COMING TO OREGON.

Californians Who Are Locating in Albany and Purchasing Farms in Linn County.

The Argus, published at Biggs Butte county California says: Mr. L. L. Williams returned home Friday last from his trip through the "Webb foot" State, highly pleased with what he saw there. Mr. Williams was so pleased with the Willamette valley, that he purchased an excellent farm of 408 acres situated twelve miles east of Albany, and a timber claim of fifteen acres lying about five miles distant from his farm. While in Oregon Mr. Williams made his headquarters at the hospitable home of our old friend and neighbor, Henry LaSell, who has one of the finest farms in Oregon, nicely improved, and only three miles from the homestead purchased by Mr. Williams. All the family, (excepting D. D. Williams) will remove to Oregon in the near future and although we regret their departure, we congratulate the good people of the sister State on the north in the valuable addition to their population they will have when the Williams family locate there. The same paper says: "Our old neighbor and friend, Melvin W. Parker departed on the night train Tuesday morning via San Francisco. He will open a first class restaurant in the growing city of Albany in a new brick erected by Judge R. S. Strahan, and knowing that he understads the restaurant business fully we have no doubt he will meet with success. Mrs. Parker and family will follow her husband in a short time. As the boom in California dies out the people then are looking this way for busines locations and farms and many enterprising Californians are becoming citizens of Oregon.

An Exploring Party.

Friday's overland California express carried a party of three young men from Portland bent upon an interesting mission. W. G. Steel, S. S. Nicholine and E. D. Dewert left for Josephine county, where they will explore the famous Josephine county caves and afterwards Crater lake. These caves are labyrinthine in their internal structure and have never been fully explored. It is thought that investigators have penetrated to the distance of some three miles, though no accurate or actual measurements have been taken. Mr. Dewert carries with him a complete photographic outfit, and in addition to exterior views will endeavor to reproduce scenes in the caves by the aid of a flash light. He will also take views while the party are at Crater lake. Should the flash light prove successful, many interesting pictures may be looked for, as Mr. Dewert supplied himself with a large number of plates. The trip is expected to extend over some ten days.

Creamery Burned.

Deal, O'Reilly & Co.'s creamery, which is situated on the Columbia midway between Suppoose and Holbrook, burned to the ground at 3 o'clock Friday morning. As near as could be learned, the building and contents, valued at about $3000, burned to the gronnd. The loss is fully covered by insurance. The fire is supposed to be the work of an incendiary, as there was no fire in or about the building.

Ran Into a Sewer.

Friday evening as Dr. McAlister was returning home from the country in a buggy he ran into the new sewer being constructed on Ellsworth street. The sewer had been excavated entirely across the street and no light or guard had been erected to warn teams of the danger. The horses fell and were piled up in the ditch and the buggy and the doctor on top of them. The horses were cut loose and taken out somewhat crippled, and the buggy was broken, while the doctor was considerably bruised. He states that he expects the city to foot the bill of damages.

Will Arrive This Morning.

Sells Bros. big circus showed at Corvallis last night and will arrive in this city this morning, preparatory to erecting the huge canvas on the vacant ground near the Oregon Pacific depot for their exhibition to-morrow. The circus comes on its own special train, and will be one of the biggest shows ever in this city.

Now that Albany is the center of extensive railroad building and fast adding to the many enterprises becoming the chief ousiness city of the Willamette Valley, the shrewd man with an eye on the main chance, will invest in real estate in this city. Many are daily doing so, and the land bought invariably advances in price and makes money for the purchaser while he is asleep.

One of the most desirable locations to purchase lots, which are yet offered at very low figures, is in Hackleman's Third Addition to Albany, recently laid out, and in the hands of Messrs. A home can be procured here for what would be paid for rents in a short time, while the purchaser reaps the benefit of the advance in the property.

Campbell, accompanied by her mother, Mrs. D. Stump, will start Monday for Canton, Missouri, where they will join the Prof., who is now president of the Christian College of that place. Mrs. Stump will remain during the winter.

Quick Work.

Last evening when the boys started to turn on the water at the electric light works, it was found that something was wrong with the gate, and the engine had to be fired up to run the lights with. The fires were started in the immense boiler, and just a few moments later than usual the lights were in running shape and working to perfection. The big engine is a fine piece of mechanism.

Helping the Right Side.

To help the right side is not only commendable in a general point of view, but is judicious and prudent when that help is enlisted in behalf of the right side of the body, just over the lower ribs in the region of the liver. The most efficient help is afforded by Hostetter's Stomach Bitters, an anti-billious medicine of incomparable efficacy. Inaction of the liver is accompanied by constipation, sick-headache, furred tongue, nausea, occasional vertigo, an unpleasant breath, yellowness of the skin and ball of the eye. The author of these symptoms, liver complaint, routed by the Bitters is accompanied by them in its flight. Fever and ague, which always involves the liver, dyspepsia, rhenmatism' debility and kidney troubles are all maladies to the early relief and final cure of which this standard medicine is adapted. Don't use it by fits and starts, but systematically, that its effec may result in a perfect restoration of health.

STATE NEWS.

Portland Suffers From a Destructive Fire.

NEWS FROM THE STATE CAPITAL

A Newspaper Man Forges and Skips—A Hotel Keeper Assaults a Chinaman.

[The HERALD Special Dispatches.]

PORTLAND, Aug. 25.—This afternoon fire started in the north end of the lumber yard of Weidler's mill, and before it was discovered had gained almost uncontrollable headway. It was nearly fifteen minutes before the engines could could be got to work, and by that time the fire was raging with fury, as pile after pile of the dry lumber burned up like so much chaff. A strong wind from the north swept the flames down the yard like a burning avalanche, sweeping everything combustible before it. In the yard there was 2,000,000 feet of lumber. For a time the mill property was in great danger of being destroyed. The wind fortunately shifted, and after a long and desperate fight the department brought the flames under control. It is very difficult to estimate the loss at this time. There is some insurance on the mill, but how much is not known. The fire is supposed to have caught from a spark from a passing locomotive. It is estimated that over 200,000 feet of rough lumber was destroyed.

CHEMEKETA HOTEL MASHER.

SALEM, Aug. 25.—Harry Dubois, one of the proprietors of the Chemeketa hotel, to-day commited an unprovoked assault on Ah Joe, a Chinese scullion in the hotel kitchen, knocking him down by a blow on the head with a heavy bar used in locking the door. A warrant is out for his arrest, but he has secreted himself.

NAUGHTY WATERBURY.

A warrant has been sworn out by Fithian & Miller, proprietors of the Vidette, for the arrest of W. M. Waterbury, late advertising solicieor for that paper, who skipped the town Thursday, for forging their names to receipts for money he had collected without authority from them. Parties have been arrested at Seattle and at Eugene City on suspicion of being Waterbury.

TWO FIRES IN ONE NIGHT.

At half-past 2 o'clock this morning fire was discovered in a vacant room up-stairs in Moores' block over Staiger Bros. shoe store and the adjoining rooms of Dr. H. Smith, where a fire occurred about 12:20 Thursday night. The fire was extinguished before much damage was done. The two fires were undoubtedly of incendiary origin, although no motive can be assigned for the deed. By the last fire the owners of the building lose about $200 and Staiger Bros. $500. Both fully in-sured.
