Have you a cold in the head which does not get better? Have you an excessive secretion of mucus or matter in the nasal passages which either must be blown from the nose or drip back behind the palate, or hawked or snuffed back to the throat? Are you troubled by hawking, spitting, weak and inflamed eyes, frequent soreness of the throat, tricking or roaring in the ears, hoarseness, loss of hearing, loss of smell, memory impaired, dullness or fogginess of the head, dryness or heat of nose? Have you lost all sense of smell?
Have you a hacking cough? Have you "hoarseness"? Is your breath foul? If so you have the CATARRH. Some have all these symptoms, others only a part.
The leading symptom of ordinary catarrh is increased secretion of mucus of yellow or greenish colored matter.
Foul breath is caused by the decomposing secretions exhaled from festering pleas far back in the head; sometimes the membrane covering the bones is eaten away and the bones themselves gradually decay. Such cases are indeed objects of pity, as stenches from corroding sores rive the corruption within.
As every breath drawn into the lungs must pass over and become polluted by the relieving in the nasal passages, it must necessarily follow that poisoning of the whole secre-gradually takes place, while the morbid matter that is swallowed during the sleep stem into the stomach, disturbs digestion, and often produces dyspepsia, and finally treatises ity, nervousness and consumption.

DO NOT PROCRASTINATE.
If you have experienced any of the above symptoms do not delay, but try CALIFORNI

GENERAL NEWS.

More of the New York Emigration Fraud.

RACE HORSE AND RIDER KILLED.
Masked Men Hold Up the Redding Stage and Take the Mail and Express—Randall's Condition.

The Herald's Special Dispatches.
NEW YORK, July 28.—When the four congressmen who are investigating the emigration affairs of the country, assembled to-day, Paul Wolf, the Washington correspondent of the New York Staats-Zeitung took the witness stand and stated that some years ago he was informed that there were several societies in Germany, and especially in Bavaria, formed for the purpose of sending discharged criminals to this country. The witness laid his information before Assistant Secretary of State Porter and that gentleman wrote to the American consul at Munich in December, 1885, that there were no such societies. The witness then read extracts from the reports of one of these societies, showing that in 1883 twenty-seven discharged convicts were sent to this country by the societies. The report said that the worse the men and the larger families they have the better they are to send to America.
The witness said the societies are not government affairs, but the royal councillor Bauer is president and prince regent Luitpold is an honorary president of one society. In 1885 the report is more caution-ly worded, but shows that out of 15,000 marks expended nearly half was used to assist emigrants to come to America. At this point Mayor Hewitt interrupted the proceedings to shake hands with the members of the committee and urged upon them an invitation to spend Sunday night with him at the country seat. When he left the examination proceeded.

A DISASTROUS RACE.
A Horse Falls and Kills His Rider and Himself.

SARATOGA, July 28.—In the fifth race to-day, a steep chase, Warrington, the favorite, fell at the first hedge and rolled over Morris, his rider. The man and horse lay unconscious for some moments, after which the horse rose and slowly dragged his unconscious rider a few feet by the reins which were wrapped around the man's hands. Morris was fatally injured. His back is believed to be broken. Beechmoore won by half a length; Abraham, second; Killarney, third; no time.

RANDALL'S CONDITION.
He Leaves Washington With His Family for the Country.

WASHINGTON, July 28.—Randall and his family left Washington this morning for their country home at Wayne Station. Pennsylvania. In leaving the city the country air will have the effect of increasing the patient's strength.
Randall was taken to the station in a carriage, the blinds of which were closely drawn. He was accompanied by Dr. Mallan, who will attend him to his home, when Dr. Martin, who was unable to accompany the patient, will take charge of the case.

BOLD STAGE ROBBERY.
Masked Men Hold Up the Redding Stage.

REDDING, July 28.—The Redding and Big Valley stage was robbed this morning by masked men, on the Bullskin Hill, twenty-five miles in length. The mail and express box were taken. No passengers were aboard. Dan De-forrest was driving the stage, which was coming this way.

The Ashland Tidings says: Mr.
F. A. Watts, of Shedd, Linn county, who bought the Hammond fruit tract of Dr. Helm last week will close out all his property interests in Linn county and come to Ashland to reside, finding the climate here much more desirable for him than that of the Willamette. He has bought two fine lots facing the Boulevard in Hunsaker's addition, and will build a handsome dwelling this season. Mr. Hunsaker is also making preparations to build a fine house for himself.

