AT CHICAGO

Benjamin Harrison, of Indiana, the Nominee for President.

LEVI P. MORTON, OF NEW YORK.

For the Second Place—A Temperance Resolution Adopted—Great Enthusiasm—Comments Etc.

Special to the Herald.

CHICAGO, June 25.—The convention has been called to order and Bontelle, of Maine, has just taken the platform to withdraw Blaine's name. He says without attempting to construe the language he will read the dispatch from Blaine: "Edinburgh, Scotland, June 25.—I think I am right in asking that my Paris letter be respected, and I earnestly request my friends to refrain from voting for me. Signed, James G. Blaine."

Manley, Blaine's friend, is quoted as saying this morning that Blaine would accept only a unanimous nomination, which at present seems impossible, and he hopes there will be no more voting for Blaine.

11:20 A. M.—Balloting has begun. Alabama votes 1 for Blaine, and Colorado 16; Georgia, 1 for Fred Grant; Maine, 1 for Foraker and 2 for McKinley; New York, Harrison 72; Ohio votes solid for Sherman, but on challenge Lackey voted for Harrison; Tennessee, Blaine 9 [hisses].

SIXTH BALLOT.

Alger 137, Allison 73, Gresham 91, Harrison 231, Sherman 244, Foraker 1, Blaine 10, Fred Grant 1, McKinley 12.

The seventh ballot is being taken, and California votes 15 for Harrison and 1 for Alger.

SEVENTH BALLOT.

Alger 120, Allison 76, Blaine 15, Foraker 1, Gresham 91, Harrison 278, Lincoln 2, McKinley 16, Sherman 231, Haymond 1.

Allison's name has been withdrawn.

Colorado gives Harrison 6, Connecticut gives Harrison 12, and Iowa Harrison 22, Alger 1 and Gresham 1. With Kansas Harrison has gained 49 and Sherman has lost 18 so far. Massachusetts gives Harrison 25, New Jersey 18, Pennsylvania 56. Harrison now has 411 votes.

HARRISON IS NOMINATED.

The eighth ballot stood as follows: Harrison 544, Alger 100, Sherman 118, Blaine 5, McKinley 4, Gresham 56.

The result was received with a burst of applause and the great audience arose to its feet and shouted until it tired itself out. One of the officers of the convention climbed on the chairman's desk and waved the banner bearing the portrait of Harrison. Hats were thrown up and a scene of enthusiasm followed. Cries of "He's all right" were heard in the din. Finally with three cheers for Harrison the convention became quiet enough for for an official announcement of the result.

Governor Foraker then took the platform amid enthusiastic cheers and said: "Gentlemen of the convention, the delegation from Ohio came here all Sherman men, they are now all Harrison men. It is easier for us to be so when we remember that General Harrison had the good sense to be born in Ohio." [Applause.] "I am desirous, by the unanimous vote of the Ohio delegation to move that the convention, on behalf of the state of Ohio, make the nomination of Benjamin Harrison unanimous." Hoar, of Michigan, General Hastings, on behalf of Pennsylvania, and Senator Farwell, on behalf of Illinois, seconded the motion. Depew was called for and said that this convention would adjourn in a different temper from that of any other convention in a quarter of a century. No candidates before the convention expected to succeed, and no one was disappointed.

THE VICE PRESIDENCY.

3:04 P. M.—Sewell, of New Jersey, presents Phelps's name and moves a recess until 5 p. m. This was declared out of order. Recess to 6 p. m.

EVENING SESSION.

CHICAGO, June 25.—The convention re-convened at 6:13. Gregg, New Jersey, placed the name of Phelps of that state before the convention for vice-president of the United States.

Miller, of New York, nominated Levi P. Morton of that state. He made a stirring speech, and when he spoke of New York going republican there was tumultuous applause, delegates rising to their feet with cheers.

Denny, of Kentucky, nominated Bradley.

Moore, of Ohio, declined the nomination, and a ballot was ordered.

MOLTON NOMINATED.

On the first ballot Morton was nominated amid great enthusiasm, and prolonged cheers were given for the ticket—Harrison and Morton.

A TEMPERANCE RESOLUTION ADOPTED.

