NOTICES ABOUT TOWN.

"Olivette"

Juvenile Opera Company Albany Opera House, Saturday.

Mrs. Martin returned yesterday from a visit at Mehana.

Max Friendly, the lumber merchant of Corvallis, was in the city yesterday.

Do not neglect to hear Geo. W. Cable's reading at the opera house to-night.

S. W. Crowder and wife left yesterday for a few weeks sojourn at Yaquina Bay.

Mrs. C. C. Hogue, of Corvallis, returned home yesterday from a visit at her mother's in this city.

Just receive at Krause & Klein's—a full line of dancing shoes, something handsome for the military ball.

Patronize home industry and try some of J. Joseph's Havana filled 5c. cigars, the first of his own manufacture.

S. E. Young's fall announcement on opposite page will be found of interest to those desiring elegant, late style goods of first-class quality.

Messrs. Burkhardt & Miller sold yesterday to John Barger, of California, 20 acres of one of H. Bryant's large farms. Consideration, $400.

Since Dr. McAlister left for Yaquina he has had several returns of the hemorrhage of the lungs, and is but slightly improved.

There will be no preaching at the M. E. church next Sunday, the pastor, Rev. H. P. Webb, having gone to Yaquina on a vacation. Sunday school will be held as usual.

In the article of pure honey Conn Bros. have now on hand a supply that is truly fine. It is strained and in splendid condition and the genuine article. We speak from practical knowledge.

A new line of carpets, clothing, boots and shoes is offered at A. B. Mellwain at prices that cannot be undersold in the city. The superiority of their goods, together with the very low prices, make them very desirable. Call and see them.

The Safe and Reliable Baking Powder at Conrad Myer's, is the most desirable powder ever offered to the public. Two elegant prizes, which the buyer can select from a large invoice of Chinaware, vases, etc., are given away with each can.

The Juvenile opera company will give a special matinee Saturday afternoon, producing the celebrated opera "Pinafore." This is a fine chance for parents to send their children to see a first-class performance.

The Juvenile opera company of San Francisco will give one performance and a matinee in this city Saturday, September 15th. This is the same Juvenile opera company which scored such a great success in Portland and other northern cities last season, and of which the Oregonian said, "Although children they are equal to any opera company that ever appeared in Portland."

THE NEW STEAMER.

The Programme for its Formal Hoisting To-Morrow Afternoon.

The committee on general arrangements appointed by Albany Engine Company No. 1 to arrange for the hoisting of the new steamer met last evening.

It was decided that the company meet in uniform and form in procession at their hall at 1 o'clock, and march to the hall of Linn Engine Co. No. 2. There the engine will be received from the city. A short address will be delivered by Mayor Cowan, which will be responded to by Hon. W. R. Bilyeu on the part of the company.

The Albany fire department, headed by Engine Co. No. 1, with the new steamer, will then march up First street to No. 1's hall, where the engine will be formally hoisted, after which it will be given a trial on the street.

A committee on reception, consisting of C. W. Warts, W. H. Warner and Charles Crowder, was appointed to look after the entertainment of the firemen from abroad. The affair promises to be an interesting one, and the occasion of the hoisting of the new steamer will be a gala day for the Albany firemen.

Y. M. C. A. Meeting.

The fifth annual convention of the Young Men's Christian Association of Oregon, Washington territory, British Columbia and Alaska will be held in Seattle, W. T., September 29 and 30. Noted workers will be present from California and the East, and one of the grandest gatherings of young men ever held on the coast is fully expected. Reduced rates have been given by railroad and steamboat lines, and delegates will be entertained free of cost. Teachers of Sunday schools, pastors and all interested in this work are invited to correspond with E. C. Frost, of Portland, Oregon, who will give all particulars.

An Enterprising Firm.

The Willamette Packing Co. shipped two more car loads of fruit yesterday to Portland. They are now canning tomatoes and finishing their pack of blackberries. They are supplying large quantities of fruit to the railroad contractors. They have received at their store on Second street a large invoice of fresh groceries, hams, bacon, etc. Their fruit pack is unexcelled, and is much preferred by dealers to the California product.