According to a Pendleton paper the citizens of that town have discovered a new method of accomplishing a mountain trip. It says: "The families of L. Hanson, Joe Murphy, and I. R. King are camping out a mile above the bridge, these gentlemen going there every evening to spend the night, and returning in the morning. They report that the arrangement is equal to any mountain excusion, and is much more convenient." S. G. Caudie, ex-county surveyor of Columbia county, and for many years a resident of St. Helens, left on Wednesday for the mineral springs of Arkansas, where he goes in hope that the waters may restore his failing health.

THE PEOPLE'S PALACE.

Work on the Great Structure Nearly Completed.

North American Review.
On the 14th of May, 1887, the newly built central hall of the People's Palace in East London, was opened by the Queen in the midst of an immense concourse of people.
The opening of the hall was, in fact, the opening of the People's Palace itself, because, with the aid of temporary buildings and sheds, the scheme of the trustees was immediately commenced, and has been carried on completely in nearly all its parts, though lettered as yet for want of room.
The palace, as it stands at present, consists only of the temporary sheds and the central hall. Externally the hall is hideous; but then it is the core of the whole palace, and its exterior will be invisible when the whole is built. This hall, which is capable of holding 6000 people at a picnic, is well proportioned and lofty; at one end stands an organ and a platform for the use of the singers and performers at concerts; a spacious gallery is built on either side; a statue of the queen stands over the entrance; the sides are adorned with statues of queens and princesses of Great Britain and Ireland; under the gallery are temporary bookshelves, for at present the hall is the library, and the body of the room is provided with tables and seats for readers and hundreds of papers from all parts of the world. At the upper end under the platform is the table where the librarians—two ladies—sit to advise the readers, to receive and give out the books. The place is always well filled. On Sundays especially, when the librarian's work is done by volunteers, it is crammed with orderly and quiet readers, who find here a place for rest and reading. The opening of the place on Sunday, although fiercely resisted by local bigots, has proved an unmixing blessing and boon to the people.
At the back of the hall the library is rapidly rising. It is an octagonal dome room, with book accommodation for 250,000 volumes. A present 8000 volumes, but it is rapidly growing. The ante-rooms of the library will be given over entirely for the use of the girls who form the "lady members." They will then have all to themselves, under the government of their own committee, their own music-room, tea-room, reading and writing-room and conversation-room.
At the back of the hall stands a long, two-storied building, which was formerly the dormitory of the school and almshouses which used to occupy the site. Fortunately this block was not pulled down, and it is now, pending the completion of the building, used for class-rooms.
The other buildings are a long corrugated iron structure used for the exhibitions, an iron building, which contains a gymnasium perfectly fitted up with all the modern appliances, a bil-iard-room furnished with half a dozen billiard and bagatelle tables in it, and a refreshment-room. There are also the secretarial offices, a small "ladies' room" fitted up for the girls, and the Palace Journal office.

When the whole building is completed these temporary buildings will disappear. The palace will contain in itself every thing, namely: Social clubs, club-rooms, billiard-rooms, lecture-rooms, reading-rooms, apart from the Queen's hall; class-rooms capable of accommodating an immense number of students; chemical and physical laboratories, and all the machinery of a great technical college and palace of delight.

The Sort of a Woman to Have.
Roseburg Review.
Mrs. Sol Abraham went on a visit to Glendale last week. While there the cook for the mill hands (about 40 in all) was taken sick, and no one else being available to do the cooking, one of two things had to be done, either the mill had to be shut down, or Mrs. Abraham had to take charge of and manage the culinary department. This she was competent to, and, donning her visiting attire, donned a Bridget's dress with white apron rolled up her sleeves, and as an Oregonian would say, "pitched in" and furnished their meat in due season, (bread, vegetables, coffee, etc., in plenty) and so the mill runs on full time.
Where, we ask, is the woman of Mrs.
Abraham's wealth and social standing and at her age that would soil her hands to prevent a loss in her husband's business, even under such circumstances. But Mrs. A. is equal to every emergency. She can grace the parlor, fill the president's chair or cook for a logging camp. She's the sort of a woman to have. Solomon made a wise choice.

An Ancient Volcano.
Baker City Reveille.
In the Pocahontas range of mountains west of this city, there is a peak, which from appearances was some day either a volcano or that its peculiar shape is due to volcanic eruptions. Its top is the same shape of Mount Hood, several times parties claim that smoke was seen issuing from it. A party is being organized to thoroughly examine and explore the mountain within the next week.

