HAVE YOU A COLD in the head which does not get better? Have you an excessive secretion of mucus or matter in the nasal passages which either must be blown from the nose or drop back behind the palate, or hawked or snuffed backward to the throat? Are you troubled by hawking, spitting, weak and inflamed eyes, frequent soreness of the throat, ringing or roaring in the ears, more or less impairment of the hearing, loss of smell, memory impaired, dullness or dizziness of the head, dryness or heat of nose? Have you lost all sense of smell? Have you a hacking cough? Have you dyspepsia? Is your breath foul? If so YOU HAVE THE CATARRH. Some have all these symptoms, others only a part. The leading symptom of ordinary catarrh is increased secretion of mucus of yellow or greenish colored matter. Foul breath is caused by the decomposing secretions exuded from festering ulcers far back in the head; sometimes the membrane covering the bones is eaten away and the bones themselves gradually decay. Such cases are indeed objects of pity, as stench from the corroding sores reveals the corruption within.

As every breath drawn into the lungs must pass over and become polluted by the relievations in the nasal passages, it must necessarily follow that poisoning of the whole secre gradually takes place, while the morbid matter that is swallowed enters the stomach, enfeebles digestion, and often produces dyspepsia, and finally greatness ity, nervousness and consumption.

DO NOT PROCRASTINATE.

If you have experienced any of the abovesymptoms do not delay, but try CALIFORNIA CAT-R-CURE at once. We positively warrant one a few applications relieve and a thorough treatment to cure. Six months treatment for $1.00; sent by mail

AT CHICAGO

The First Day's Proceedings of the Republican Convention.

SPEECHES FOR PROTECTION.

The Organization Not Yet Completed—The Coast Delegates—Adjourned Until To-Day.

HERALD Special Dispatches.]

CHICAGO, June 19.—The republican national convention was called to order at 12:30 to-day by Chairman Jones, who delivered a strong speech in favor of protection.

Temporary chairman John M. Thurston, of Nebraska, was greeted with applause. In his opening speech Thurston's statement that Blaine must be denied the support of the convention was greeted by loud cries of "No, no," and prolonged applause from the gallery. He continued in a strong speech squarely in favor of protecting American products, and mentioned several prominent candidates in turn, each of whom he said was thoroughly in harmony with the protective policy of the republican party. His remarks on the Chinese question elicited applause. He referred in vigorous terms to manner in which the democratic platform framed at St. Louis straddled the tariff question.

Senator Hoar, of Michigan, presented to temporary chairman Thurston a gavel made of wood, under which the party was organized in Jackson, Michigan.

A resolution of sympathy for General Sheridan was passed, and ordered to be forwarded to him at Washington.

The call of states was omitted and General Fremont was introduced to the convention, who made a ringing speech, in which he predicted a splendid victory for the republican party under the principles of protection.

Fred Douglas was called upon and addressed the convention, expressing the hope that the convention would make such a record as to put out of the power of democrats and mugwumps to say that there is no difference between the two parties in respect to this race.

Wise, of Virginia objected to the placing of Mahone on the committee on credentials and made a protest against his being permitted to pass on his own credentials.

Mahone took the platform and made a plea for his delegation, and the chairman ruled debate out of order.

Stephenson, of Maine, moved that no members of the committee on credentials be allowed from the contested states, which motion was laid on the table on motion of Hoar.

It was decided after a lively debate that contesting delegates send their credentials to the committee without debate. At 3:30 the convention adjourned until noon tomorrow.

THE OREGONIANS.

They Are Inclined to Follow the Lead of Doubtful States.

CHICAGO, June 18.—Senator Dolph of Oregon is expected here from Washington, but has not yet arrived. The Oregonians with their six votes say that they will follow the lead of the doubtful states. They are rather inclined to act in concord with the other Pacific coast states and extreme Western states and territories. Allison, Harrison or Gresham would suit Oregon. The Alger boomers have been urging the Oregonians to declare for Michigan's favorite son. Idaho territory, with her two votes, has enlistened under Allison's banner. As the situation stands now, the two delegates are favorable to Iowa's senator, but Idaho's future action may be governed by the action of California.

Montana territory also has two votes. Col. George O. Eaton, a Montana delegate, says: "One of us is for Allison; the other is for Gresham. We have tried to unite, but have given up all hope and have compromised. If Allison leads Gresham after the second ballot, Allison will get two votes, and if Gresham is ahead of Allison, then Montana will be a unit for Gresham."

Washington territory will have six votes if the recommendation of the national committee is adopted by the convention. The territory will in that event have the same voice as the state of Oregon, although the territory will have a say in the election of president. Oregonians do not relish this. However, Washington territory will vote in the convention. Its delegates are divided and cannot at present be lassoed for any special candidate. Allison, Gresham, Alger and Harrison will be the only ones to receive support from the territory.

IN CONGRESS.

The National Capital Dwarfed by the National Convention.

WASHINGTON, June 18.—The senate went into secret session, and ratified the long pending treaty providing for adjustment of the Venezuelan claims.

The bill was passed appropriating $200,000 for the public building at Oakland, California.

The conference report on the Indian appropriation bill was presented and agreed to. Adjourned.

HOUSE PROCEEDINGS.

WASHINGTON, June 18.—The house went into committee of the whole on the sundry civil appropriation bill. A debate ensued on the new congressional library building.

The committee rose, and Peele of Arkansas presented a conference report on the Indian appropriation bill, which was agreed to.

Herbert of Alabama, from the committee on naval affairs, reported the naval appropriation bill. Adjourned.

HAD TWO CAUSES OF ACTION.

The Case of Contractor Hunt Against the Oregon Pacific.