Fined for Killing Chinese Pheasants

A young business man of this city drove over to Corvallis Sunday to see relatives and on his return shot a Chinese pheasant on the farm of Kobe Kiger. The latter overtook the buggy and stopped the occupants on the road and went through the contents and found the bird. He then informed the authorities, and yesterday the Albany gentleman went up to Corvallis and paid his fine of $50. He is of course very irate and threatens to have Kiger arrested for going through his buggy on the highway.

Less Paid.

The insurance of $600 on the barn of Mark Hulbert, which recently burned near this city, was paid yesterday by the Farmers and Merchant's Ins Co., of Albany. The insurance on the house was adjusted yesterday by W. S. White, the Hartford's agent, and after the usual delay it may be paid. The moral is obvious: Insure in the home company.

A $9000 Fire at Jacksonville.

Pacific coast towns have experienced an unusual number of incendiary fires recently. The last is a $9000 fire at Jacksonville. It broke out in D. Linn's wagon factory and destroyed $6000 worth of lumber, material, etc., also the residences of W. J. Plymale and N. Fisher and caused some minor losses. There was no insurance on any of the property burned.

Notice.

All those knowing themselves indebted to Dr. McAlister are requested to call at his office or residence and make immediate payment.

IN THE GRIP OF THE LAW.

The Siftings Editor, Who is Wanted in Albany, Will Be Up To-Day.

The editor of the Oregon Siftings, published at Portland, has recently been publishing through its Albany correspondence most libelous and scandalous falsehoods concerning some of Albany's best young people. A warrant was sworn out for his arrest and yesterday morning Constable C. G. Burkhardt went to Portland for the purpose of arresting the proprietors of that sheet.

A telegram received from Mr. Burkhardt last night stated that he had the party wanted and would be up on the noon train.

The authors of such shameful and scurrilous attacks upon respectable people as has appeared recently in the Siftings should be given the full extent of the law, and if this fails, an application of tar and feathers would have a wholesome and cleansing effect upon the community.

A Big Purchase.

The Northern Pacific Railroad Company has purchased the entire system of the Cour d'Alene Railway & Navigation Company, comprising a number of steamers which ply on Lake Cour d'Alene and Cour d'Alene river, as well as twenty-eight miles of narrow gauge railway extending from Cour d'Alene mission through the mining region of that name. The newly acquired property gives the Northern Pacific an all rail connection with Puget Sound, and the mines of Idaho Territory. The narrow gauge will be widened to a standard gauge. The Cour d'Alene Company pays 2 per cent quarterly upon a capital of $100,000. There $300,000 of 6 per cent bonds outstanding.

A Warm Discussion.

At the business meeting of F. Co., O. N. G., held Tuesday evening a warm debate arose over a resolution to change the time of drill meetings to twice a month instead of once a week as at present. Some severe criticisms and cutting personalities were indulged in, which led to a series of repartees not dissimilar to the Mitchell-Morgan affair in the U. S. senate the other day. The worthy war, however, was amicably settled, although the voluntary resignation of some of the officers was talked of for a brief period, while the controversy waxed warm.

Seriously Hurt.

It is learned that J. D. Wool, living above Lebanon, while returning home with his team Monday met with a serious accident. His team ran away while going down a hill and threw him out, inflicting severe wounds about the head and chest. He was found late at night by his sons, who had gone in search of him, and was still unconscious. It is thought he will recover.

Tillamook's Fish Industry.

The Oregonian says: Messrs. Barin, Pomeroy, Maxwell, Allen and Bilyeu, the legislative committee on fish industries, and State Fish Commissioners F. C. Reed, E. P. Thompson and R. C. Campbell were to leave Portland on Tuesday for Tillamook to investigate the fish industry of that bay, out, owing to press of business, were unable to go. They will make the visit some time in the near future.

Returned Home.

L. Funk, wife and daughter, T. J. Davis, wife and child, Wm. Funk and A. G. Campbell, of Stockton, Cal., who have been sojourning in the mountains, in Linn county, started yesterday on their return home, much pleased with their trip.

Of Interest to Ladies.

