Are you troubled by hawking, sneezing, weak and inflamed eyes, frequent soreness of the throat, ringing or roaring in the ears, more or less impairment of the hearing, loss of smell, memory impaired, dizziness or heaviness of the head, dryness or heat of nose? Have you lost all sense of smell? Have you a hacking cough? Have you dyspepsia? Is your breath foul? If so, you need the CATARRH CURE. Some have these symptoms, others only a part. The leading symptom of ordinary catarrh is increased secretion of mucus of yellow or greenish colored matter. Foul breath is caused by the decomposition of mucus in the mouth. Such cases are in danger of death. It is a disease of the mucous membrane covering the bones of the nose and throat and the bones themselves gradually decay. Such cases are in danger of death. ## AT WASHINGTON.

The Ratification of Harrison and Morton's Nomination.

COMMENTS ON THE TICKET.

The Question of Adjournment of Congress—Gen. Sheridan's Trip—The Mill's Bill—Political Notes.

Special Correspondence.

WASHINGTON, July 2.—Senator Hawley and representatives Johnston of Indiana, Buchanan of New Jersey, Houck of Tennessee, and Butterworth of Ohio, were among the speakers at a rousing Harrison and Morton ratification meeting held under the auspices of the republican national league of this city Friday evening. The greatest enthusiasm prevailed throughout the entire meeting and all of the speakers confidently predicted the election of Harrison and Morton. The following letter of regret from Senator Sherman was read: "I regret that an engagement will not allow me to be with you to-night though I join most heartily in the support of the nominees of the Chicago convention. I have known Gen. Harrison intimately for many years, as a gentleman of high character, an able lawyer, a gallant soldier, and in every respect a worthy citizen. I have also known Mr. Morton as a member of Congress, a business man of rare sagacity, ability, and integrity, and a true republican. These candidates will worthily represent the great cause in which we are engaged. The battle will be for principle not for men, protection to American labor, and security for equal rights. I will no doubt, at some future time, have an opportunity to express more at length my earnest desires for the success of the republican party, and confidence in the triumph over a party which, in its composition and acts, is a reproach to the patriotism of our country." This letter was received with cheer after cheer from Morton and Harrison, and three cheers and a tiger for John Sherman.

It is now a week since the ticket was nominated, and everybody has had an opportunity of calmly considering the work of the Chicago convention, and the unanimous verdict of the republicans is "Good" with the biggest kind of a "G." It is generally conceded by every republican, with whom I have talked, that the nomination of Harrison and Morton was not only the best that could have been made under the circumstances, but that it is, all things considered, the strongest combination that could have been made. I have never seen a nomination received with such general satisfaction by all classes of the party as this one has been, and unless all the signs fail, Harrison and Morton, with our glorious platform, proclaiming protection to American labor and industry, and equal rights to all, will surely sweep every northern state and probably three in the solid south, Virginia, West Virginia, and Tennessee. The fight over the Mills tariff bill has been resumed with greater vim than ever. The republicans are determined to thoroughly discuss the many absurdities of the bill item by item, in order that the wage earners of the country may see which party it is that is striking down the wages. It is probable that the indorsement of the bill by the democratic convention will have the result of bringing enough of the "kicking" democrats to its support to secure its passage when it gets to a final vote in the House, which the democrats expect will be early in August. It will then go to the senate, where it is sure to be defeated. The most hopeful member of congress does not predict an adjournment before September, and there are quite a number who think the session will continue right along to the fourth of March.