The case of G. W. Hunt against the Oregon Pacific Railroad Company came up in the U. S. circuit court yesterday on a motion to strike out the complaint for duplicity, that is, it contained two causes for action not stated separately.

The action was brought on a written contract made between Hunt and the railroad company, by which Hunt agreed to construct a certain number of miles of road for the company, who were to pay him monthly, on the estimates of their engineers, receiving a small percentage as security for performance of contract. He began work in May, 1887, and worked to December of the same year, when he quit because the company failed to pay as it agreed to.

He alleges in his complaint that the work done was worth $80,000, and also alleges in the same complaint that in doing this work he was at a large expense in making roads and bridges and transporting plant, stores, etc., by which he will lose largely, and for which he asks special damages in the sum of $80,000.

The court decided that there were two distinct causes of action arising out of the same transaction, and might, therefore, be joined in one action, but must be stated separately in the complaint, and not being so, the motion to strike out was allowed and the plaintiff given ten days to answer.—Oregonian.

Correspondence of Chicago Times.

It is a fete night on our arrival and a band of music is playing seductive airs in front of the Government house over which waves the trio-color of la belle France announcing the protectorate. Pomare V, the native King, preferring to indulge in his brandy and soda and other excesses in a smaller edifice a little distance off, gives up all voice in the management of the Government for a consideration of 50,000 francs per annum. Her Majesty, the Queen, also receives a compensation for abdicating the throne, although a much smaller one, and lives quietly and unostentatiously in a snug little cottage adjoining that of her sister, who is married to the United States Consul. Her tall graceful figure, clad in a loose flowing gown, may be seen as she moves among the assemblage in the beautiful grounds directly in front of the Palace, leaning her richly-jewelled, dusky arm, a little heavily, perhaps on that of her honored cavalier, who happens to be a Captain of a man-of-war now in port; the full rounded curves of her voluptuous beauty are easily discernible as she strols hither and thither in the tropical Summer moonlight with a slow and undulating motion peculiar to women of her race and looking every inch a queen, although, withal a merry one.

STATE NEWS.

A Full Budget From Oregon's Metropolis.

PLEADS GUILTY TO AN ASSAULT.

A Small Fire—A Serious Fall—Steel and Iron Works—Leave of Absence—Charged With Embezzlement.

Special to the HERALD.]

PORTLAND, June 19.—This afternoon the Alaska gold company filed articles of incorporation with the county clerk. The incorporators are J. A. Brown, D.M.Dunne, and C. A. Humphres. The capital stock is divided into 500,000 shares. The object is to engage in mining in this state and Washington territory.

REV. EZRA HASKELL'S CASE.

In the police court to-day Henry McGinn withdrew his plea of not guilty and substituted a plea of guilty to assault and battery upon Rev. Ezra Haskell. Judge Denment imposed a fine of $10 upon the defendant. In making his sentence the court took occasion to remark; that as neither the complainant or accused were in the habit of getting into street quarrels and were both gentlemen, and that while the assault was unjustified, there had been considerable aggravation before the affair took place, which would naturally tend to create excitement in the defendant. The court felt justified in imposing the smallest fine allowed by law.

A SERIOUS FALL.

Last night John McDonald met with, what may prove, a fatal accident, at a lodging house on the corner of Fifth and Washington streets. While attempting to throw a basin of water on some boys underneath the window, with whom he was skylarking, he lost his balance and fell into the court. He fell a distance of about twenty feet and struck on a fence, and sustained serious internal injuries.

OREGON STEEL AND IRON WORKS.

A meeting of the stockholders of the Oregon steel and iron company was held to-day. The election of directors resulted in the re-election of the old board; S. G. Reed, T. C. Smith, Wm. Ladd, Theadore B. Wilcox and Martin Winch.

OFF ON LEAVE OF ABSENCE.

Major Jones, of the United States Engineer Corps, goes on a six month's leave of absence to-morrow. During his absence Captain W. Young will take charge of the district. Major Jones will spend his leave of absence in devoting his time exclusively to the management of the Portland reduction works.

CHARGED WITH EMBEZZLEMENT.

A young man named W. G. Emory, who has been engaged as book keeper for the hardware firm of Dayton & Hall, has been arrested charged with embezzlement. The books of the firm have been partially examined, and it is alleged that so far Emory's shortage foots up $4,000. In the Police Court to-day Emory waived an examination and was placed under $4,000 bonds to answer before the Grand Jury.

INDIAN WAR CLAIMS.

Congressional Notes of Especial Interest to the Northwest.

WASHINGTON, June 18.—Senator Dolph's bill providing for the payment of Oregon and Washington Indian war claims, and his bill for payment of the claims of the state of Oregon growing out of the war of the rebellion and Indian wars have been referred by the committee on military affairs to Senator Stewart, who has promised, as soon as he returns from the Chicago convention, that he will secure an early report.

Senator Dolph, in the senate today, upon the passage of the bill reported from the committee on Indian affairs to pay for cattle belonging to a contractor killed by Indians on a reservation, called the attention of the senate to Indian depredations claims, and said it was a great outrage that claimants whose claims had been presented more than a quarter of a century ago to the government, with proper proofs, were unable to secure necessary legislation by congress for payment of their claims.

In the house to day there was passed the conference report on the Indian appropriation bill, which provides for a change of the place of sales of lands of the allotment law from the La Grande district land office to the Umatilla agency.

A great many boys belonging to the O. N. G. are inclined to treat their militia duties, lightly forgetting that they are bound by strict laws. The following paragraph may be of benefit to such: "A person who has been dishonorably discharged from the Oregon National Guard is disqualified from voting in the state, and cannot hold any federal position. This fact should influence a number of young men to pay more attention to their militia duties."
