AT CHICAGO

Second Day Session of the Republican Convention.

NO BALLOTS YET REACHED.

The Platform Forwarded—Silver and Chinese Plank Wanted—Mahone Delegates Seated—Adjourned at 11:20.

The HERALD'S special dispatches.

CHICAGO, June 20.—On the assembling of the republican national convention at noon to-day Chairman Estee, of California, began his speech by thanking the convention for the favor conferred through him on the Pacific coast in placing him at the head of the convention. He said that in choosing from the long list of illustrious names that would be presented to the convention it would be impossible to make a mistake in the selection of a fitting standard bearer of the great republican party.

That voicing the principles of the party in platform was still easier, since those principles were known of all men, that the present administration had been from the first a perpetual menace to the industries of the country, to the discouragement of new enterprises, and closing of the avenues of labor.

He supported his statement by a statement showing a decrease of exports, and of shipbuilding, etc., during the past three years as compared with the period during the ten prior years. Wholesale intimidation and permanent disfranchisement of the republican voters of the south he characterized as monstrous, their voices vainly pleading in the strongest terms for protection of their rights as citizens. The presidential veto he arraigned as false to his declaration as a civil service reformer, it being alleged that during his term he has removed more public officers without cause than any one of his predecessors. He is charged with having violated the spirit of the constitution in unwarrantable executive interference in the legislative branch of government, having vetoed more bills than all the other presidents from Washington down, giving therefore the opinion of the administration was arraigned as cowardly and un-American. Reference was made to the declaration that to get rid of the surplus in the treasury the president has decided that wool and other farm products must go upon the free list, adding that this dogma has been answered by the people of Oregon as a preliminary rattle along the skirmish line, promising a complete victory in November. He alleged that the same forces are arrayed against each other in 1888 as in 1861. The difference is that the attack was upon the armies of the nation in 1861, and in the present year it is upon her industries, on the side of opposition to our free trade institutions, then as now, was the south, Northern "rough face," British influences, with the Cobden club and its American membership. As to the surplus, which is the great demoralizing text for free trade, there would be none were our ports protected by fortifications, our navy reconstructed, our rivers and harbors improved, needed public building erected, and vetoed pension bills made laws.

CALIFORNIA WILL VOTE FOR STANFORD

It is reported among Blaine men that California has agreed to vote for Stanford on the preliminary ballots, in order to save their effectiveness for the Blaine movement at the time agreed upon. DeYoung, of California, says it is not true that, while the delegates of the Pacific coast are all for Blaine, they don't exactly know what to do at first.

CHINESE AND SILVER PLANKS WANTED

Osborne, of Los Angeles, Cal., member of the committee on resolutions, is working hard to incorporate a plank for the Chinese and silver questions that will be satisfactory to the California delegates and all the people on the Pacific coast.

"I can safely say," said Osborne this afternoon, "that we will secure the adoption of an anti-Chinese plank that will be in every way satisfactory to the coast. Chinese labor will be denounced in strong terms, and the resolutions will recommend the enactment of any legislation that may be needed to drive out here a or."

As to silver, the resolution will contain a moderate plank. It may not be quite as strong as some of us on the coast desire, but it will be a great step in the right direction.

Hear moved that a recess be taken until 8 P. M. and the convention adjourned until that hour.

THE CONVENTION RE-CONVENED AT 8 O'CLOCK.

Under rules adopted, the report of committees on credentials, platform, and naming the members of the national committee, must be acted upon before the presentation and balloting for candidates begin.

The committee on platforms will not be ready to report until tomorrow.

The convention adopted resolutions of sympathy to Germany by a standing vote.

Resolution of respect to Grant, Arthur, Logan and Conkling was adopted unanimously.

Gen. W. O. Bradley, of Kentucky, was called for and made a ringing speech.

Gov. Foraker, of Ohio, was requested to address the convention, and he took the platform amid long and continued applause.

At 9:16, Hepburn, chairman, presented the report of the credentials committee.

The credentials committee recognized Wise delegates from the 2nd, 3d, 5th, 6th, 7th, 8th and 10th Virginia districts.

Russell, of N. C., presented the minority committee report in favor of Mahone delegates of the 2nd, 5th, 6th, 7th, 8th and 10th districts of Virginia.

The report of the committee as to delegates at large from Virginia, was adopted, seating Mahone.

A motion was then made to admit both delegations of the 9th Virginia district with half a vote each, which was voted down. The convention then voted to seat the Mahone delegation from the 9th Virginia district.

REFUSE TO ADJOURN.

