O. & C. R. R. TIME TABLE. NORTH BOUND. SOUTH BOUND. LEBANON BRANCH.

OREGON PACIFIC TIME TABLE. Arrives. Departs.

NOTINGS ABOUT TOWN.

The Albany college will reopen Sept. 11th. Charles LaFollett, of Crook county, is in the city. Fresh butter on ice, hard and sweet at C. H. Spencer's. Girl wanted to do general housework. Inquire of M. Sternberg. Fresh cream soda crackers just received at Kenton's, 25c per box. A girl wanted to do general housework. Apply to Chas. E. Brush. A fine line of gold headed canes and fountain pens at Will & Stark's. A full stock of justly celebrated Cheddar cheese on hand at C. H. Spencer's. J. H. Burkhardt and wife will leave next week for a trip to the South. The regular Saturday excursions over the Oregon Pacific to Yaquina are well patronized. Mrs. W. T. Hearst and Mrs. Mathews returned from Yaquina yesterday. Waterloo soda water, fresh from the spring, in any quantity, at C. H. Spencer's. A nice lot canvassed hams and breakfast bacon just received at C. H. Spencer's. Chas. Monteith, F. E. Allen and family, and Geo. P. Warner and family went to Yaquina yesterday. F. J. Botsford, agent at Portland of the Farmers and Merchants Insurance Co., of this city, is in the city. Patronize home industry and try some of J. Joseph's Havana filled 5c cigars, the first of his own manufacture. Just received at Knapp, Burrell & Co.'s, a large invoice of birding twine, which will be sold at 15 cents per pound. Parties desiring fine yellow Crawford peaches should call early at Wallace & Thompson's, as they are now in their prime. I keep Waterloo soda water on ice, and nothing can be more refreshing or healthful this hot weather. C. H. Spencer. M. Fuller, M. Hyde, James and Wm. Schooling and E. F. Wyatt, of Harrisburg, were in the city yesterday. A tramp was rescued from the Willamette below Salem the other day, after he had floated down some three miles on a board. My stock of groceries and provisions is fully up to its former standard, always the best quality and at reasonable prices. C. H. Spencer. Edward Goin, the rustling proprietor of the Scio flouring mills, was in the city yesterday on his way home from a trip to San Francisco. Julius Gradwohl has just received a fine line of glassware, crockery, etc., from Eastern factories, which the public are invited to call and inspect. Bishop Chas. C. Galloway will preach in the M. E. Church South in this city next Tuesday evening at 7:30 o'clock. All are invited to come and hear this able minister. Now that work is to be resumed on the O. P. railroad the future for Albany is very bright. Call on Curran & Monteith and secure a lot in Hackleman's 3d addition. Prices range from $100 to $250. Terms easy. F. L. Kenton is just in receipt of a good assortment of very choice tea, to which he invites the attention of his customers. He will hereafter make a specialty of supplying his customers with the best tea to be obtained in the San Francisco market. Yamhill's county seat is somewhat agitated over a case of small-pox that has broken out there. A young man named Frank Bynum is the victim and it is supposed he contracted the disease from a fellow who came to the city a stranger with whom he kept close company. Work on the new hotel of the Ashland hotel company is going on at a lively rate. Backslaying began Wednesday. H. G. Clark, of Albany, has the contract to do the brick work and expects it will take five weeks to complete it. W. H. Wickham still has a force of men at work on the foundation but will complete his contract this week.—Ashland Tidings.

A NAUGHTY YOUTH

A Smooth Faced Boy Who Seeks Notoriety as a Pugilist, is Fined 25. A firely little youth, named Arthur Knoeller, who has gained some undesirable notoriety by engaging in quarrels, in which he threatened with dire destruction a number of young men, and annoying the police court with petty offenses, went out to the depot hotel yesterday morning, where he had formerly worked as a waiter, and used such abusive and profane language that he was ejected from the place by Mr. Gross. He was arrested and fined 5 and 60s for the same. He wanted revenge and swore out a complaint for the arrest of Mr. Gross on a charge of assaulting him. The case came up yesterday afternoon, and on motion of the defendant a change of venue was taken to Justice Humphrey's court, to be tried Monday. Knoeller is perhaps 17 years old, and has during the past few days managed to scrape up half a dozen fights of small order in which he made big threats of shooting, which he tried in vain to bring into police court. A house of correction or a recumbent position across his mother's knee with a vigorous application of the maternal slipper is what he needs.

