HAVE YOU A COLIC IN THE HEAD WHICH DOES NOT GET BETTER? Have you an excessive secretion of mucus or matter in the nasal passages which either must be blown from the nose or drop back behind the palate, or hawked or snuffed backward to the throat? Are you troubled by hawking, spitting, weak and inflamed eyes, frequent soreness of the throat, ringing or roaring in the ears, more or less impairment of the hearing, loss of smell, memory impaired, dullness or dizziness of the head, drowsiness or heat of nose? Have you lost all sense of smell? Have you a hacking cough? Have you dyspepsia? Is your breath foul? If so you have the CATARRH. Some have all these symptoms, others only a part. The leading symptom of ordinary catarrh is increased secretion of mucus of yellow or greenish colored matter. Foul breath is caused by the decomposing secretions exhaled from festering ulcers far back in the head; sometimes the membrane covering the bones is eaten away and the bones themselves gradually decay. Such cases as in dead objects of pity, as stench from corroding sores reveal the corruption within.

As every breath drawn into the lungs must pass over and become polluted by the secretions in the nasal passages, it must necessarily follow that poisoning of the whole system gradually takes place, while the morbid matter that is swallowed enters the stomach, excites the digestion, and often produces dyspepsia, flatulency, nervousness and consumption.

STATE NEWS.

Queer Freak of a Linn County Burglar in the Penitentiary.

NEWSPAPERS FROM PORTLAND

The Wilson-Murray Blackmail Affair—The First Day of the Portland Races—The Winsors.

The Herald's Special Dispatches.] SALEM, Sept. 12.—A convict at the penitentiary named O'Brien sentenced from Linn county for one year for larceny, while at work in the foundry yesterday afternoon suddenly sat down and began whistling. When a guard approached and asked what was the matter he kept on whistling. When he was taken to the prison before the warden he still whistled and he has whistled almost continuously ever since. Supt. Downing to-day approached the fellow, and after much questioning and patient endurance of his concert he elicited from him that he desired to see his mother; beyond that nothing could be gotten from him. To-morrow he will be turned loose in the prison corridor with a pair of cuffs on for the purpose of ascertaining what turn the whistling freak will take. The fellow is either crazy or is undertaking a dodge to avoid work in the foundry. O'Brien is the youth who robbed the hardware store of Stewart & Sox in Albany a few months ago.

THE WILSON-BLACKMAIL AFFAIR.

PORTLAND, Sept. 12.—This morning was the time fixed for John D. Wilcox and C. H. Melsaac to plead. Both the defendants appeared in the court room, looking fresh and anything but dejected. Mr. Wilcox was represented by Richard Williams and Melsaac by James Gleason. Mr. Williams stated that he demurred to the indictment, in which he was seconded by Mr. Gleason. The court signified his pleasure to hear arguments on the demurrer on Monday next, when Hon. Joseph Simon will appear as associate counsel of Mr. McGinn in the prosecution.

What promised to be a high court sensation, namely, the indictment of Dr. Frances Murray, charged by J. D. Wilcox and his co-defendant with manslaughter in the case of the death of Mary Schneider, from the effect of unlauded medical practice, has fallen to the ground, perhaps never to be resurrected. The grand jury ignored the accusation and destroyed all the testimony presented to them, after a careful investigation. This course exonerates the doctor from all blame in connection with Miss Schneider's death.

THE PORTLAND RACES.

8,500 people attended the first day's events of the fall meeting. In the first race, 1 1/4 mile dash, four entries, Repetta, Coloma, Rosa Lewis and Vice Regent, Repetta won, Lewis 2d, Coloma 3d; time, 14 1/2. In the 2:25 trot, the entries were Kitty Lynch, Contractor, Fantail, Carrie Bell and Palatina. Kitty Lynch won the first heat in 2:29. Mutuals paid $2850. Palatina was distanced in the second heat, which was won by Fantail, Kitty Lynch second. Time 2:28 1/2.

AN ABLE DOCUMENT.

A Brief Synopsis of General Harrison's Letter of Acceptance.

