Edward Goin, proprietor of the Sisco-mills, was in the city yesterday. A fine line of gold headed canes and fountain pens at Will & Stark's.

There is a scarcity of butter in the Albany markets at 25 cents per pound. Those silver knives and forks are the best manufactured, and are fully warranted.

Perry Conn and wife, Geo. and Benj. Young and families left yesterday for the mountains. W. I. Vawter, of Halsey, who will soon open a bank at Medford was in this city yesterday.

The new Southern Methodist church at Spicer will be dedicated next Sunday by Bishop Galloway. Special bargains in flooring and rustic for the next sixty days at C. J. Dillon & Co.'s, at foot of Lyon street.

Patronize home industry and try some of J. Joseph's Havana filled 5c. cigars, the first of his own manufacture.

Mrs. Virgil Parker and family, Mrs. Elder, Mr. Jay Blaine and family and others went to Yaquina yesterday.

A BURGLAR CAUGHT.

James W. Cross Lodged in Jail for House-Breaking Near Shedd. Constables Roy Meyer and R. Cruise of Shedd brought to this city last night one James W. Cross, who had been arrested at that place and tried before Justice Ellison and held in $300 bonds for burglarizing the house of James Mooney, a bachelor living near that place.

He had carried away a quantity of clothing and articles of value, considerable of which was found upon his person. He was lodged in jail last night to await the action of the grand jury. As there seems to be no mistake as to his being the right man he may be said to be fairly en route to the penitentiary.

SCHOOL FUND APPORTIONMENT.

Two August Apportionment of School Funds for the Schools of Linn County.

The school fund apportionment for August was completed yesterday by county school superintendent L. M. Curl, the per capita rate being $2.05. It is as follows:

Table with columns for No. Dist., No. Scholars, and Apportionment, listing data for various school districts.

Salmon Fishing.

Salmon fishing has been in progress at Yaquina about a week, but the run has not fairly commenced yet, as no more are caught than can supply the demand for shipping purposes while fresh. A gentleman who has returned from Siuslaw informs the Eugene Guard that fishing began on the Siuslaw last Sunday. The catch on that night was light, Monday 200 and Tuesday 70. The fish are large and in fine condition. Only eight boats were employed. The amount of fish furnished thus far is not enough to supply the cannery and the cannery men are dissatisfied. The resident fishermen have formed a union to the number of 100, and will not allow outside fishermen to fish, and as only a few of them are ready to commence, sufficient fish are not furnished to keep the cannery running. Forty cents each are paid for the large fish. The season on the Siuslaw continues until about the first of November but the first fish caught are much the best.

Just received at W. F. Read's a full line of ladies' fine-trimmed underwear, also girls' white dresses and infants' slips. Call and see them.

COMING NEXT WEEK

Sells Bros. Model Hippodrome, Circus and Menagerie.

If there is anything in the way of immensity, grandeur and superlative general excellence in organization, their standard tented exhibition, which the Sells Bros. have not provided for or have neglected to procure it has not been made manifest by a visit. They have long been in the van in arctic entertainments, but not satisfied with merely "running with the hounds," they have this year determined to lead the pack, and have devoted the entire winter vacation to vastly augmenting and adding to the attractive features of their already formidable show and to disposing by auction of all worn out, discarded and no longer serviceable material and replacing the same with spic-span new paraphernalia and with never-before presented specialties. The Roman hippodrome, which forms but a quota of their attractions, will revive in the memories of the visitors the traditions of the turf and gladiatorial sports of the golden days of Rome, and will present thrilling and realistic duplications of the exciting pastime of that classic period. The fresh faces of many equestrians—equestrians and gymnasts who have won renown at home and abroad—will be seen in the circus rings, and numberless prominent new acts that are astounding will be presented. Those animals in the zoological department which from being annually exhibited for a number of years are no longer attractive have been disposed of at public sale, and have been replaced by new and rare accessions. The pair of gigantic living hippopotami, the only pair exhibited in the world, outside of one or two zoological gardens in Europe, have been retained. The show will exhibit in Albany, Monday, Aug. 27.

Oregon Wagon Road Bills.

The house committee on public lands will take up the Oregon wagon road bills next Monday, provided a quorum of the committee be present. There are two bills before the committee, one sent to congress by the president, which forfeits outright three of the wagon road grants in this state. The other is a bill by Dolph, which has already passed the senate. It provides that the whole matter be referred to a court, which shall investigate it thoroughly, and that the court shall have power to forfeit the grants if it finds that the conditions upon which they are made have not been fulfilled. It shall have power also to confirm the grants, if it finds that the conditions upon which they were made have been fulfilled. The chairman of the committee, Holman, of Indiana, is in favor of the president's bill and is working hard to secure its adoption.

Wheat.

Grain circles have been considerably excited in San Francisco during the past few days, and there was a perceptible advance in wheat. In this city wheat has advanced to 67 cents. The market has a firm tone, brought about by advices from Liverpool of heavy purchases there, owing to the shortage of crops in England and in France. The advance in charters of bottoms in San Francisco may prevent a rise in wheat to the mark indicated by foreign markets, but at least there is a hopeful tone to the Pacific coast markets, with rising prices.

A Straw.

A commercial traveler who was in Salem yesterday informed a reporter that while at Eugene City a few days ago he and several other "knights of the grip-sack" made up a complete list of the commercial travelers, who make periodical trips through the valley. They counted 113 of them and out of this number 104 were republicans, nine democrats and nary a prohi mugwump in the lot.—Salem Statesman.

Emimently Correct.

Albany is taking time by the forelock and protecting herself against fire. Last Thursday they tested their new steamer and it worked like a charm. It will be accepted by the council. They have now one hand engine and two steamers, besides one of the best water works systems in the state.—Corvallis Times.

The price of tickets has been placed at $1.50, and the spacious armory will be dedicated on that evening in the presence of a very large assemblage.

Wheat Market.

This is a common heading in newspapers now, and Mr. Julius Gradwohl certainly offers sound advice to farmers when he says that for the same reason a business man will not place wheat in the warehouse without insuring it, farmers cannot afford to store wheat without having it insured. It costs but a trifle and may save a whole crop. The truth of this will be seen when on every hand we hear of wheat being burned, the loss invariably falling upon the farmers, as business men always insure theirs. Call and see Mr. Gradwohl, and have your wheat insured.

Returned from Mt. Hood.

Messrs. Crawford & Littler, the photographers, have returned from their Mt. Hood trip. They secured about 100 fine views and brought back some interesting mineral specimens gathered from the side of the mountain. Among other things was the jaw bone of some unknown herbivorous animal which will be sent to Prof. Condon of the state university.

Afflicted with Paralysis.

Rev. E. R. Prichard and family returned from Yaquina yesterday for the purpose of consulting a physician for their little son. The latter, who was recovering from a severe illness, became paralyzed while at the seaside, and the advice of their physician they will return to-day to Yaquina in hope benefiting his health.