THE OREGON PACIFIC.

Work is Being Fished Rapidly Forward—Tracklayers at Work. Mr. A. Brink, contractor on the Oregon Pacific work eastward, was in the city yesterday. A large force of men are hard at work laying rails, and men are wanted to engage in work on the road. The engineers expect to pass D. Smith's this fall if some considerable bridges and blasting do not hinder. It has been found that the winter rains have hardly washed out anything worth speaking, along the portion of the line which has been graded. There is a camp of engineers about four miles beyond Smith's, and as much of the grading is comparatively easy, rapid progress will be made when that neighborhood is reached. The Oregon Pacific company has been paying off its employees, and work along the route promises to fairly hum this fall, which means lively times in this city. Teamsters are now going to the front with supplies, while the 500 tons of steel rails recently received at Yaquina will be taken to the front by construction trains. Mr. E. J. O'Connor, who returned from the front last evening, states that about a mile of track has already been laid.

He Was no Granger.

There was a foot race at Salem a short time since, which, like most of such affairs in this region, turns out to be a put up job. Dick Patton, of Salem, is a fast runner and has won a number of races, but his fame has spread too far, and that is what's the matter. There came into Salem town a rough looking fellow from the Willamette valley, apparently of the horny-handed granger order, who let it get out that he could run and expressed a willingness to race against Patton. The friends of the latter, thinking they had struck a pudding, bet their money freely, and their bets were promptly taken. When the racers started the stranger soon gained the lead and in forty yards had gained fifteen feet on Patton, who, seeing that he had been sold, gave up the race. It turned out that the stranger granger was a professional foot racer who had put up this piece of crooked work on the Salem boys. At least this is the story which one of the boys tells of the matter. It recalls the trick played on the Yamhill county folks a few years ago by Kittelman, the sprinter.

Large Cattle

F. M. Hyde, of Harrisburg, sold to Mr. McGregor, of Portland, recently the finest lot of twenty-two beef cattle that ever left Linn county. One four-year-old steer, raised by E. E. Upmeyer, two miles east of Harrisburg, tipped the scales at 1850 pounds. The animal is part Short Horn Durham breed and certainly was a magnificent specimen. He will be saved for exhibition at the next fat cattle show in Portland. The price Mr. Hyde realized for him was $78.40.

Tindie Recovering.

It now appears that the chances are good for the recovery of Layton Tindie, the young man who was beaten over the head by William Davis, at Ballston, on Friday, the 10th inst. Yesterday he was perfectly conscious and was able to sit up for a short time. His skull was not crushed as was at first reported, and it is probable that he will entirely recover from the effects of the assault.

Board of Trade Meeting.

The regular monthly meeting of the Albany Board of Trade will be held at the G. A. R. hall on Tuesday evening, August 21. Business of importance will be transacted, and a full attendance will be present.

Good Assay.

Messrs. Brownell & Donlay have received an assay of $50 per ton from a sample of their White Elephant ledge located in the San Juan Mining region. The ore was assayed at Salt Lake City.

The Hecker vs. Fair.

This office is in receipt of a complimentary ticket to the tenth annual exhibition of the Portland mechanics' fair, which will open on the 4th and close the 27th of October. It promises to be one of the most successful exhibitions ever held.

EDUCATIONAL SUMMER RESORT.

Oregon Teachers Negotiating for Land on Line of the Oregon Pacific. President Van Scoy and Prof. W. S. Arnold and other members of the Willamette university faculty have been negotiating with parties at Mills City and Stayton for the purchase of twenty acres near the former place, the same to be transformed into a park to be used as a summer home for the faculty of the university and as a vacation-term school for teachers and students who wish to employ their leisure thus profitably. These summer schools are very popular in the East, the Chautauqua assembly, which takes the lead of all, having won a world-wide reputation. At present negotiations are at a standstill owing to a disagreement in price between one of the owners and the intending purchasers; but Prof. Van Scoy says that if this tract is not bought some other one near it will be, and that next summer the active work of getting the park in shape, erecting buildings, etc., for the school will be commenced. For a time the idea of locating the park near Silver Creek falls was seriously discussed; but it has been deemed advisable by those having the matter in hand to locate it nearer to the line of the Oregon Pacific railroad, so that it will be easy of access to teachers' excursions and others who wish to attend the school, and also to furnish better facilities for those who wish to go further back in the mountains on botanical and mineralogical expeditions.