The following is a synopsis of General Harrison's letter of acceptance:

After expressing his appreciation of the confidence and respect manifested by the convention he says: "It is a matter of congratulation that the declarations of the Chicago convention upon the questions that now attract the interest of our people are clear and emphatic. There is further cause of congratulation in the fact that the convention utterances of the democratic party, if in any degree uncertain or contradictory, can be judged and interpreted by executive acts and messages and by definite propositions in legislation. This is especially true of what is popularly known as the tariff question. The issue cannot now be obscured. It is not a contest between schedules, but between wide-apart principles. Foreign competitors for our market have with quick instinct seen how one issue of this contest may be to them advantageous, and our people are no so dull as to miss or neglect the grave interest involved."

Of the Mills bill he says it is a step in the direction of free trade. The important question is not the length but the direction of the step.

Judging from the president's message, the Mills bill and the St. Louis platform, the evident intention of the democratic party is to place the tariff laws on a purely revenue basis. This is practical free trade in the English sense.

He says the republican party hold a protective tariff to be constitutional, wholesome, and necessary.

The letter asserts that the direction of public attention by the democrats to the surplus was only to enable them to attack the tariff, and he holds that the surplus should be used in purchase of bonds.

In regard to foreign labor, he states he is heartily in favor of any law which shall place restriction on the streams of contract labor now coming to this country. He says we should resolve to refuse to permit foreign governments to send their paupers and criminals to our ports.

COMMANDER REA'S ADDRESS.

Republican Gain of 1700 in Maine—Different Political Conventions—The Wheat Shortage in the North.

The Herald's Special Dispatches. COLUMBUS, Sept. 12.—The national encampment proper began this morning. In the course of his annual address Commander-in-Chief Rea says: "On March 31, 1887, the total number of this order in good standing was 320,936. On March 31, 1888 it was 354,216, making a net gain of 32,280. Reports show on June 30th that there were 395,245 comrades borne on the rolls, to which may still be added a sufficient number out on transfer cards to swell the grand total to 400,000.

New York Democrats.

BUFFALO (N. Y.), Sept. 12.—The democratic state convention was called to order at 1 p. m. by Mayor Murphy, of Troy, chairman. Gov. Raines was made temporary chairman. After the appointment of the usual committees a recess was taken until this evening.

Who Cares?

VIENNA, Sept. 12.—The diet opened yesterday, and the German members declined to sit.

Wheat Shortage.

FARGO (Dakota), Sept. 12.—C. A. Lonsberry estimates the wheat shortage in the Red River Valley at 10,000,000 bushels.

Floods in the Old World.

ROME, Sept. 12.—The floods in the provinces of Lombardy and Venice have done much damage. Many people have been drowned. The waters are subsiding.

Massachusetts Republicans.

BOSTON, Sept. 12.—The republican state convention was called to order at 11 o'clock by Chairman Burden to nominate the state ticket. The present state officers, except the state treasurer, will probably be re-nominated. Before recess the ballot for governor was taken, resulting in the re-nomination of Gov. Ames by a vote of 853 to 289 for W. T. Draper.

The Maine Election.

LEWISTON, Sept. 12.—Nearly complete returns from the second congressional district show the election of Eddy (rep.) by about 5500 plurality. The republican gain is 1700 over 2 years ago.

AKA ATHLETES GOOD STUDENTS.

Cornell Professors Think They Are Result of an Investigation.

New York Tribune.

Such prejudice is often manifested against intercollegiate contests, as it is claimed that they are detrimental to good scholarship. In order to discover the real state of the case, a thorough examination was recently made at Cornell University of the records of all the men who had engaged in intercollegiate contests since the opening of the institution. The result showed that the average scholarship for the year of each man who had rowed in the crews was 70 per cent, that of the ball players 73, and that of the track athletes 76, a standing of 70 per cent being necessary for graduation. Fifty-four per cent of all these men graduated which is seven per cent above the university rate of graduation. The base-ball and track athletes graduated 34 per cent of their number, with an honorable standing (80 per cent), which is about in the same proportion as the university rate. Very few of the crew men, however graduated with honors. In physical development the reverse order was found to hold, the crew men coming first, the baseball players next and the athletes last. The total average was considerably above that of the university. The results would seem to show that inter-collegiate contests, when kept with reasonable limits, do not interfere with the general scholarship of educational institutions, and this is the attitude which always held toward the subject.

A Warning.
