent our department, to pay all of their own necessary expenses. The management has secured the best team ever organized in this city, and we have no doubt but that they will creditably acquit themselves in doing battle against the best teams in Oregon, Washington and Idaho, all of which will be at the tournament.

STONE AND TILE WORKS.

Mr. Hoffman Will be Associated with Portland Men to Carry on This Enterprise.

Mr. John Hoffman has returned from Portland, where he went to arrange for successfully carrying on his stone and tile manufacturing establishment in this city. Some Portland gentlemen, he says, who are connected with the cement and pipe works there, Messrs. Hipp & Ball, both wealthy men, will be up next week and will form a copartnership with Mr. Hoffman. They will put in a rock crusher and other machinery, and, having ample experience in this business, they will not make any failure this time. The pavement in front of Flinn's new block and the Odd Fellows temple will be replaced with stone that is warranted to stand. This work will be commenced next week.

Mr. Hoffman has some sample sewer pipe made by these gentlemen, which is proof of the success of their process. This establishment in this city will be quite an extensive one.

Main Shaft Injured.

Wednesday evening as the steamer Three Sisters was steaming up the river about three miles above Wheatland, at the lower end of McClosky's chute, it was discovered that her main shaft was badly cracked. Captain Coulter immediately turned her head to bank, where she was tied up, and he and a companion came on to Salem by land to secure some iron bands from Drake's foundry to temporarily repair the shaft. The boat will then be brought on to Salem. The Sisters started from Portland and had no passengers.

Letter From R. E. George.

In a letter received by Dr. G. W. Gray from Mr. R. E. George, who recently organized a musical convention in this city, he writes that he is on his way East after organizing conventions at Port Townsend and other places in Washington territory. He states that in no place was he better pleased than with his visit in Albany, and he returned in terms of warmest praise of this city and his chorus class here.
