HAVE YOU A COLD in the head which does not get better? Have you an excessive secretion of mucus or matter in the nasal passages which either must be blown from the nose or drop back behind the palate, or hawked or snuffed backward to the throat? Are you troubled by hawking, spitting, weak and inflamed eyes, frequent soreness of the throat, ringing or roaring in the ears, more or less impairment of the hearing, loss of smell, memory impaired, dullness or dizziness of the head, dryness or heat of nose? Have you lost all sense of smell? Have you a hacking cough? Have you dyspepsia? Is your breath foul? If so YOU HAVE THE CATARRH. Some have all these symptoms, others only a part. The leading symptom of ordinary catarrh is increased secretion of mucus of yellow or greenish colored matter. Foul breath is caused by the decomposing secretions exuded from festering ulcers far back in the head; sometimes the membrane covering the bones is eaten away and the bones themselves gradually decay. Such cases are indeed objects of pity, as stench from corroding sores reveal the corruption within.

As every breath drawn into the lungs must pass over and become polluted by the relievtions in the nasal passages, it must necessarily follow that poisoning of the whole system gradually takes place, while the morbid matter that is swallowed ... into the stomach, enfeebles digestion, and often produces dyspepsia, ... ity, nervousness and consumption.

DO NOT PROCRASTINATE.

If you have experienced any of the above symptoms do not delay, but try CALIFORNIA CAT-R-CURE at once. We positively warrant even a few applications relieve and a thorough treatment to cure. Six months treatment for $1.00; sent by mail

AT CHICAGO

The Convention Adjourns Until Monday at 11 A. M.

NOMINATION STILL IN DOUBT.

It May Blaine, Although Sherman is Still in the Lead—Depew and McKinley Withdraw from the Contest.

Special to the HERALD.

CHICAGO, June 23.—The convention was called to order at 10:08 A. M. A rumor is afloat that the convention will adjourn after one or perhaps two ballots. Warner Miller, of New York, presided. Roll call was ordered and the fourth ballot proceeded.

10:38 A. M.—McKinley withdraws. Illinois gives Harrison 3, Gresham 44. New York gives Alger 3, Allison 1, Harrison 59, Sherman 1, Blaine 8. Wisconsin gives Harrison 20. [Applause.]

FOURTH BALLOT.

Alger 135, Harrison 217, Allison 88, Blaine 42, Sherman 236, Gresham 98, McKinley 11, Lincoln 1, Douglas 1, Foraker 1.

11:25 A. M.—The fifth ballot is being taken. California votes for Blaine. [Applause and hisses.] Indiana gives Harrison 29, Gresham 1.

11:40 A. M.—New Hampshire gives Harrison 8. New Jersey gives McKinley 6.

FIFTH BALLOT.

Blaine 56, Alger 142, Allison 213, Gresham 87, Sherman 224, McKinley 14.

Adjourned to 4 P. M.

3:20 P. M.—It is generally expected that an effort will be made to stampede the convention to Blaine this afternoon. Blaine men now expect the New York delegation on the 6th or 7th ballot.

Governor Foraker says Ohio will not vote solid for Sherman this afternoon. There is some talk of a combination on Allison. When asked about the stampede to Blaine he said if they break to him he is likely to be the nominee. He is a very strong man.

4:07 P. M.—Hiscock has just said that a motion will be made to adjourn until Monday.

The convention has been called to order. Warner Miller says that the understanding is to adjourn to Monday 11 A. M. A motion to adjourn has been made. Kansas calls for roll call, and Iowa seconds it.

On adjournment Indiana voted 30 no, Iowa 26 aye and New York 72 no.

The full vote on adjournment stood aye 492, no 340.

PROSPECTS OF CANDIDATES.

CHICAGO, June 23.—At the conference of the representatives of Sherman, Alger, Harrison, Blaine and Allison delegates, which took place to-day between 12 and 4 o'clock, M. H. DeYoung, representing Blaine's interests, made a statement that if Harrison was nominated it would be utterly impossible to elect him. He could not possible carry the Pacific coast, nor would he be able to carry any of the larger states where the labor element predominates, because he voted against the Chinese bill and tried in every phase of it, and he had committed a still greater mistake in voting to naturalize the Chinamen, and give them right of suffrage, and that Allison was in exactly the same boat. The statement made by DeYoung created great consternation. Col. Henderson representing Allison's interests, thought that DeYoung was mistaken about Allison's record. DeYoung said that he had records and could produce them at the next meeting of the conference. The effect of DeYoung's statement caused a representative of the New York delegation to state that he did not think his delegation would support Harrison if these facts were brought before them, and he asked DeYoung if he would appear before the New York delegation today and make that statement. The Indiana supporters of Harrison, early this morning called on the California delegation and stated that they would not attempt to force the nomination of Harrison until after recess to-day, or until this matter can be explained.

