That Highway of Nations.

The broad Atlantic is ever a stormy thorough fare. Yet blow the winds ever so fiercely, and ride the waves ever so boisterously, seamen must man the windward side. Tourists will have the passage, and commercial travelers and buyers must visit this center of foreign trade and manufacture. That strenuous trade, sea sickness, together with sticky pains and much inward uneasiness is often endured when Hostetter's Stomach Bitters would have fortified the voyagers against them. Sea sickness, and in fact all old salts and veteran travelers acquainted with the protective value of this estimable preventive and remedy, are rare. Unprovided with it, H. F. Merrills to the far West should use it as a safeguard against malaria. Seek the aid of the Bitters for dyspepsia, constipation, liver complaint, kidney troubles, and all ailments that impair the harmonious and vigorous action of the vital power.
