Two Ways. Choose Which!

There are two ways of doing what Nature sometimes does incompletely namely, to relieve the bowels. One is to shallow a drastic purgative which evacuates profusely, abruptly and with pain, the other is to take Hostetter's Stomach Bitters, the effect of which is not violent, but sufficiently thorough. and which does not grip the intestine: If the first is selected, the person employing it need not expect permanent benefit, and be cannot hope to escape the debilitating reaction which leaves the organ as bad or worse off than before. If, on the other hand he resorts to the Bitters, he can rely upon the restoration of a regular habit of body, consequent upon a renewal of a healthful tone in the intestinal canal. Besides healthfully re-laxing the bowels, the Bitters arouses a dormant liver, imparts a beneficial impetus to the action of the kidneys, and counteracts the early twinges of rheumatism, a tendency to gout, and malaria in all its forms.

Don't Experiment. You cannot afford to waste time in experimenting when your lungs are in danger. Consumption always seems, at first, only a cold.