General Sheridan, left this city Saturday in the United States steamer Swatara bound for Nonquit on Buzzard's bay, Massachusetts, where he has a summer cottage. He has been getting along quite well for some time, but the fact that he was accompanied by all four of the regular physicians who have attended him from the first, shows that he is not out of danger. The senate committee on pensions have submitted a report upon eight vetoed pension bills, which recommends their passage over the vetoes. The report says: "Since the 8th day of May 1886, 136 special acts granting pensions to individuals have been disapproved by the President. These disapprovals were based in a great majority of cases, upon the expressed opinion of the President that congress has erred in its judgment of mere fact. It is of course impossible for the President to examine the mass of documentary evidence upon which each case depends, and which is invariably examined by the committee, and it follows that when he disagrees with congress upon the question of fact in these cases, his judgment must be based, not upon the reports of the committee, in which the facts are always stated with sufficient fullness, but upon the report of some subordinate in the bureau of pensions. This bureau, whose action congress has reversed is thus enabled to review the action of congress by the express action of the President. This method of consideration is an abridgment by the executive of the right of congress to waive that strict proof which is required in ordinary cases in the department.

A Long Railroad

Omaha Dec.

The day is not far distant when an all-rail line will connect New York City with Buenos Ayres, the capital of Argentine Republic, in South America. The plan is certainly feasible. An international railroad extending from the United States through Mexico, Central America, and draining South America from one extreme to the other, must of necessity connect international trade on the American continent. Much more has been accomplished toward a realization of this railroad project than is commonly credited. Within the past three years the South America States have actually built and surveyed routes at least one-third of the distance, about 1000 miles, between Buenos Ayres and Bogota, the capital of Colombia, not 500 miles from De Lesseps' canal in Panama. Railroad connections are already established between our country and the City of Mexico. And the task of binding the Spanish Republics of the south to the Mexican capital, though of a stupendous character, is certainly within the possibilities of engineering triumphs. The completion of De Lesseps' great canal at Panama will be a great stimulus to the project. Undoubtedly the gap of 1000 miles between the City of Mexico and the Panama Canal will be closed by railroad connection as soon as the commercial importance of the inter-oceanic canal is established. There would be, in that event, about 2500 miles to be built between the Panama Canal and the termini of the railroads leading northward from Buenos Ayres. The difficulties in the way of a South American railroad are no greater than the obstacles which attended the building of the Union Pacific twenty years ago. What can be done in the next twenty years may now appear fanciful and harebrained.

Curious Phase of Deafness

Sci. Post.

It is often said that persons afflicted with certain forms of deafness can hear perfectly in the midst of tumult. A locomotive engineer, upon examination by a medical expert, was found to be very deaf, and, although he protested that he could hear perfectly well while in the cab, he was suspended. Some time afterward, having made vain attempts to better his defect, he applied for reinstatement, again arguing the fact of his perfect hearing while on duty. Finally, to satisfy him, the physician rode with him upon a locomotive for a long distance and put him to every possible test. To the doctor's surprise he found him able not only to hear ordinary sounds without difficulty, but also to distinguish whispers and faint movements that were inaudible to the physician.

Social Arithmetic.

Pittsburg Dispatch.

Miss Youngbelle (at a reception, pointing to a girlishly dressed, but rather antique party on the opposite side of the room)—How old is Miss Neverdy?

Mr. Jockerby—Fifty four.

Miss Youngbelle—Oh, nonsense! she's not as old as that.

Mr. Jockerby—Well, I don't know; but she's celebrated her eighteenth birthday three times to my knowledge, and three times eighteen is fifty-four!

Always Pay an Editor.

Bill Nye says: "Don't attempt to cheat an editor out of a year's subscription to his paper, or any other sum. Cheat the minister, the doctor, cheat any and everybody, but if you have any regard for future consequence do not fool with an editor. You will be put up for office sometime, or want some public favor for yourself or some of your friends, and when your luck is a thing of beauty and a joy forever, the editor will open upon you and knock your air castle into a cocked hat the first fire. He'll subdue you, and then you'll cuss yourself for a driving idiot, go hire some one to knock you down, and then kick you for falling."

Patents Granted.

