NOTINGS ABOUT TOWN.

E. O. Norton, of Salem is in the city. Graham Glass Jr., of Dallas, is in the city. The thermometer registered 90 in the shade yesterday. This is fine weather for the ice man and the soda water dealer. John Schmeer has sold a fine Hambletonian colt to O. E. Krause, of Salem. Miss Mary Irvine has returned from Fort Stevens, where she has been visiting for several weeks. A little son of H. C. Clement, of Tacoma, is seriously ill at the residence of Jonas Davis at Shedd. Any one knowing themselves indebted to Mrs. E. J. O'Connor will please call and settle the same at once. Patronize home industry and try some of J. Joseph's Havana filled 5c. cigars, the first of his own manufacture. F. L. Kenton continues to receive subscriptions for all leading periodicals, saving the subscriber the trouble and expense of sending direct to publishers. The ladies of the M. E. church will give their quarterly missionary tea and chicken pie social at the parsonage on Friday evening, July 20, commencing at 5:30. Keep up the flies by using screen doors and windows, manufactured and put in your house complete at a reasonable price, by R. B. Vunk. Shop on corner of Second and Ellisworth streets. Messrs. Will & Stark have received a fine lot of gold-headed canes, fine silverware, gold watches and chains, etc., which they are offering at very low prices. Call and see them. E. & C. Howard are actually selling millinery cheaper than any one else in the city, especially flowers and white hats, which go at cost till all are sold. They never carry old goods, but keep a clean, fresh stock constantly on hand. G. W. Simpson has received another large invoice of goods for his 5, 10, 15, 20 and 25 cent counters. He is still selling his bankrupt stock of general merchandise at cost. The highest price is paid for country produce of all kinds in exchange for goods. Several democrats in Albany are unintentionally wearing Harrison hats. The Cleveland hat should have a black or dark band.—Democrat. Our evening contemporary probably refers to the several democrats who have declared their intention of voting for Harrison and Morton. J. G. Crawford, of the firm of Paxton & Crawford will reopen the gallery in Harrisburg the 16th for two weeks. We will be prepared to make all styles of pictures, such as portraits, views of residences, enlarging pictures in the latest styles, family groups at home, etc. etc. If you want first-class work done come and see us. Paxton & Crawford. A Lesson for Oregon. There is a short sermon for Oregon fruit growers in the news that comes from Marysville, Cal. The item reads this: "On Saturday the Marysville Fruit Company shipped a carload of fresh fruit to Minneapolis via Portland, Or. This is believed to be the beginning of a large and important trade in fruit shipments from this place over the California and Oregon line to points in Northwestern states and territories. A quantity of grapes, peaches and peaches was also shipped to Portland via express last night, by the Sutter Fruit Company." If California fruit growers can ship fruit through Oregon with profit to themselves, can not Oregon growers, who are several hundred miles nearer market, do the same? Burglars Again. About 3 o'clock yesterday morning Mrs. D. P. Mason was awakened by the noise occasioned by a burglar who had effected an entrance into their residence through an open window. Mr. Mason was awakened, and the burglar made good his escape, having stolen nothing. Mr. Mason thinks it is the same chap who reached through a window and stole his gold watch a couple of years ago, who is now on his biennial tour through this section. Brick for Sale. Henry Clark has completed burning the last of his brick kilns near this city, and now offers for sale 165,000 first-class brick. He will burn no more until after harvest, and those in need of brick should see him at once. Magic yeast at Brownell & Stanard's.

BOARD OF TRADE.

The Subject of Gas Works Taken Into Consideration. The Board of Trade met in regular session last evening in the G. A. R. hall and proceeded with the regular routine of business, President Young in the chair and J. W. Blain at the secretary's desk. The minutes of the last regular and called meetings were read and approved. J. H. Burkhardt's bill for printing the pamphlets, amounting to upwards of $130, was allowed and ordered paid, and also a bill of $12 for sending pamphlets to distribute at the teachers' association in San Francisco. The amendments to the constitution, creating a committee of advertising and immigration, was passed. Mr. Writman brought up the subject of the city council granting a franchise to a San Francisco company to put in gas works for the city, which was discussed. Judge Flinn moved a committee of fifteen be appointed to investigate the subject and report at a subsequent meeting, which motion prevailed. Chair appointed Judge Flinn, J. H. Burkhardt, N. H. Allen, C. E. Wolverton, Train & Whitney, Dr. Maston, W. F. Read, D. B. Monteith, L. Vierick, E. F. Sox, H. Bryant, John Schmeer, Sites & Nutting, G. F. Simpson, J. K. Weatherford. The committee on advertising and immigration: C. H. Stewart, J. H. Burkhardt and H. Bryant. On motion adjourned.