Just received my stock of kid gloves. A nice line of opera kids for balls and parties. Samuel E. Young.

W. C. T. U. Convention.

Mrs. L. E. Blain, Mrs. Young, Misses Mary Irvine and Rhoda Hail and Mrs. M. V. Brown went to Lebanon yesterday to attend the annual session of Linn county W. C. T. U. convention.

JUNCTION CITY ITEMS.

JUNCTION CITY, Sept. 12. Hop picking is in progress.

Farmers are happy over the present price of wheat. The railroad company is building a good, new and substantial stock yard.

George Krentz is building a neat little cottage in the southern part of town.

Rev. E. A. Wooley, of Eugene, spent last Sabbath in town.

The Junction City Plot is newsy in form, but democratic in principle.

Both of our ware houses are being run to their utmost capacity, about ten thousand bushels of grain coming in daily.

W. L. Lewis, the butcher, is having his dwelling raised up, underpinned and repainted, which will add greatly to the appearance of things in that part of town.

Most of our young people are rusticated in the hop patch. The price paid per seven bushel boxes is 40 cents, which gives the young folks a chance to make something as well as have a good time.

A young minister from Scio, by the name of Wooley, of the U. P. church, preached two excellent services here on last Sabbath. We understand that he will preach here once a month.

Miss McFadden an old time resident of Junction, and a successful teacher in painting, is visiting old friends. She is on her way to Roseburg where she goes to teach painting in the public school.

STAYTON ITEMS.

STAYTON, Sept. 12. The Stayton school commenced Monday, Sept. 10th, with Mr. Bennett, from Salem, as teacher.

W. H. Hobson and Uriah Whitney went to Portland on Monday, Sept. 10th, as witnesses on behalf of the S. W. D. & C. Co.

Work on the O. P. railroad is progressing finely. Stayton can hear the cars every day, but to see them we need a bridge.

Two of our citizens started fishing this morning. It seems as if one or the other would be successful, and before they could replace it they drifted into the ditch company's head gates, upsetting the boat. They saved themselves by climbing the gates. There was an exciting time for a few moments.

Dr. S. D. McCauley and son have sent their families to Portland for a few weeks' visit. They then go to Seattle, where they will take up their new abode. We miss them both as citizens and physicians; notwithstanding, we are glad to see their vacancy filled with one of Salem's respectable citizens and physicians. We wish them all success.

Reduced Rates on the O. & C.

Commencing Sept. 13, and until Sept. 24 the Southern Pacific (O. & C.) railroad will sell round trip tickets for one half fair from Ashland, and all stations on the road to the state fair grounds.

Fine Horses for Sale.

We have just brought from Eastern Oregon a fine lot of work horses which we will sell on terms to suit the times. Among them is some promising young drivers from Onevo, Mason Chief, and Edward Everett. Also some choice heavy mares. Anyone wishing a horse will do well to look them over and we will take pleasure in showing them to all intending purchasers.

The Military Ball.

Parson and Bray's orchestra of Portland has been engaged by "F" Co., to furnish music for their military ball on Sept. 14. These gentlemen have supplied the music for balls here on different occasions and better could not be wished for. The Company's armory will be beautifully decorated and no detail of arrangements will be neglected as the members of "F" intend to make this ball a truly magnificent affair. Don't fail to attend if you receive an invitation. Tickets without supper $1.50. Owing to the nature of the dancing hall it was at first decided that no spectators be admitted, but later arrangements have been perfected whereby a limited number can be accommodated at an admission fee of 50c each.

Voted by Harrison.

Wm. Kerns, the well-known pioneer, who came here in 1851, and is 75 years of age, related to an Oregonian recently that he voted for President Harrison in 1849, and he voted for him in 1856 and 1860 both, and expects to vote for the next president, Gen. Ben Harrison in November. He used to be a democrat before he was old enough to vote, and marched in processions carrying a hickory broom and hurrahed for Jackson. What disgusted him with the democrats was the way the whole party, like a flock of sheep, followed one man on the national bank question, just as the are now following one man on the free trade question, and he has never voted the democratic ticket and never expects to.
