JOININGS ABOUT TOWN.

For millinery at astonishing low figures call on Mrs. O'Connor.

Hon. Henry Cyrus and Frank Crabtree were in the city yesterday.

Rev. J. W. Harris has resigned the pastorate of the Salem Congregational church.

G. L. Blackman now carries the line of Forand and Votey pianos and organs.

Patronize home industry and try some of J. Joseph's Havana filled 5c cigars, the first of his own manufacture.

A good, gentle, family horse, buggy and harness, for sale at a bargain. Enquire at the office of Barkhart & Keeney.

Your school tax is now due and unless paid very soon will become delinquent. Pay the same before debts or collection are added.

The concert announced to be given by the M. E. church and congregation has been postponed until Friday, the 22d inst.

Call for the ice wagon. Francis Pfeiffer will deliver ice instantaneously to any part of the city. Order of the driver or at the store.

A patent medicine outfit on yesterday gave an open air concert on First street, giving some very fine music, both vocal and instrumental.

The Rev. Jesse C. Taylor will hold divine service in St. Peter's Episcopal church on Sunday, June 17, morning and evening. All are invited to attend.

Mrs. East's boarding house has been removed to two doors east of the Kuss House, where she is prepared to offer first-class board and lodging by the week or month.

Mr. McFarland will go up to the Sound country with Mr. Harvey, who is here at present, to try the effect of that climate upon his health. They will probably start on Monday.

At the Congregational church this morning the pastor will preach on the subject, "The Use and Abuse of the Tongue," and in the evening the course of sermons on Moses will be continued. All are cordially invited.

Keep on the flies by using screen doors and windows, manufactured and put in your house complete at a reasonable price, by R. B. Vunk. Shop on corner of Second and Ellsworth streets.

Julius Gradwohl desires farmers to call and examine his agricultural implements even if they do not buy. He charges nothing or showing goods, and farmers may learn something to their advantage concerning low prices.

4th of July. W. W. Crawford will give another one of those popular parties at the Lawson dancing academy on the evening of July 4, 1888. Musicians from Portland will be added to his justly celebrated orchestra. An elegant supper will be served and no pains will be spared to make this the grandest ball of the season.

FREE MATTERS.

Notes and Comments of the Coming Firm's Tournament.

C. W. Watts received a dispatch yesterday stating that round trip tickets to the tournament at Portland would be $3.90 from Albany.

The Lebanon Express says that the boys have received their splendid new race cart, and that they will attend the Portland tournament.

Besides the prizes given at Portland for horse races, there will also be prizes for two footraces. One for 10 yards and the other for 200 yards.

The city council at Spokane Falls at a regular meeting held last Friday night voted $4 00 to the local company to assist in paying their expenses to the Sea-Isleton team.

Such an amount is not needed by the team here, but an allowance of even $190 would be appreciated by the boys, and would not be begrudged by a single property owner.

It is said that the East Portland horse team for the tournament has six tool-racers in it, and that they claim to be able to "do" any other team in the state, and perhaps they can.

The rain has prevented the horse team from practicing for a week past. The boys amuse themselves with Indian clubs and dumb-bells at their "bowicks."

MEETING OF THE SCHOOL BOARD.

Teachers Engaged for the Next School Year.

The board of school directors met last night and elected the following corps of teachers for the ensuing school year:

Principal, G. A. Walker; assistants, Miss M. J. Morris, Miss Kate Price, Miss Lillie M. Robertson, Mrs. E. Thrall, Miss E. Wheeler and Miss Minnie McFarland.

They also passed the following preamble and resolution in relation to the too common practice of boys congregating on the school grounds and damaging the building by carelessness or intent:

WHEREAS, Numerous boys have from time to time during vacation congregated upon the school yard and used the same for playgrounds, and through carelessness or on purpose broken out window lights and done other damage to the property, and that the best interest of the district is that the same should not be used as a playground during vacation, therefore,

Resolved, That notice be given through the papers to all persons not to trespass on the school premises, and that the gateways be closed up.

Double Wedding at Mentor.

There was a double wedding at Mentor, the country home of the Garfields, in Ohio, yesterday, and the family of Mrs. Garfield is depleted by two in consequence.

Miss Molly Garfield, who is remembered by the picture of a young girl standing with bowed head by the death-bed at Elberon, goes to Europe on a bridal tour as Mrs. J. Stanley Brown, while Harry Garfield, the tall boy whom Guiteau's bullet summoned from college to his father's couch of suffering during that weary summer of 1881, is off for Northern New York with his bride. The nation to which the name of Garfield became so sadly familiar during that summer seven years ago, notes the happy event of yesterday with a passing interest and adds good wishes.—Portland Telegram.

Returns Thanks.

Mr. W. H. McFarland, who for some years has been one of the foremost business men of Albany, on account of ill health has retired from business. He desires us to extend his grateful appreciation for the liberal patronage and treatment that has always been accorded to him and expresses the earnest wish that the same may be hereafter extended to his successor, Mr. G. W. Smith, who took charge of the business on June 16. Mr. McFarland's accounts will be left in Mr. J. M. Irving's hands, who is authorized to receipt for all money paid and to settle accounts.

Albany to Win First Prize.

The Oregonian says: Joseph Webber, chief engineer of the Albany fire department, was in the city yesterday, talking over tournament matters with Jos. Meagher. Mr. Webber, who was one of the early chiefs of the Portland department, and is a fireman of renown, says Albany has the best horse team in the state, which is coming down to capture the first prize at the tournament. "That's all right," musically murmured Mr. Meagher, "if your boys win the money they will get it, and don't you forget it."

Dr. Jekyll and Mr. Hyde.