A Big Bet.

Isaac Hyman, a commercial traveler for the firm of Hyman Bros., clothiers, of San Francisco, with two other drummers, was talking politics yesterday in front of the Pevelev house, and stated that $1000 to $800 was offered on Cleveland in Frisco, and that they had lots of money to put up that way. D. B. Monteith, the well known real estate man of this city, offered $1000 if they would give him such a bet. Two of the drummers backed down, but Hyman did not like to see the whole trio back out and said he would bet $1000 to $900 that Cleveland would be elected. Mr. Monteith promptly accepted the bet and the checks of both men were deposited in the Linn County Bank. This is the heaviest election bet yet reported in Oregon. One of the drummers who backed down was the same gentleman who offered Wm. Vance an even wager of $1000 to $5000 on Cleveland the other day and when Mr. Vance put up a forfeit of $200 the drummer was not to be found. This was Mr. Theodore Barnheim, of Portland.

The Commissioners Interview.

State Railroad Commissioners Slater and Waggoner had conferences Saturday, at Portland, with Manager Holcomb, of the O. R. & N. Co., and Manager Koehler, of the Southern Pacific lines in Oregon, who furnished them data for a comparative statement of freight and passenger charges on Oregon railroads with leading railroads of other states, which they have had in preparation for some time. This statement and the annual report of the commission will be compiled and submitted to the legislature at its January session. All this information is for the benefit of the legislature, which will be thus enabled to compare passenger and freight charges on Western and Eastern roads under like circumstances and conditions and legislate with a full knowledge of the facts in all cases.

Hunt vs. the Oregon Pacific.

In the case of G. W. Hunt against the Oregon Pacific Railroad Company, Judge Deady Monday rendered a decision on the motion for a bill of particulars in the cause of action for damages and a cross motion to strike out such demand because the party was not entitled to a bill of particulars, except in an action on account. The court sustained the motion to strike out, holding that the party was not entitled to a bill of particulars, except on an action in accounting, and also said if the complaint was not certain and definite enough to show how the damages arose the remedy was to move to make the complaint more definite and certain.

The Lane County Contest.

The following is the present status of the contested election in Lane county: The contested election case of Fenton against Scott, was tried before Judge Bean in Eugene last Tuesday and Wednesday. Judge Bean opened the ballot boxes and recounted all the votes for Scott and Fenton. By his count the undisputed votes made it a tie, but the attorneys for Scott claim that a number of votes that were not counted should have been counted for Scott, which would give him a larger plurality than certified by the judges of election. Judge Bean took the case under advisement, and will make his decision in perhaps ten days.

The Oregon Teachers.

The steamer Willamette Valley, having on board a large number of Oregon teachers, who went to attend the session of the national teachers' association, arrived at San Francisco Monday night. The association is now in session. The Oregon teachers went over the Yajima route, and a large number of Eastern visitors will return that way and get a glimpse of Albany.

BROWNSVILLE NOTES.

The Woolen Mills Start up—Accident to a Boy—The Mines.

The woolen mills started up again Monday. Prof. B. A. Childers and wife departed for San Francisco last week to attend the teachers' gathering. Miss Eliza Harrington of this city, accompanied by her brother, departed for San Francisco to reside last week. Mr. J. E. Waggoner is closing out here, and is going to move to Portland to reside. His many friends wish him success. Mr. O. P. Coshov, Sr., and J. P. Galbraith were last heard from at Tacoma, W. T. on their way to take a pleasure trip on the Sound. Mrs. Hida and daughter, who have been visiting so long with Mrs. R. N. Thompson, departed for their home in San Francisco last week. Mrs. R. M. Bradley of Bellevue, I. T., a sister of Mr. Ely Roby of this city, arrived here with his family a couple of days ago. Mr. Bradley is coming overland with a team. Mr. Elias Masters left here with mining supplies last Thursday for the last discovery on the Calipooia, known as the Pioneer, owned by Messrs. Robe, Kay, Blanchard & Co. Mr. W. T. Cochran is drawing the lumber for a big barn, and has commenced operations. Mr. Thos. Kay has also a large barn in the course of erection on his farm near town. Married, at Albany on the 14th inst., Mr. Robert Putman and Miss Pauline Wetmore, a granddaughter of Mr. Sage, all of this city. The young couple have the best wishes of a large circle of friends. Last week Mr. F. F. Croft found one of his horses had got a snag run into his head, and was in a dangerous condition. Mr. J. H. Wilson, assisted by Messrs. Barger and Sperry, extracted the same, cleaned it and sewed up the wound, and the horse is doing well. Hay is coming into town in large loads now, and the time for disposing of it is very short, as grain is about ready to cut. A few are beginning to bale their hay around here, and the time will soon come when all the hay will be baled, as it is so much easier to handle, and saves waste. Quite a little commotion was caused here last night by a boy being carried into George Standard's drug store. It proved to be little Ray Thompson, eldest son of Mr. R. N. Thompson, who had fallen and cut a gash on the knee son inch and a half long on a tin can. Dr. Starr took a few stitches and the boy is ready for more cans.

