CALIFORNIA CURE
 THE ONLY GUARANTEED CURE FOR CATARRH OF THE NOSE
 "HAVE YOU A COLD IN THE HEAD WHICH DOES NOT GET BETTER? HAVE YOU AN EXCESSIVE SECRETION OF MUCUS OR MATTER IN THE NASAL PASSAGES WHICH EITHER MUST BE BLOWN FROM THE NOSE OR DROPPED BEHIND THE PALATE, OR HAWKED OR SMUFFLED BACKWARD TO THE THROAT? ARE YOU TROUBLED BY HAEMORRHOIDS, SPITTING, WEAK AND INFLAMED EYES, FREQUENT SORENESS OF THE THROAT, BRUISING OR ROARING IN THE EARS, MORE OR LESS IMPAIRMENT OF THE HEARING, LOSS OF SLEEP, MEMORY IMPAIRED, DULLNESS OR DIMNESS OF THE HEAD, DRYNESS OR HEAT OF NOSE? HAVE YOU LOST ALL SENSE OF SMELL? HAVE YOU A HICKING COUGH? HAVE YOU DESPONDENCY? IS YOUR BREATH FOUL? IF SO YOU HAVE THE CATARRH. Some have all these symptoms, others only a part. The leading symptom of ordinary catarrh is increased secretion of mucus of yellow or greenish colored matter. Foul breath is caused by the decomposing secretions exuded from festering ulcers far back in the head; sometimes the membrane covering the bones is gradually decayed. Such cases are indeed objects of pity, as stench from rotting sores reveals the corruption within. As every breath drawn into the lungs must pass over and become polluted by the relieving in the nasal passages, it must necessarily follow that poisoning of the whole secretory system, takes place, while the morbid matter that is swallowed during the sleep stinks into the stomach, retards digestion, and often produces dyspepsia, and finally, great nervousness and consumption."
DO NOT PROCRASTINATE.
 If you have experienced any of the above symptoms do not delay, but try CALIFORNIA CATARRH CURE. We positively warrant every few applications relieve and a thorough treatment to cure. Six months treatment for $1.00; sent by mail.

OLDEN TIME LORE.

A Woman Who Refused To Marry Abraham Lincoln.

AN ANECDOTE OF LINCOLN.

His First Political Speech—The Original Log Cabin of Tippecanoe Fame.

HONEY GROVE (Tex.), July 12.—A country correspondent of the Semi-Weekly Texas Citizen, published here, furnished the following item to his paper yesterday:
 Mrs. William Drenan, a respectable lady of this county, on a refusal to marry Abraham Lincoln who afterwards was President.
 Wishing to know if the statement made by the correspondent would "wash" and having a curiosity to see and talk to a lady who had been offered and declined an alliance with the martyr President the Globe Democrat reporter and friend this morning started out in search of the residence of the lady in question.
 It had rained the night before, and although we were seated behind a splendid livery team, which the proprietor said was good for ten miles an hour, we found the road to the Drenan farm quite hard to travel. After winding around through the creek bottom, and through lanes, the turnings of which were entirely too numerous, we were rewarded after about two hours' travel by a glimpse of what a colored man informed us was the Drenan farm.
 A full-blooded Irish settee, an English pointer and half a dozen greyhounds greeted our approach, with cries of "Come back" from an old gentleman, and an invitation to "Light and come in."

We were greeted with a cordial "Good morning" by a cherry old gentleman of 73 summers, who kindly invited us to enter with the old-time Texan hospitality, and in the same breath asked how he could serve us. A statement of our desire to see Mrs. Drenan elicited from the old gentleman a cry of "Old woman," which was answered by the appearance of a tall, well-preserved lady of dignified and prepossessing appearance, to whom our host presented us in due form, and who proved to be the lady we were in search of, and who once declined the honor of an alliance with Abraham Lincoln.
 In answer to our questions Mrs. Drenan informed us that she was a native of Dancombe county, N. C., where she was born in May 1816, and from whence her parents moved to Sangamon county, Ill., in 1830. Shortly after their settlement in Sangamon county she met young Mr. Lincoln at one of the social gatherings which were rather infrequent at that early day, and the acquaintance thus casually made was continued until 1832, some time in the autumn of which year Mr. Lincoln made the young lady, Miss Martha Wilson, a formal offer of marriage.
 A previous attachment however, led Miss Wilson to decline the offer of Mr. Lincoln, for whom she protests, she had a sincere, though Platonic, regard. She gave us many reminiscences of the early life of the rail splitter President and his associates, which would make interesting reading matter for the present generation, from which the following incident is offered as showing the straightforward homely character of Mr. Lincoln:
 Mrs. Drenan said that at one time before Mr. Lincoln had proposed to her, she attended church one Sunday at a place which was several miles from her home, and was accompanied by three other young ladies of her neighborhood, all of them riding to the place of worship on horseback. The party of girls were escorted by a couple of youths of tender age, and among the congregation assembled was the mother of Mr. Lincoln, who also came on horseback by herself, her son "Abc" being absent at the county seat, attending to some legal business. Before the conclusion of the services a thunderstorm came up, and when the congregation was dismissed the rain was descending in torrents. The young ladies were standing in the schoolhouse in which the services had been held, debating whether they should start out in the rain or wait till it was over, when Mr. Lincoln was seen driving along the road in a covered "top buggy," the road passing in front of the schoolhouse. Naturally the young ladies began to speculate as to which one of them would be invited to a seat in his buggy, finally agreeing that he would certainly ask Miss Wilson, as it was current neighborhood gossip then that he was "sweet on her." Mr. Lincoln stopped in front of the house, came in, and after shaking hands with the preacher and speaking to numerous friends, waited over to one corner of the building, where his mother sat conversing with some other ladies, and said:
 "Come on mother, I'll take you home."
 In 1833 Miss Wilson was mar-