CHICAGO, 11 P. M.—The convention refused to adjourn.

On roll call Wise delegates were admitted from the 2nd Virginia district. The majority report was adopted in all the Virginia cases.

ADJOURNMENT EFFECTED.

CHICAGO, 11:28.—The convention adjourned to 10 A. M. tomorrow, at which time it is expected the committee on platform will report. Nominations will then be made for presidential candidates.

THE WESTERN MEN.

What They Want in the Platform—Oregon for Gresham.

CHICAGO, June 19.—The association of Western delegates have held a meeting and considered the planks which they desired inserted in the platform. It has been determined that there should be a plank favoring the appointment of citizens of the territories to federal offices in the territories, in contradistinction to the carpet bag system which Cleveland has instituted. It was next decided that there should be a plank expressing the opinion that the territories, as soon as they had the requisite number of people and sufficient resources, should be admitted into the Union. It was also decided to urge that a plank be put in the national platform denouncing the president's vicious financial policy, by which he prefers gold to gold and silver.

OREGON LIKES GRESHAM.

J. W. Cusick, banker of Albany, O., a delegate from that state, says:

"The Blaine movement is preposterous and will not receive the support of the Oregon delegation. To put Blaine in nomination at the opening of the convention would be to do what he said should not be done. I think it would hurt Blaine more than anything that could happen, and he would be defeated because of the bad feeling which it would excite. The Oregon delegation will probably get together before it is time to ballot for the presidential nominee and decide whom they will support. There is a feeling in the delegation that Gresham would make a good candidate. One or two would incline to Harrison, and Allison has some friends, but we have not yet decided whom we will support. Oregon will vote as a unit on all questions, I think; at least, that is our intention now."

Ex-Gov. Moody of Oregon is also here. He coincided with Cusick in his opinion upon the Blaine movement.

COLORADO OPPOSED TO DEPEW.

Senator Teller of Colorado says: "It there are 10,000 ballots Depew will never get more than one vote from Colorado. We think Depew represents the railroad interests and nothing else. He is the weakest man who could be nominated. We don't want a defensive campaign, as we would be forced to have it if Depew was nominated. Then we don't want a man who has not been squarely in the party from the beginning. Depew's defection in 1872 ought to kill him politically. Colorado would have been for Blaine had he consented to run, but we will not consider him now, believing he is honestly out of the race. Some of our delegates are already for Gresham, and he is undoubtedly second choice with every man amongst us. I believe Gresham is by all means the strongest man in the field."

HORRIBLE DOMESTIC TRAGEDY.

An Enraged Wife Kills Her Three Children and Herself.

PITTSBURG, June 20.—This morning Mrs. Josephine Mark, of Allegheny city, administered strychnine to her three children, aged 7, 4 and 3, and then swallowed the poison herself. In less than three hours the mother and two of the children were dead, and the youngest child has no show of recovery. The motive for the deed is supposed to have been anger because her husband had ordered his brother from the house, whom he suspected of criminal intimacy with his wife.

Swallows Take to a Ship.

A rather curious episode in natural history occurred the other day on board the French steambot Abd-el-Kader during the passage from Marseilles to Algiers. Just as the vessel was about two hours out the sky became quite black with swallows. It was then about 6 o'clock in the evening. The birds alighted in thousands on the sails, ropes and yards of the Abd-el-Kader. After a perky survey of the deck from their eminences aloft they descended coolly on deck, hopped about among the sailors and passengers and eventually found their way into the cabins both fore and aft. The birds were evidently fatigued after a long flight and allowed themselves to be caught by the people of the ship, who gave them a welcome reception and provided them with food, which they enjoyed heartily. The little winged strangers remained all night on the vessel, and in the morning at 7 o'clock the head lookout bird no doubt sighted the Balearic isles, for the whole flock made for land, after having spent a comfortable and refreshing night on board ship.

Senator Beck Frightened.

Chicago Herald.

Senator Beck received quite a shock the other day. He was hastily passing through the rotunda of the Capitol, preparatory to going to Ivy City to the races, when a man excitedly shouted to him to get out of the way, at the same time frantically pointing to a black box that was held in such a position that the nozzle was directed upward and straight toward Mr. Beck. The Kentucky Senator jumped about three feet in the air and made wild gestures with his cane, evidently thinking that the machine was going to shoot. The man who held it laughed, and said it was simply a detective camera with which he was attempting to steal a photograph of the big painting at the top of the dome. The Senator's burly form spoiled the focus, and the operator shouted at him just as if he were an ordinary citizen.