Special Rate on Hops.

The Transcontinental Association has agreed upon a rate of $1.50 per 100 pounds on hops shipped under a valuation of 5 cents per pound from Pacific coast terminals to through eastern points. The rate is now in effect and will expire August 31, when the current rates will apply, viz., $1.65 per 100 pounds to Chicago and $2 to New York and common points. This special rate was made to enable the shipment of the old crop eastward.

No New Cases.

The report published by the Evening Democrat that Mr. Graham, of Millers, at whose house Geo. Marshall was taken down with small-pox, also has the disease, was incorrect. Dr. Maston, the attending physician stated last evening to a HERALD reporter that there were no new cases, and that young Marshall will recover.

EDISON'S FRANKS.

How He Killed Cockroaches by Electricity.

New York Telegram. Years ago, when Thomas A. Edison was a telegraph operator in the office of the old Franklin Company, on Wall street, he was continually getting himself into trouble by perpetrating electrical pranks on his brother operators. The instruments in those days were placed on shelf-like desks ranged along the walls of the operating-room, and Edison's piece was in a corner of the room. Here he concocted all his schemes for making life miserable to every one and everything about him. The office seemed to be the rendezvous for all the cockroaches in the lower part of the city, and Edison hit on a novel plan to exterminate them one by one. He rigged up a wire along the wall, and then catching one of the insects, put it to death in the short and painless fashion approved by Commodore Gerry. One by one the insects were "sparked out" of existence until finally Edison became known to the Franklin boys as "Cockroach Tom."

In the cloakroom was a large tank, generally filled with ice water, beside which hung a tin dipper on a nail in the wall. Edison connected this nail with a wire at the other end of which were 190 cells of Fuller battery, strong enough to make one think he had been struck by the paddle-wheel of a Fall River steamer. The future "Wizard of Menlo" then placed a sign below the dipper requesting all to "please return the dipper."

His request was heeded. The dipper was never taken down, but there were a dozen or more wrenches and arms in the office in less than an hour.

All this time the youthful inventor was working on the quadruplex telegraph scheme, which he afterwards perfected, and which is now the principal system in use by the Western Union Company.

SHAVED BY A BULLET.

How a Confederate Officer Lost His Mustache.

Youth's Companion. The following incident is narrated by an officer on the staff of General J. E. B. Stuart of the Confederate army. The operation was a neat one, but most men would rather be shaved with a razor than with a bullet.

General Stuart, as usual, greatly exposed his own person on horseback by riding out of the wood into the open field, and I felt it my duty to say to him that in my opinion he was not in his proper place, as in a few minutes the whole fire of the enemy would be concentrated upon him.

But he was in very bad humor, and answered curtly that if this place seemed likely to become too hot for me I was at liberty to leave it; whereupon I made response that since my duty attached me to his side no place could be too hot for me where he chose to go.

Nevertheless I changed my position, and brought a large tree, in front of which I had been standing, between myself and the enemy.

In an instant the firing began, and three bullets struck the tree at just the height to show that had I remained where I was they would certainly have gone through my body. Looking at Stuart, I saw him pass his hand across his face, and even at that serious moment I could not help laughing heartily when I discovered that one of the numberless bullets that had been whistling round him had cut off half of his beloved mustache as neatly as it could have been done by the hand of an experienced barber.

A Warning.

The modes of death's approach are various, and statistics show conclusively that more persons die from diseases of the throat and lungs than any other. It is probable that everyone, without exception, receives vast numbers of Tubercle Germs into the system and where these germs fall upon suitable soil they start into life and develop, at first slowly and is shown by a slight tickling sensation in the throat and if allowed to continue their ravages they extend to the lungs producing consumption and to the head, causing catarrh. Now all this is dangerous and if allowed to proceed will in time cause death. At the onset you must act with promptness; allowing a cold to go without attention is dangerous and may lose you your life. As soon as you feel that something is wrong with your throat, lungs or nostrils, obtain a bottle of Boschee's German Syrup. It will give you immediate relief.