This great sensational drama will be produced at the opera house Monday night by the eminent English actor Mr. George M. Wood and his Sterling company, who have been playing throughout the Eastern states, meeting with the greatest success everywhere. Of this strong piece and the company presenting it.

In Insurance Vile.

Young Emnis, who was engaged in the altercation with Reed in the row at Schlosser's saloon, was taken before Squire Humphrey yesterday, and decided that he would stand trial instead of pleading guilty, as did Reed. The result was a $40 fine and costs, and both young men languish in the county jail in default of the payment of the fines.

Cow Lost.

A roland white cow, spotted, with two white feet, end of tail white, star in forehead, underslit in the ear, strayed away from the owner, H. Lampman. A reward will be paid for her recovery.

INSPIRING SCENES.

Pioneers and Masonic Corner Stone Laying in Portland.

Portland has been treated during the past week to scenes of inspiring interest connected with two organizations who have been holding meetings there—the Pioneers and Masonic fraternity.

The pioneers held a very enthusiastic meeting, undamped by the heavy rainfall of Friday, in the pavilion. Gen. E. L. Applegate delivered the oration, which was replete with interesting reminiscences. The election of officers resulted as follows: President, Joseph Wait, Amity, Oregon; vice-president, W. S. Ladd, Portland; secretary, G. H. Himes, Portland; directors: F. H. Mathew, Butteville; Wm. Savage, Sheridan; Wm. Elliott, Oregon City.

The event of more than usual interest connected with the Masonic fraternity was the laying of the corner stone of the new Industrial building by the Masonic grand lodge of Oregon. From the Portland press we glean some of the proceedings of the corner stone laying.

Mayor Van B. DeLashmunt, on behalf of the Industrial Association, made a formal request to the Masonic grand lodge to conduct the operations. Rev. J. R. N. Bell delivered an impressive prayer after which Grand Master Nasburg took charge of the proceedings. The impressive Masonic ritual used on these occasions was heard by a few on the platform, the large crowd being totally beyond reach of word or sign. However, the stone was tested with the plumb, the level and the square, and the workman were pronounced by the Grand Warden to have done their work well. Before the stone was finally laid a metallic casket was deposited in it, a cavity for that purpose having been provided.

ARTICLES IN THE CASKET.

The secretary announced that the casket contained the following articles:

List of officers, directors and stockholders of the North Pacific Industrial Association; copy of the invitation to ceremonies of the laying of the corner stone; map of the city of Portland, 1888; R. R. Polk & Co's directory of Portland, East Portland, Albina, Sellwood and Willsburg; copy of Oregon Spectator, February 5, 1846, the first number of the first paper published on the Pacific coast, presented by L. Samuel; copy of New Year's Morning Oregonian, 1888; copy of Evening Telegram, June 14, 1888; copy of Daily News, June 15, 1888; copy of the Albany Democrat, June 11, 1888; copy of West Shore containing views of Portland and portrait of Hon. Van B. DeLashmunt, Mayor of Portland, and President of the North Pacific Industrial Association; map of the cities of Portland, East Portland, Albina and Sellwood, presented by Eugene D. White; Masonic Grand Lodge proceedings for 1887; constitution and proceedings of the Oregon Pioneer Association, 1873 to 1887, inclusive; message of the mayor of Portland and reports of municipal officers for the year ending December 31, 1887; roster of First Regiment, O. N. G.; constitution and by-laws of Arlington Club and complete list of members; minutes of Congregational Association of Oregon and Washington, 1887; nineteenth annual catalogue of St. Helen's hall scholastic year, ending June 14, 1888; constitution of the Oregon Alpine Club and complete list of its members; constitution and by-laws of Portland Volunteer Firemen's Association and programme of its first annual ball; nineteenth annual report of the Portland Y. M. C. A. and complete list of members; photograph of Morrison street bridge with date of opening and list of officers; fifty dollars in continental money of 1799, presented by J. E. McLaughlin; one cent of 1859, presented by Fred Revers; English coin of 1775, presented by Mrs. C. Revers; catalogue Bishop Scott Academy 1888-9; programme eighteenth commencement exercises Portland High School 1888; programme graduating exercises of Pacific University 1888.

MASSONIC GRAND LODGE.

New Officers Installed—Future Corner Stone Laying.

The Grand Lodge of the State of Oregon terminated their sessions Friday afternoon, when the newly elected officers were installed by retiring Grand Master Nasburg. Following is the list:

Jacob Mayer, G. M.; B. Van Dusen, Dp. G. M.; J. C. Fullerton, G. S. W.; C. Taylor, G. S. W.; D. C. McKercher, G. Treas. F.; J. Babcock, G. Sec.; J. R. N. Bell, G. Chaplain; H. J. Bean, G. S. D.; Joseph J. Caulfield and D. C. Tedford, G. tewart; George Chamberlain, Gr. Orator; Wm. Armstrong, Gr. Marshal; Oscar E. Smith, Gr. Standard Bearer; D. S. Munnier, Gr. Sword Bearer; Thomas H. Crawford, Gr. Organist; Gustave Wilson, Gr. Tyler.

Nearly all of those in attendance returned home on Friday evening. The officers of the Grand Lodge have arranged to lay the corner stone of the Baptist church in Independence June 25th, at 1 p. m. They will also lay the corner stone of the new court house of Yamhill county at McMinnville, at 1 p. m. on June 28th.

Nipped in the Bud.

It is better to nip consumption, the greatest scourge of humanity, in the bud, than to try to stay its progress on the brink of the grave. A few doses of California's most useful production, Santa Abie, the King of Consumption, will relieve, and a thorough treatment will cure. Nasal Catarrh, too often the forerunner of consumption, can be cured by California Catarrh Cure. These remedies are sold and fully warranted by Foskay & Mason.