The following patents were granted to the citizens of the Pacific states during the past week, and re-ordered for this paper by C. A. Snow & Co., patent lawyers, Washington, D. C.: C. F. Crowell, Portland, Oregon, shoe tongue fastening; W. A. Cutler, Marysville, Cal., car coupler; F. Hawes, Sacramento, Cal., can opener and metal cutter; B. W. Lyon, San Francisco, Cal., station indicator; C. Muller, San Francisco, Cal., time ball; E. H. Perkins, Visalia, Cal., rivet butt remover;

GENERAL NEWS.

Cloud Burst in Kansas City Does Much Mischief.

FEARFUL LEAP FOR LIFE.

Grain in Store—King Milan Wants His Son—Even Royal People Cannot Agree and Quarrel.

The Herald's Special Dispatches.

KANSAS CITY, July 9.—The most disastrous storm that has occurred there or years raged during last night until 12 o'clock. During the height of the storm Eighteenth street became a turbulent river, which flooded all the houses on that street to a depth of two feet, and at Twenty-third, Vine and Fifteenth streets the culvert was inadequate to the immense volume of water which backed up, carrying away two houses, the inmates of which were rescued with great difficulty. Those who saw the storm say that it was undeniably a cloud burst. Reports of death and destruction are numerous, but at this hour no fatalities have been verified. It is said that of four persons, named Williams, were washed away and drowned. The loss will aggregate many thousands of dollars.

Prince Alexander's Narrow Escape

Darmstadt, July 9.—As Prince Alexander of Battenburg, late ruler of Bulgaria, was driving from Heiligenberg into Statten valley yesterday, his horse shied and his carriage was hurled from the road side of the mountain. Prince Alexander was thrown out and fell a distance of forty feet, when he grasped some shrubs and by their aid escaped with but slight injuries. The horse was terribly mangled and killed, and the carriage was dashed to pieces.

California's Supply.

SAN FRANCISCO, July 9.—The annual report of the San Francisco produce exchange gives the following amounts of flour and grain remaining in the state of California July 1, 1888: Flour 72,000 barrels; wheat, 3,882,000 cents; barley, 2,063,000 cents; oats, 62,000 cents. This is a considerable increase over the amount on hand July 1, 1887, which was: flour, 50,000 barrels; wheat, 2,790,000 cents; barley, 7,985,000 cents; oats, 42,000 cents.

A King's Domestic Intensity.

Belgrade, July 9.—King Milan has formally invoked the aid of the authorities of the Prussian province of Hesse-Nassau to force his wife, who is now stopping at Weisbaden, to surrender to him their son, the crown prince, who is 11 years old.

HARRISON AND MORTON.

How M. M. Estee Says the Republicans Will Win in California.

NEW YORK, July 9.—M. M. Estee to-day said concerning the political outlook on the Pacific coast: "California will give 10,000 majority for Harrison and Morton as surely as it will give one majority. The ticket will carry every coast State. There is not any sort of a question now wavering about it. The coast will go republican certain. The tariff question affects us in California above every other consideration. The State has been growing rapidly in material prosperity, which has been largely promoted by the protective tariff. We are large producers of grain, wheat and barley, and the wool crop in California is immense. Even a greater industry is the manufacture of wine. While the duty on wine is not touched by the Mills bill, it is perfectly apparent to the grape-growers in California that if the Mills bill should pass it is only a step further to a reduction which will include wine."

"How about the Chinese question?"

"No one objects to Harrison's Chinese record except the Democrats, who would not vote for him anyway. It is a part of the history of the country that from 1860 to the present day the democratic party has favored every act that would introduce into this country very cheap labor. The solid South is for cheap labor, and always was. The solid South is all there is of the democratic party."

THE WEEK IN CONGRESS.

Measures Which Will Engage the Attention of the Two Houses.

WASHINGTON, July 8.—To-morrow Senator Cullum intends to call up a bill to amend the interstate commerce law.

Senator Hoar will speak on the Sherman treaty Tuesday.

Senator Dolph during the week will bring up the sea coast defenses bill for discussion.

Should the nomination of Fuller be reached considerable time is likely to be spent in secret session.

The tariff and appropriation bills will engage the attention of the house during the week.