GENERAL NEWS.

Our Usual Budget of News from Washington.

HOTEL STRUCK BY LIGHTNING.

President Cleveland Retains to the White House With His Nose Scourged—The Warlike Indians.

WASHINGTON, July 31.—In the senate to-day Frye, from the select committee on Pacific railroads, reported on the Union Pacific founding bill, providing for the settlement of claims accrued out of the issue of bonds to secure the payment of all the indebtedness. He said the bill is the Outhwaite bill as reported to the house, containing many amendments over the bill as it came from the commission originally. The senate report is signed by all the members of the committee. The bill relates only to the Union Pacific and Central branch, having nothing whatever to do with the Central Pacific. The committee found much greater difficulty in formulating the adjustment and settlement with the Central Pacific than with the Union Pacific, and is not prepared at the present time to make any report as to the former company. It is barely possible that it may be necessary to amend the bill when it is under consideration.

RETURNED TO THE WHITE HOUSE

President Cleveland Gets Back Scourged and Tired.

WASHINGTON, July 31.—The president, postmaster-general and Col. Lamont arrived in Washington this morning. There was a small crowd of travelers in the station, but the president passed through almost unrecognized. He and Col. Lamont were driven directly to the white house. They both much surprised. Col. Lamont said, "The president went on board the Susquehanna Thursday night and did not leave her except to sit until last night at 11 o'clock." The stories about his visits to various places on the route are untrue. He did not take a meal off the yacht and there was no one in the party at any time except those who were with us when we left New York.

GEN. ALGER IN INDIANAPOLIS.

He Calls on Gen. Harrison—A Brilliant Reception.

INDIANAPOLIS, July 31.—Gen. Alger arrived in Indianapolis today and was met at the depot by a committee from the Harrison club and escorted to the residence of Gen. Harrison. Arrangements were made for the New York delegation with three bands and about 500 members of local republican clubs to meet Gen. Alger at Harrison's residence this afternoon.

HOTEL STRUCK BY LIGHTNING.

Great Scare Among the Guests—One Injured.

CHICAGO, July 31.—The guests at the Palmer House were startled in their sleep this morning by a terrible clap of thunder, accompanied by a very perceptible shock in all parts of the house. Thoughts of dynamite and earthquakes caused nearly all the guests to hurriedly dress and crowd pell mell through the corridors. Meantime, the few passers on the streets were kept busy dodging the flying splinters of timber. A flagstaff on the northwest corner of the building was found shattered to pieces by lightning. Roofs were quickly stretched across the sidewalk to keep pedestrians out of the possible danger of some huge cornices falling. Investigation showed, however, that the actual damage done by the bolt was very slight, notwithstanding the great scare given hundreds of people in the hotel.

RAILWAY DISTRESS.

Ten Cars and Three Engines Wrecked, but no One Hurt.

SACRAMENTO, July 31.—The east-bound and west-bound freight trains collided at Antelope station at 4 o'clock this morning. Ten cars were badly wrecked and three engines disabled. No one was injured. The track was cleared at 10:20.

AFTER THE INDIANS.

The Raiding Parties to be Promptly Intercepted.

WASHINGTON, July 31.—A dispatch was forwarded to General Howard from the commanding general of the department of Arizona, which states that all the post commanders have been notified to use every effort to promptly intercept the raiding parties of Indians.
Death of Dr. Morris.
LOUISVILLE, July 31.—Dr. Robert Morris died this morning at his home in Lagrange from paralysis, aged 70 years. Morris was the prelate laureate of masonry and was the most distinguished Mason in the world.