Another Strike.
Baker City Reveille.
Some strangers, who have been prospecting for quartz in the bald hills east of town, have struck a large body of free-milling gold ore just across Powder river from the town of Haines. Samples of ore have been crushed in a mortar and prove very rich. An arastra will be erected at once; the work of taking out the gold will commence shortly.
There is a large body of good ore east of the city which will yet be uncovered!

ST. ANTHONY'S SERMONS.

AN OLD LEBON'S APPLAIND.
Saint Anthony preached to the Priory through, Saint Anthony's sermons were terribly long, So dreary, so weary, so learnedly deep That all the Brothers were soon fast asleep.
He sighed as he looked at them, placid and still,
For he loved his own sermons, as some people will.
He stood on the brink and his sermon began,
But fish are no fonder of sermons than man.
So he girt up his cassock, quoth he, "I must try."
Foresaw they'll listen to me down below."
That night as the monk in refectory sat They wondered and asked what the saint could be at.
When a younger brother said as he bent o'er his dish:
"He has gone to the river to preach to the fish!"
So down to the river they started in quest, And peered through the water with curious zeal.
Till they spied in the bed of the river below
The saint and the fish sitting row upon row.
And 'tis said ever since that historical night Not a fish in that stream can be tempted to bite.
The reason's as plain as the waters are deep—Saint Anthony's sermons have sent them to sleep.

HUMOROUS DRIFT.

Happiness is only a relative, and some people find that it is a distant relative indeed.

If you don't want to be robbed of your good name don't have it engraved on your umbrella.

"Well," said an undertaker, "I am not much of a fighter, but when it comes to boxing I can easily lay out any man."

Miss Ethel—But surely, Clara, you wouldn't marry a man for his money?
Miss Clara—Certainly not, er—that is unless he was an old man.

A recently published book on etiqquette says: "Endeavor to select your guests with a sense of fitness." That is, do not invite a fat man to a slim dinner.

"When I look at the congregation," said a London preacher, "I say, 'where are the poor?' When I count the offering in the vestry, I say, 'where are the rich?'"

A St. Louis physician has cured a woman of chronic nervousness by compelling her to spend four weeks in a boiler factory, where she couldn't hear herself talk.

"Well, Edith, did Mr. Lambrecht wake you an offer of his hand last evening?" "No, mamma; he's so shy, you know—has never got any farther than offering me his arm, so far."

The photograph is the most polite machine in the world. It receives long speeches without a murmur, and with a sign for losing bored, and a crank can make it run.

She—Id love to see my name in print just once. He—Well, darling, marry me. She—But then it would be in twice, you know. Once for the wedding and once for the divorce.

The latest "victim of tobacco" is a sad case, indeed. He is 70 years old, has smoked for 60 years, and last week married a woman four years his senior. Tobacco smoking affected his brain.

Customer (in restaurant) I say, waiter, how about that broiled spring chicken? I ordered it half an hour ago. Waiter—Yes, said; he here in a minute. Dat spring chicken died very hard, sah!

She—Ralph, why did you send me a little red flag to-day? Ralph (a rejected and dejected suitor)—I beg you will wear it as a signal of danger.
You know, I would not like to see the other fellows suffer as I do now.

If ever there was a victim of misplaced confidence in this self-seeking world it is the man who imagines he is making the congregation believe he is wide awake while he is taking a little nap in church.

The cooling effect of ice is actually dependent upon its melting, as in this process the heat which causes it to melt is absorbed from the surrounding bodies. A pound of ice, in melting, will absorb sufficient heat to cool a pound of water from 174° F. to the freezing point, or to cool 142 pounds of water one degree. The heating power of steam is due to the converse of this principle. A pound of water converted into steam and passed into a radiator will, upon condensing, give out enough heat to raise one pound of water, or about 4.2 pounds of air,

Big Teen Years Over the Century.
There is living '63 miles northwest of Flandreau county, Dakota, an Indian woman by name of Hannah Weston (Centanus). At present she is living with her sixty-five-year grandson. She claims to have been six years old when the Revolutionary war broke out, which would make her about 118 years of age. She tells that her father was a chief, and fought with the English at the time. She wears a silver medal, which is three inches in diameter, and nearly one-fourth of an inch in thickness; on one side of the medal is a portrait of King George III. The medal was presented to her father by the King's agents at the time, and she prizes it very highly; money cannot buy it. She is totally blind, and has been for a number of years considerably emaciated, and the wrinkles upon her face are finger deep. Otherwise she enjoys good health, and is a heavy eater—Northwest Magazine.