There is great excitement over the endeavor of Bontelle, of Maine, to present a temperance resolution. Bontelle's resolution pledges the sympathy of the republican party to a wise and well-directed

AN OPINION OF HARRISON.

What Rev. Dr. Houghton, of Portland, Says of Him

PORTLAND, June 25.—Rev. Dr. Houghton, of the Grace M. E. church, who is personally acquainted with Benjamin Harrison, on being interviewed said: "Yes, I know a good deal about Mr. Harrison. Harrison has made a good record in congress. He is about fifty years old, short, thick set and vigorous and well preserved and has a splendidly formed head. He is a man of dignity, and at first seems reserved, but on further acquaintance he will be found to be a genial gentleman. He is elder in the First Presbyterian church in Indianapolis and has been for years. He is regarded as a thorough good Christian man, and very popular with all classes of people. He is a favorite with the Indiana men irrespective of party. He was raised on a farm and came to Indianapolis when quite a young man, and has practiced law from that time to this, except during the rebellion and during his term of six years in the United States senate. He has long been regarded as one of the leading lawyers of Indianapolis."

Personally, Dr. Houghton expressed himself as greatly gratified by the nomination of Harrison, and thinks him one of the very best and ablest men that could have been nominated. Mr. Harrison's family consists of his wife, two sons and one lovely daughter. The eldest son resides in Helena, Montana. Mr. Houghton thinks Harrison stands a splendid chance of carrying New York, and the doubtful eastern states. He is in medium circumstances financially.

GERMANY'S NEW EMPEROR.

His Sensible Speech at the Opening of the Reichstag

BERLIN, June 25.—Reichstag opened to-day with pomp and brilliancy. After divine service in the court chapel the emperor was escorted with great ceremony to the white hall of the old chapel, where he declared the session open. Throughout his speech the emperor dwelt upon Germany's pacific disposition. He says his policy aims solely to ward off attack and not to acquire military glory. The emperor, he declares, desires peace with all nations. The emperor says further: "Germany will adhere to her alliance with Austria which public opinion supports as a basis of European equilibrium and inheritance from the German history. These resolutions will permit careful cultivation of the emperor's personal relations with the czar and his pacific relations with Russia which have existed for a century, in concert with the emperor's feelings and Germany's interests."

FIRE IN NEW YORK.

Disastrous Conflagration in Building in New York City.

New York, June 25.—Fire broke out this evening in a five-story building extending from Thirty-eighth to Thirty-ninth street on First avenue and occupied as a cigar store by several firms. The flames gained rapid headway, and soon the wall fronting on First avenue fell. The tenants are moving from the surrounding buildings. The water supply gave out and fire boats have been summoned. If more water is not soon obtained a disastrous conflagration is certain.

HOT DAY IN THE EAST.

Deaths From Sunstrokes in New York and Boston.

New York, June 24.—To-day was the hottest June day in this city's history, there being 99 degrees recorded in some sections. The list of fatalities from sunstroke is the largest ever recorded here in June. Four men, one woman and five children were killed and scores of persons prostrated by the heat in this city. Brooklyn and Jersey City have similar records.

Boston, June 24.—To-day was the hottest day of the year. The mercury was 98 in the shade. There were several sunstrokes, two of which were fatal.

HERBERT BEECHER AGAIN.

His Receiver Brings Suit Against a New York Bank.

New York, June 25.—In the Supreme Court, before Judge O'Brien, Charles E. O'Connor, receiver of Herbert F. Beecher, son of the late Henry Ward Beecher, has sued the Mechanics' Bank of Brooklyn for $550 with interest. The receiver claims that there is no deposit in the bank, $2285.92 belonging to the personal estate left by his father. The balance was paid to Mrs. Beecher's mother, in liquidation of a debt. The executor gave young Beecher a check for his portion, after deducting the amount of the debt to his mother. Before he could cash it O'Connor demanded the money from the bank, but payment was refused on the ground that it belonged to the estate. Judge O'Brien reserved his decision.

CROWN JEWELS STOLEN.

LONDON, June 25.—A thief entered the crown prince's Swedish apartments in Franzbad Saturday night and stole jewelry worth $100,000 and escaped.

The business houses of Albany will be closed all day on the Fourth of July.
