GENERAL NEWS.

Murderer Maxwell Hanged Along With Landgraf.

THE STORY OF THEIR CRIME.

A Violator of Women Taken from the Jail by a Mob and Hanged in Tennessee—A Big Fire

The Herald's Special Dispatches.
ST. LOUIS, Aug. 10.—Maxwell was hanged at 8:56. The crime for which Hugh M. Brooks, alias Maxwell, paid the extreme penalty of the law was the murder of Charles Arthur Preller at the Southern hotel in this city, April 6, 1885.
Henry Landgraf, who killed his sweetheart, was hanged with Maxwell. The crime for which Henry Landgraf suffered the death penalty, was committed on the night of March 5, 1885. The victim was his sweetheart, Annie Fisk, a beautiful girl of less than 18 years. Jealousy prompted the deed.

SWIFT JUSTICE.

A Brutal Fiend Taken from the Jail and Hanged by a Mob.

NASHVILLE, (Tenn.), Aug. 10.—Amos Miller, who outraged Mrs. Scott, of Maury county two months ago, was taken from the court room at Franklin to-day by forty armed men and hung to the balcony.

THE CHATANOOGA FIRE.

The Loss Will Reach $400,000—Four Men Burned to Death.

CHATANOOGA, (Tenn.), Aug. 10.—The loss by last night's fire is $400,000. The wall fell on four men still under the debris. J. B. McMillen, a prominent citizen, was lost in fire, but the names of the others are unknown. The men who got out are probably fatally injured.

SOME TOUGH CITIZENS.

A Youth Who Boasts of Killing Nine Persons.

LOS ANGELES, Aug. 10.—This afternoon the constable of Los Nietos brought to the County Jail Dick Perry, who was committed by Justice Van Slyck of Downey for trial on a charge of assault to murder James Phelan. The affair grew out of a dispute between the men, who were cultivating some land together, and has no features of special interest. The history of the prisoner Perry, however, is a remarkable one. He is 73 years old, has resided in this section many years, and is said to have acknowledged killing nine persons, eight men and one woman.

REMEMED BY A TRAIN.

Shocking Discovery Made by a Section Gang.

SAN BUENAVENTURA, August 10.—When the section gang went to work this morning they found a mile east of the depot, the body of a man on the track with his head cut off, he having been run over by a train. His head was lying some forty feet from the body, badly cut and bruised. The body was identified as that of Dan Kinsell, a laborer on Everett's fruit farm. Kinsell had been in town over Sunday, drinking some, and it is supposed he started home late evening and sat down by the track to rest, fell asleep and was run over by the 7:30 o'clock express train. The deceased is said to have relatives in San Francisco.

AMERICAN FISHERMEN.

A War Vessel Ordered to the Gulf of St. Lawrence.

NEWPORT, (R. I.), August 10.—A vessel of the North Atlantic squadron has been ordered to proceed to the fishing grounds in the Gulf of St. Lawrence to look after American interests and afford fishermen protection and assistance. It is the desire of the Navy Department to have at least one vessel among the American fishing fleets at all times. No trouble is expected, but it is thought this will have a good moral effect upon our fishermen, and impress upon their minds the fact that the Government is looking after their interests. Should Canadian cruisers try the old game of seizing American fishermen it is thought three ships may be sent north at the same time.

PERSONAL.

Mr. N. H. Frohlichstein, of Mobile Alabama writes: I take great pleasure in recommending Dr. King's New Discovery for consumption, having used it for a severe attack of Bronchitis and Catarrh. It gave me instant relief and entirely cured me and I have not been afflicted since. I also beg to state that I had tried other remedies with no good result. Have also used Electric Bitters and Dr. King's New Life Pills, both of which I can recommend. Dr. King's New Discovery for consumption, coughs, and colds, is sold on a positive guarantee. Trial bottles free at Foshay & Mason's Drug Store.

WELL BORED.

E. B. Davidson has sent for a machine for boring wells and in a few days will be ready to bore wells anywhere in the section two to fourteen inches in diameter, any depth.