MORE GOSSIP ON THE SITUATION.

CHICAGO, June 23.—The Tribune says that the anti-Harrison forces have combined to prevent his nomination this morning, and after one ballot, or two at most, the convention will adjourn to unite on some other candidate.

The News says that the ticket still looks like Blaine and Harrison, or Blaine and Alger.

The Times says that Alger and Allison gained strength during the night.

INGALLS ON THE SITUATION.

CHICAGO, June 23.—Ingalls writes writes to the Kansas delegation saying: "Least conspicous (and therefore least complication) man will be best, somebody like Hayes in 1876. My impression is that Alger or Gresham will come nearer filling the bill than anybody else."

McKinley's statement was called out by the fact that when Connecticut was reached, one vote was cast for him.

Journalist Dies from Sunstroke.

CINCINNATI, June 23. — Major Theiss, the journalist, was overcome by heat yesterday and died to-day.

THE NICARAGUA CANAL.

Work to be Begun in September With a Capital of $100,000,000.

DENVER, June 22.—The stockholders of the Nicaragua Canal Construction Company held their annual meeting in this city last evening. It was decided to not wait any longer for congress to grant the company a charter, but to incorporate immediately under the laws of Colorado. This conclusion was arrived at for the reason that under the Colorado law the company would have greater scope under which to work than they could expect from the government.

Reports received from the engineers fix the cost of the canal at $50,000,000. The company decided to double this amount, in order to cover all incidental expenses, and incorporate with a capital of $100,000,000. Work will be begun the 1st of September.

Hot Wave in New York.

NEW YORK, June 23.—To-day eleven cases of heat prostration are reported. The heat is terrible, the mercury is rapidly nearing the hundred mark.

BLAINE'S WHEREABOUTS.

LONDON, June 23.—Blaine and party left Melrose for Dalkith this morning. The weather is very pleasant.

THE SHORT PERSON.

Vicissitudes Which Invariably Come to the Man of Few Inches,

Liverpool Courier.

The short man has suffered much at the hands of the writers of fiction. He is never allotted the part of the hero, though there is no valid reason why he should not be. Search through all the fiction you like, and look up the heroes. They are tall, every one of them, no matter whether they be black, blue, gray or tawny. This is what you read: "His tall presence overshadowed and protected her as the pine of the Apennines does the strayed and bewildered lamb;" or "His form, far above the middle height appeared before her in the moonlight, and she knew that, whatever else happened she was his forever." It is only a very realistic writer who condescends to have a hero of "average height," and even he is apt to forget himself and make his hero grow, after he is long past twenty-one, into a "towering form."

There is a special brand of humanity kept on tap for heroes, all of them men who would have delighted the heart of Frederick the Great, who is quite welcome to them, for all we care. On the other hand, the writer, when he has an unsympathetic character to portray, nearly always makes him short. Look at the "rascally attorney;" he is always made an "undersized" man, though there is no reason why he should be. And the writer, forsooth, never makes his really respectable villain, the man who does the bold murders, the kidnapping and the big forgeries particularly short, only those of his villains are short who are mean contemptible curs.

It is hardly necessary to add that the same writer, when he wants a butt for the exercise of his wit, or for his other character to play tricks upon, takes a short man for the purpose. It is always a short man who is fool enough to fall in love with the heroine without the ghost of a chance, and who is cut out, if not kicked out, directly the hero appears; his blasted hopes are made to look ridiculous, and after a humorous attempt at suicide, he is relegated for consolation to brandy and soda.

HARD AND SOFT WATER.

Journal of Chemistry.

All cooks do not understand the different effects produced by hard and soft water in cooking meat and vegetables. Peas and beans cooked in hard water, containing lime or gypsum, will not boil tender, because these substances harden vegetable caseine. Many vegetables, as onions, boil nearly tasteless in soft water, because all the flavor is boiled out. The addition of salt often checks this, as in the case of onions, causing the vegetable to retain the peculiar flavoring principles, besides such nutritious matter as might be lost in soft water. For extracting the juice of meat to make a broth or soup, soft water, unsalted and cold at first, is best, for it much more readily penetrates the tissue; but for boiling, where the juice should be retained, hard water or soft water salted is preferable, and the meat should be put in while the water is boiling, so as to seal up the pores at once.

A Farmer's Great Luck.

