Red and Roard

Jim Saywall had passed a sleepless night in a country hotel. As he came down stairs he went to the landlerd and said: "Mr. Landlord, I believe you advertise to furnish bed and board?"

"Yes, sir." "Well, every time I turned over last night I struck the hard side of a slat. I'm pretty near dead this morning, and as I've got to come through this town again next month I'd suggest that you make it a little more bed and a little less board."

A Busy Life.

A very busy banker was to be married to an Omaha girl. The day came, but the groom did not materralize, and at nine a. m. this telegram was received:

"For Heaven's sake tell us what is t ie matter. This is your wedding day, and the hour approaches." He was scared half out of his wits, and bounced around like a hen with her head cut off. Then he sent this answer: "Thought I had three days of grace. Don't let it go to protest. coming on the next train."

The wedding was late, but it was a merry one, and all was forgiven.