A GREAT SHOW.

Sell Bros. Circus One of the Best that ever Visited Oregon. If we can believe those who have recently seen the exhibitions of this justly renowned circus and menagerie, it must be admitted that among the peripatetic exhibitions of the day, there are none that have received a prominence more signal and pronounced than that of the Sell Brothers; nor are we able to record an instance of any tented exhibition giving more general and merited satisfaction. Its every act and feature is remarkable, and the majority can well be characterized as "phenomenal." As an adroit, sensational and entirely original act, that of riding, reining and driving twenty-three bareback horses, by Mr. William O'Dell, will commend itself to all lovers of the difficult and dashing in equestrianism. Of Mr. Showles' elegant and artistic bareback riding and of Mr. William Sells' "hurricane hurdle riding," we have had occasion to speak in former seasons, and further commendation is now superfluous. So it is with the graceful, poetic and perfected bareback riding of Senoimia Caroni. Of gymnastic and athletic exploits by a large company of acrobats and athletes, there is such a bewildering and sense-astounding multiplicity that comment is non-plussed, and to speak of the unqualified merits of each in detail would far transcend our limit. We can not close this article, however, without a brief mention of the champion wing, fancy and rifle shots of the world, Capt. A. H. Bogardus. "The Man who Shoots to Kill," and his four remarkable sons, each of whom exemplify all the possibilities of the gun. The show will exhibit here, Monday, August 27.

Suit to Recover Money.

Suit was brought in Justice Humphrey's court yesterday by James Schooling against E. F. Wyatt to recover $15 alleged to be due on an account transferred to the plaintiff by Wm. McDaniel. A similar suit was also brought against Marion Hyde for $60. The plaintiff was required to give bonds for costs, and the cases were postponed until Monday.

Teachers' Examination.

Notice is hereby given that the regular public quarterly examination of teachers for Linn county will be held in Albany, at the Court house commencing at noon on Wednesday, Aug. 29, 1888. All teachers desiring examination will please be present at the beginning. L. M. CURR, County Superintendent.

The Waterloo Springs.

For solid enjoyment go to Waterloo, which is now the most popular resort. Fine locality, fishing, boating and bathing, and splendid accommodations at J. A. Gross', whose prices are reasonable. Horses fed at the lowest possible rates. Campers can get supplies at Mr. Gross' store. Mr. Gross will meet the 2 o'clock Lebanon train on Mondays and Saturdays.

Deep Sea Fishing Excursions.

The steamer Mischief is prepared to take parties out to sea from Newport fishing, and will make frequent trips when the weather is pleasant. Parties desiring to go on some particular day will please send notice ahead. Tickets $1, not including meals. Address J. J. Winant, master of steamer Mischief, Newport.

Railroad Laborers Wanted.

One hundred men wanted to engage in rock work, and as teamsters on the Oregon Pacific railroad. Apply to headquarters at the end of the track. A. BRINK.

That dispatch about Cleveland withdrawing from the presidential race was not so much of a comedienne as it was, however, a little premature as he will not withdraw until November, and it will take effect on March 4th.

THE WOOLLY WEST.

Said the Eastern trade reformer: "You are 'woolly' in the West. You are rude and you are foolish, and it's to your interest to let us put on the polish—we who know just what is best. We'll attempt the task with pleasure; we'll go to it with zest." Well remove at once the tariff, which we look on as a pest. The tariff now on wools, which we cordially detest. Then let our goods entirely with the population west. In English wool from English sheep will create one dressed. You can't get wool from no market—you can realize the rest. And you bet you won't be charged with being 'woolly' in the West. The old farmer gave attention, but he did not seem impressed. He shook his head and quietly remarked he rather guessed we could stand it awhile longer being 'woolly' in the West. —Chicago Mail.