STATE DISPATCHES.

Blaine's Return.

He is Enthusiastically Greeted by Thousands of People.

A ROYAL RECEPTION TENDERED.

A Cry of "No Free Trade" A Big Demonstration on Sea and on Land—A Cheering Multitude.

Special to the Herald.
NEW YORK CITY, Aug. 10.—The steambot Laura M. Starin has just passed up the North river with James G. Blaine on board, was sighted early this morning.
GOING TO MEET HIM.
The steambot Laura M. Starin has just passed up the North river with James G. Blaine on board. The steamer City of New York was close behind and handsomely decorated with flags. The tugs of the port are also blowing a salute.
A ROYAL RECEPTION.
The steamer City of New York was loaded five miles off Sandy Hook, while at anchor waiting for high tide to cross the bar, by representatives of the press, who learned that the voyage had been a pleasant and uneventful one. Blaine was well and had not suffered from seasickness. He said he was in excellent health and that his trip had renewed his youth. Shortly after 8 o'clock the steamer Starin, with the Blaine committee on board, met the City of New York outside of the Narrows. The Starin turned about and as both slowly steamed up the bay bow and bow cheer after cheer rose from the deck of the Starin, although it was yet impossible to distinguish Blaine from among the 2000 people that stood on the deck of the huge steamer. As the vessels neared each other Blaine's form was at last made out, standing in a group of friends on the upper deck forward. As cheer after cheer arose Blaine bowed repeatedly. He was neatly dressed in a dark cutaway coat, light trousers and a brown derby hat. The band on the steamer played "Home, Sweet Home," "Home Again" and "Star Spangled Banner," while advancing up the quarantine. Then both vessels came to anchor, and as the Starin ran over under the side of the City of New York, Blaine's face and form was plainly visible to every one on board. Cheers again broke forth, and the band played "Home, Sweet Home" and "Star Spangled Banner." Blaine and "James G. Blaine" and "No free trade!" arose, and the utmost enthusiasm prevailed. At last at 9:15, to the music of "Hail to the Chief," Blaine got on board the Starin, escorted by Whitehall Reid.
He was conveyed amid great enthusiasm from the Starin to the Fifth Avenue Hotel, where he received the big crowd, and in his speech to the immense throng he expressed his warmest feelings of respect for his friends who had so honored him on his return.

How to Keep Cool.

Don't get excited.
Bathe frequently.
Leave alcohol alone.
Don't overfeed.
If you must drink, drink slowly and sparingly. It is the throat, not the stomach that is dry.
Don't drink large quantities of ice water. Put oatmeal in it. Lemonade is better still.
Keep your temper even.
Cold water, poured on the wrist where the pulse is, is cooling.
Warm baths before going to bed open the pores of the skin and induce perspiration.
Don't get angry.
Don't argue.
Don't worry.
A contented mind can stand more heat with less suffering than a fretful one.
Passionate men see everything like a man standing on his head—a hot position.
Don't be chump enough to swear for fashion's sake.
Clothes light in color are the coolest as light goods reflect the sun's rays, and dark ones absorb them.
To Avoid Contagion.
In a lecture recently given to women in Philadelphia, a physician prescribed the best method of preventing contagion or infection. The lecturer said: The best way to prevent poison from being absorbed by the lungs is to have the stomach full during a period of contact or exposure. The lungs absorb while empty, but throw off during digestion, never absorbing while digestion is going on. While watching at night the nurse should take a light lunch, such as beef tea or crackers, every few hours. Another point of protection against contagion is personal cleanliness and frequent changes of inside and outside clothing.

Settled Him.

The Rev. Myron Reed, of Colorado, who ran as the Democratic Congressional candidate in that State two years ago, was once interrupted in the midst of a public prayer by a man who shouted "blunder!" Reed stopped short, looked at the interrupter, and said coolly: "I wasn't addressing you, sir I was addressing the Almighty!" Then he went on with his prayer.