Sulphur Springs, Tex., Letter to Dallas News.

It is not often that men pick up a fortune in the road, but such was the luck of a farmer of this county a few days since. He was passing along the road about fourteen miles northeast of this place and chanced to examine an old pot which the recent rain had washed up, and to his amazement he found it filled with gold coins. The treasure amounted to near $18,000. Near it was an iron pin driven into a tree in such a manner as to point to the spot where the hidden treasure lay. It is supposed that the money was hidden by some Missouri guerrillas who had turned robbers after the war.

A GIRL OF THE PERIOD.

BY HER CRUSHED ADMIRER

She fixes her hair in an exquisite way,
With the bangs all in fluff little curls;
Her teeth are like pearls,
And very few girls
Have smiles so attractively gay.
She's got so much sweetness to say,
And piles on the taffy so strong,
That you wish her in farthest Cathay,
Or some place where—angels—belong.

If her comrade be only a man,
She loves to stroll out for a walk;
She'll cheerfully talk
About fossils, or chalk,
Or tell how creation began.
She'll bother you all that she can,
She'll pall on you after a while;
Though her waist is not more than a span,
She isn't exactly your style.

She might be a dear little thing
With lovable manners and mild;
Perhaps as a child
She was giddy and wild,
And-lead-able-round-with-a-string,
Undoubtedly youth has its fling,
And buried it years ago;
But the charms that we love in a maiden took wing
When she changed herself into that meaningless thing,
"A girl of the Period," you know.

Lovely Woman on Horseback.

Did you ever observe a woman just before she is lifted into the saddle and a few moments after the horse has struck a canter? She becomes a charmed being. The roses spring to her cheeks, the light seems to leap from her eyes, her form is the inspiration of graceful action and she becomes a beauteous picture of moving health. And this, after all, is the best view to take of horseback riding. Aside from all of its charms, its special or general beauty, it is the most healthful exercise within the province of woman. It is better than dancing, lawn tennis, croquet, rowing, archery.

There are many reasons why it is better, and one of the strongest seems to be that it brings continous change of scene, which tends to rest the body as well as the mind. The fascinating effect which it has on the fair rider can not be estimated, providing she has a well-trained horse and indulges in moderation.

Fir From The Northwest.

The New Westminister, B. C. Columbian says that adaptability of the Puget Sound fir for fine car work is replacing the higher priced walnut and Louisiana ash as well as West India mahogany. For some time past the Royal City mills, New Westminister, have been shipping sill timber to the largest car works in the United States, and new orders are constantly being received from them—a sufficient proof of the satisfaction the lumber gives. A few days since four car loads of sill timber were shipped to the Crossen Car works, of Coburg, Ont., the first of a large order just received. The timber is all sixty five feet in length, of the best quality and not a knot or flaw will be found in any stick of it. This lumber will be used by the Crossen works on the palace and first-class cars now being built for the C. P. R., and which require the very best material that can be produced. Other shipments will follow from time to time until the order is filled.

Mobbing an Executioner.

The office of Public Executioner at Vienna is not a very desirable position. A few days since this official, accompanied by two assistants, went to Trieste to polish off some poor wretch who was under sentence of death. While sipping beer in a "brasserie" they were recognized, and the place was immediately turned into a battlefield. They were mobbed, and narrowly escaped with their lives to the nearest police station. The proprietor of the "brasserie" then broke the glasses out of which they had been drinking, and after chopping up the chairs upon which they had been sitting, he made a bonfire of them in the street. The principal barber in Trieste was obliged to publish a card in all the local papers denying the rumor that the executioner had been shaved in his shop, as, in consequence of the story getting abroad, every one of his regular customers refused to continue their patronage. —London Truth.

KILLED BY A LUNATIC.

A Sunday Evening Tragedy at Marysville California.

MARYSVILLE, June 22—Shortly before 10 o'clock Sunday evening Thomas McNabb, generally conceded to be a madman, dragged James Sullivan out of his saloon on Second street, and after exchanging some very harsh words hit him, felling him to the ground. A few moments later a policeman found Sullivan lying against a wall unconscious, and he was taken to the city prison, where he died early this morning, not having consciousness. McNabb was placed under arrest and is charged with murder. Sullivan came here recently from Truckee. He had been drinking, but eye witnesses say that McNabb hitting him was not sufficiently provoked. The attending physician gives the cause of death as concussion of the brain, produced by falling on the back of his head on the sidewalk. An inquest will be held this evening.

"You will never miss the water
Till the well runs dry."

If you want a well dug call on E. B. Davidson. He does prompt work at a reasonable price. Orders can be left at this office,
